Laona Library Lore Native American display to run through December

The Edith Evans Community Library is pleased to let the public know that there is a Native American display for your viewing pleasure.

To pay tribute to Native American Tribes, the display was originally going to be available in November only; but, because of the popularity of this display, it will be available through the end of December.

The items on display were borrowed from Lorrie and Frank Shepard. Please do feel free to stop in, and take a look at the unique items.

January's display will feature tid-bits of Laona School history; and will contain items from year-books, letter-jackets, pictures, and bricks from the previous school that burned down.

If you have a unique collection, or hobby, that you would be willing to share with the public, please do feel free to contact Ruby Westimayer at 715-674-2008.

The Alley Cats to perform Jingle Bell Rock A Harmoniously Hysterical Holiday Hit at Nicolet

The Nicolet Live! theater series will kick off the holiday season with a special concert December 3rd by the acclaimed Alley Cats, an a cappella group known for its tight harmonies, smooth dance moves and high-energy do-wop tunes.

The show, Jingle Bell Rock – A Harmoniously Hysterical Holiday Hit, begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Nicolet College Theatre.

This treasured quartet performs around the country. Formed in 1987 at Fullerton College, Calif., they landed their first professional gig at Disneyland's Blast to the Past. Soon after, they began making appearances on TV, radio shows, corporate events, performing arts centers, fairs, festivals, and schools.

As their popularity soared, The Alley Cats were invited to perform in USO shows welcoming home troops from Iraq, at The White House, as Jay Leno's opening act in Las Vegas and as his late-night show guests. They've also shared the stage with Joan Rivers and crooned with Conan O'Brien.

"The Alley Cats are a perfect blend of musical talent and comic timing," said Nicolet Theatre Director Jim Nuttall. "They're refreshing and spontaneous, and love to interact with the audience. You can expect to hear favorites like Let It Snow, Blue Christmas, Do You Hear What I Hear, Jingle Bell Rock, Sleigh Ride, Little St. Nick, White Christmas, and many others. This is a great way to get in the holiday spirit."

Tickets are $15 and can be purchased online at nicoletlive.com, or by calling the box office at (715) 365-4646.

FCP Donates to Forest County Law Enforcement

Forest County Sheriff John Dennee, FCP Chairman Gus Frank and Forest County Board Chairman Paul Millian finalize the deal.

By Val Niehaus

The FCP tribe donated approximately $237,000 to the Forest County Law Enforcement to provide the number of equipped officers needed to patrol the reservation land in Forest County. This includes Stone Lake, Carter and surrounding reservation lands. The officers will be working 24 hours a day seven days a week in order to have law enforcement present on tribal land.

These officers will be part of the FCP community. You will most likely see them at community events getting to know the people and eventually you will be able to know them on personal basis. FCP Chairman Gus Frank quoted, "This is a step in the right direction for dedicated officers to serve our lands and this has been a long time coming."

Sheriff John Dennee replied with, "This is continued collaboration between Forest County Law Enforcement and the FCP tribe to keep our communities safe. The same officers will be working the same shifts and will be at community events showing their service."

Paul Millan, Forest County Board Chairman, also commented, "It's a great step in the right direction. It shows unity and continued support with government and tribes. We are all working towards a common goal."

Laona School Food Drive

The Laona Student Council hosted a school wide food drive to benefit the St. Leonard's Church Food Pantry in Laona. The 7th-12th graders competed with each other and the staff while grades K-6 competed with each other to bring in the most non-perishable food items. The students did an amazing job bring in over 900 food items. The week ended with a Pep Assembly on Friday to celebrate the students' hard work on the WKCE tests and their efforts in the food drive.

The students competed against each other and the staff in games like turkey bowling, food relay races, best turkey call, and baby bottle drinking contests. The 6th grade brought in the most food items for the elementary and the 8th graders brought in the most food on the other side beating the staff who were in 2nd place. To reward them they were able to throw a pie at a teacher, who were great sports.

