Potawatomi and Forest County Announce Intergovernmental Agreement over land sale

Submitted by the Forest County Potawatomi and Forest County

The Forest County Potawatomi Community (Potawatomi) and Forest County announced that they have signed an intergovernmental agreement which will improve government-to-government communication and allow for more cooperation on key issues in Forest County.

"The Potawatomi share our goal in promoting the county's economy, preserving its environment and enhancing the quality of life for all its residents," said Erhard Huettl, Forest County Board Chairman. "It is important that we work together to reach those goals."

According to the agreement, the Potawatomi and Forest County will consult with each other on issues of mutual interest.

"We are looking forward to working with the members of the County Board to ensure that Forest County is a place where people will want to raise a family and do business for generations to come," said Potawatomi Chairman Gus Frank.

The Potawatomi and Forest County also announced that they have reached a settlement regarding land sale agreements dating back to 1980. The settlement stems from a 30 year old mining company agreement with Forest County to purchase approximately 880 acres of county land in Lincoln Township. As part of the Crandon mine purchase in 2003, the Potawatomi was assigned that right to purchase the 880 acres of land in Lincoln Township.

Instead of selling the 880 acres in the Town of Lincoln to the Potawatomi, Forest County has agreed to re-pay the $1.5 million that has been received as option payments on the land. The Potawatomi will receive 400 acres of land owned by Forest County to compensate for the interest accrued on the option payments.

The Potawatomi will also contribute $130,000 annually to Forest County for the next five years to support economic development and law enforcement, as well as enhance the general health and welfare of county residents.

Lumberjack Steam Train To Kick Off 2011 Season on June 22 Season will run June 22 - August 27

LAONA, WI -- The historic Lumberjack Steam Train made its first run of the year to the Wisconsin Forestry Museum Complex on June 22, 2011. Take the whole family on a trip back in time with a ride on a vintage steam train, located in Laona, Wis., within convenient driving distance of Chicago, the Twin Cities and all points in Wisconsin.

Tickets on the Lumberjack Steam Train include the round-trip ride and admission into the Wisconsin Forestry Museum Complex of historic and natural attractions, including the Logging Museum and Blacksmith Shop, Green Treasure Forest Tour, Animal Barn and Corral, the Nature Center, Cracker Barrel Store, Francis Weiner Diesel Static Display and Choo Choo Hut Restaurant & Picnic Area. Visitors are welcome to bring their own picnic coolers.

Last year, the tracks for the Lumberjack Steam Train were completely rebuilt. The original track dated to the early 1900s and had not been fully replaced, only maintained. The original 60-pound rail, which was replaced, dated from the mid- to late-1800s. The newest technical equipment was brought in to secure new 90-pound rails and raise the road bed. Green Bay-based Holubar Construction accomplished the task of bringing the railroad up to modern federal rail standards. The rail bed has been raised about 15 inches, and new rebuilt steps and platforms are ready to help visitors get on and off the train.

Once again, visitors will be able to ride in an old box car originally built by Haskel and Barker in July 1920 and part of the Laona & Northern Railway. The vintage car has been carefully converted into an open-air observation car.

Also new in 2011 are additions to the petting zoo including kittens, goats and miniature horses.

The 2011 season will again feature a number of special events, including a cowboy reenactment and the annual fall festival. The last summer run is August 27, with fall special tours scheduled for September 17, 24 and October 1. The Lumberjack Steam Train has four runs a day to the Wisconsin Forestry Museum complex and is open Monday through Saturday, rain or shine. Group rates are available. The Lumberjack Steam Train offers free admission, with proper identification, to active duty armed services personnel and their families.

For additional information go to <http://www.lumberjacksteamtrain.com> or contact the Lumberjack Steam Train by phone at 715.674.3414 or by email: info@lumberjacksteamtrain.com

What Causes Gout? High Uric Acid

Painful attacks may be the symptom most associated with gout, but you shouldn't let them prevent you from addressing its underlying cause. Gout is caused by a buildup of uric acid in your blood (hyperuricemia). As your uric acid level rises, so does the potential for gout and gout flares.

There are pain medications available to help during gout flares. But only by taking steps to decrease your uric acid level and keeping it there can you fight for fewer flares over the long term. In fact, reducing uric acid levels to less than 6 mg/dL is the goal for managing gout over the long term.

There are options that may help get you there. So, if you're still suffering from gout flares, it is time to take action. Talk with your healthcare professional about your flares and your high uric acid level. The sooner you do, the sooner you may be able to get on track for fighting back.

Laona teacher honored

The Laona Education Association has selected Courtney Connor as its Educator of Excellence for the 2010-2011 school year. Courtney, a Special Education Aide at Laona High School, has demonstrated in many ways that the support staff is an important part of the educational team.

The Educator of Excellence Award is sponsored by the Nicolet/Oconto Retired Teachers Association (NORTA) and NORTA's parent organization The Wisconsin Retired Educators Association.

Lake Hilbert Association Annual Meeting

On May 28th, the Lake Hilbert Association held it's annual meeting. Discussion followed on the Walleye Reef that was put in to aid in walleye spawning. Much excitement is felt that with the building of the reef, which cost about $3,200, walleye have an area to spawn. The DNR advised the committee consisting of King Kramer, Jim Walker, Glenn Gardipee and Lake Association President Dick Meneau that the northeast corner of the lake would be the best spot to build. Lee Schauman and Bob Nelson took on the big project and did a great job.

Family Fest will be held July 2nd & 3rd. Fireworks will be held Saturday July 2nd. Fireworks are sponsored by the Town of Goodman. We will feature the same great food, kids games and prizes Saturday and Sunday. Proceeds from our Family Fest are used for fish stocking and donated to the needs of the community. We are grateful for all the support we receive from the people of the area.

Discussion was held on the problem of invasive species, especially zebra muscles and Eurasian milfoil which are invading area lakes. So far we do not have a problem with them, but it is important that anyone who brings a boat into our lake, cleans their boat off thoroughly before launching. Muscles can cling on a boat alive for up to 5 days. Signs are posted begging fishermen to help keep our lakes free from these terrible invasive species. If they get started, they can destroy the lake and make fishing impossible. Education is very important. Fishermen have to take the time to clean their boats and equipment.

The Lumberjack Links Golf Outing

The inaugural Lumberjack Links Golf Outing goes down as a