Over all the food drive was a great success and a way for the students to give back to the community that always supports them.

Blood Drive planned in Mole Lake

A community blood drive has been planned in Mole Lake on Thursday, December 12 from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The blood drive will be held in the Bingo Room of the Casino, at 3084 Hwy 55. The drive is being hosted by Mole Lake Casino and the Sokaogon Chippewa Health Clinic. Blood donors can enter a drawing to win a one-night's stay at the Mole Lake Casino Lodge.

Blood donations are projected to decrease substantially in the last two weeks of December. Blood drives like the one on Thursday will bolster the blood supply before the holidays, lessening the impact of the donation decline.

Advance donation appointments are highly recommended, and may be made by calling Linda at (715)478-5180, or visiting . Walk-in donors are welcome, but scheduling an appointment helps ensure a fast and convenient process.

Blood donors must be at least 17 years old (16 with parental permission), weigh at least 110 pounds, be in general good health, and bring a photo ID. Donors are encouraged to eat a regular meal and drink plenty of fluids prior to donating.

Letters to the Editor

We welcome letter to the Editor; however the letters should be legible, in good taste, not libelous and pertinent to current issues. Names will not be withheld upon request, except for very special circumstances. NAME AND PHONE NUMBER SHOULD BE INCLUDED FOR VERIFICATION PURPOSES. We reserve the right to reject any and all letters.

Letter to the editor:

As Mayor for the great City of Crandon I am proud of our Off-Road heritage, which is largely due to the great events that take place at Crandon International Raceway. When people discuss Off-Road, they think of places like Crandon and Forest County. Off-Road enthusiasm is also good for Crandon businesses.

I am pleased to hear that there is potential for an Off-Road Park to be located right here in the county. Some of that $28 million in annual revenue that has been forecast will certainly end up in the cashboxes of Crandon businesses, and that will also be good for the Crandon taxpayer. I support Forest County's Board and hope we can get the Park to locate in our county—let's not lose this economic opportunity to some other place

The Lake Metonga Association and the Forest County Association of Lakes Sponsor a Lake Outing

On Thursday, October 26, 2013; the ecology class from Crandon High School with their teacher, Mrs. Cindy Edlund, met the association members on Lake Metonga. There were three stations set-up to have parts of the class rotate to observe things about the lake. One group met with R. T. Krueger of the Northern Lakes Service at the outlet of the lake, the start of Swamp Creek, to study aquatic insects and the diversity of the insects in the river. Another group went out on the lake with fish biologist Mike Preul, with his shocking boat to see various types of fish located in the lake. The third group went out on the lake with a pontoon boat driven by Harry Resch with Les Schramm narrating the trip and showing the invasive species of Eurasian Water Milfoil and Zebra Mussels that have infested the lake. Each group rotated so that all the students were able to see what was going on at each station.

The students were very attentive and learned a lot about the things that are going on in this Northern Wisconsin lake. Mrs. Edlund and the School District of Crandon appreciated and paid tribute to the associations at the school board meeting in November. Both associations would like to continue this in the future with the possibility of getting Crandon, Laona and Wabeno students involved.

The Girl Singers Christmas Concert-Three Lakes

If you "need a little Christmas", the place to be is Three Lakes WI on December 3rd. Colleen Raye, along with her daughters Sophia and Jennifer Grimm and her sister Debbie O'Keefe, returns to the high school auditorium there to bring the wonder and magic of Christmas to life. This special show not only delights the ear with cherished Christmas songs, but delights the eye with the snow and charm of the Christmas season.

The program includes classic hits from the Andrews Sisters ("Merry Christmas Polka" and Winter Wonderland), the McGuire Sisters ("Christmas Alphabet" and "The 12 Days of Christmas") and Brenda Lee ("Rockin around the Christmas Tree"). Favorites from the Lennon Sisters and the King Family are also part of the evening. The warmth of family and friends at this holiday time is woven through an evening that rings with "Silver Bells" and blankets us in a "White Christmas".

Plan to be there on December 3rd, 7:30pm in the Three Lakes High School auditorium for this unique holiday show. Tickets are $20 per adult and children under 18 are free (and parents are encouraged to bring their kids along to this fun and festive evening). Tickets are available at BMO/Harris Banks in Three Lakes, Rhinelander and Eagle River or at the door the night of the performance.

This is the third concert in this year's Three Lakes School/Community Arts Association series. It is supported by the Arts Midwest Touring Fund, a program of Arts Midwest that is funded by the National Endowment for the Arts, with additional contributions from the Wisconsin Arts Board and General Mills Foundation.

Remembering my friend, Cindy (Marvin) Conway
 "I'm ready to be inspired," I said to Cindy (who was a source of inspiration to so many). She replied, "That's not quite how it works." So, instead, we sat in her garden quietly watching the bees until I smiled at her and said, "I forgot it's that simple."
I miss her.

THANK YOU!

A huge thank you for all of the wonderful family and friends who so generously gave for Annette's benefit! The outpouring of support from the community and beyond was overwhelming! We wanted to list the businesses and names of those who donated, but it would fill this page and we wouldn't want to forget anyone. Thank you to those who planned and worked at the benefit, it was a huge success. Thank you to those who cooked and baked the wonderful food. Thank you for all the great donations. The amount of people who came was simply awesome! We appreciate all those who came and gave of their time, talents, and money in support of Annette. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
 Thank you especially for the prayers for Annette and her family.

Nicolet to offer three free upcoming Creative Arts events

Three free events in Nicolet College's Creative Arts Series will give people the chance to explore the artistic aspects of paper, delve into the world of eReaders and tablet computers, and take in the popular Community Holiday Concert just in time for the holiday season. Details of each event include:

 Community of Paper: Building Community Through Paper and Print will be Saturday, November 23 to Saturday, January 18, with a closing reception: 5 to 7 p.m. Friday, January 17th, at the Nicolet College Art Gallery, Learning Resources Center.
 Through the common medium of paper a community of students and artists was born. Works in this exhibit feature hand papermaking, letterpress, pulp printing, bookmaking, and collage, each produced by teachers and students at one of the area's newest art centers – The Mill Paper and Book Arts Center, in Rhineland.

Gallery hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday during the semester. The gallery is closed on holidays and open limited hours between semesters.

Tech Talk
 eReaders or Tablets? What's Your Style? The event is on Thursday, December 12th, at 3 p.m., Nicolet Campus, Learning Resources Center Room 205 and 7 p.m. Nicolet Lakeland Center, Minocqua, 9569 Hwy. 70 W.

Have a Healthy Red & Green Holiday!

Submitted by Kate Schultz

Best Winter Activities for Seniors

Eating several servings of a variety of colorful fruits and vegetables a day helps maintain good health, protect against the effects of aging, and reduce the risk of cancer and heart disease.

Have some fun with the red and green colors during the winter holiday season. Here's a list of red and green fruits and vegetables from the National Cancer Institute.

Red: Tomatoes, spaghetti sauce, tomato juice, tomato soup, red peppers, red onions, beets, red cabbage, kidney beans, apples, pink grapefruit, red grapes, strawberries, cherries, watermelon, raspberries, cranberries, pomegranates.

Green: Leafy greens, asparagus, green peppers, broccoli, green beans, peas, cabbage, green onion, brussels sprouts, okra, zucchini, Chinese cabbage, green apple, green grapes, honeydew melon, kiwi fruit, limes.

Some quick red and green fruit/vegetable combos include:

- Red and green apple slices surrounding your favorite fruit dip like a wreath
- Cole slaw with red apple chunks
- Cole slaw with cherry tomato or grape tomato halves
- Tomato soup garnished just before serving with a sprinkle of green onion stems, sliced into small rings

• Small sprigs of red and green grapes used as an edible garnish around a holiday meat platter

- Peas garnished with bits of pimiento
- Pomegranate juice garnished with a slice of lime
- Juicy pomegranate seeds tossed atop a green salad - for information on how to eat a pomegranate, visit the Pomegranate Council Website at www.pomegranates.org/nomess.html

• Pizza with a tomato sauce topping and chopped green peppers

Senior citizens and the winter season do not often get along very well. During these cold months, they are supposed to stay inside; otherwise, extreme weather may cause illness or injury. However, this does not mean that seniors should only eat, sleep and just watch TV all throughout the winter season. There are actually a number of winter activities that are not only enjoyable but are also beneficial to the grandmas and grandpas out there.

Playing Bingo

Bingo may not be the best game for staying fit while remaining indoors, but this is actually a great game that encourages mental stimulation. It is also a great way to make new friends. This game is not only played at home, but can also be found in local halls and senior clubs. Although bingo normally involves some money or prizes, it can also be played for the fun of it. Plus, there are different types of the game so that each round can seem unique.

Using the Treadmill

Treadmills are actually good friends of senior citizens while they remain indoors. Walking on a treadmill daily is just like walking outside except that there are no worries about tripping into or falling down the snowy path. Similarly, senior citizens who enjoy biking leisurely can still do what they usually do by using the stationary bike. It is just as beneficial to the body as riding outdoors. Additionally, they are much safer especially during the harsh winter seasons. Using these machines can definitely keep seniors fit and healthy even while staying inside.

Go Bowling

Bowling is a classic social activity said to be about 4,000 years old. It is fun and is one of the best ways to meet new people. Even those who do not like games will surely be interested in playing bowling with other seniors. Aside from being enjoyable, bowling offers great benefits physically. It helps the player get into shape especially when done regularly. It also tones the muscle and even works as a strength exercise.

Video Games

Although seniors are not generally seen as techy people, they can truly benefit from video games. A combination of exercise and gaming, there are now a variety of high-tech games that boost fitness in adults and keep them mentally active. There are boxing, tennis, and even dance games. Of course, they cannot be compared with the health benefits offered by doing the real activity, but they are strongly advised to seniors nowadays particularly during the cold winter season. They are an excellent way to keep being active instead of sleeping all day as the snow or rain pours down. It is important though that the senior or the caretaker or nurse knows the limits of the senior since some of the video games can be too demanding for their age as sometimes learning about things that are online or computer based can frustrate both the carer and the senior.

Walk Up and Down the Stairs

Winter activities do not have to be fancy. Simply walking up and down the stairs can actually keep senior citizens healthy. Sure, it is not as pleasant and fun as the other activities mentioned above, but this is one sure way to remain healthy throughout the winter. It burns more calories and keeps them away from heart diseases.

Take a Class

Cooking, sewing, and other kinds of classes can make the senior citizen busy and happy during the cold months. Enrolling in a class is a brilliant method to meet new people or gain new friends. In addition, this improves memory, keeps their minds sharp and even boosts their self-confidence. Learning anything is the best way to have a healthy mind and body for a long time. If your elderly relative is at home with a career most of the time, then there is the added benefit of having some independence in getting out of the house.

The activities in this list are definitely entertaining and beneficial for seniors. However, before starting an activity, make sure to consult with the doctor first to avoid health risks.

Crooked Lake/Mountain Lions donate to food pantry

At the November meeting of the Crooked Lake/Mountain Lions Club, which was held at The Pines Supper Club, members were asked to bring non-perishable food items for the Christian Food Pantry in Townsend. Because of the upcoming Holidays, the club also thought it appropriate to make a second $500 donation to the pantry for this year. Jim Zittlow of the Christian Food Pantry is pictured receiving the $400 donation from Lion Darlene Berntson. The collected food items and the monetary donation were delivered to the food pantry at St. John's Lutheran Church in Townsend.
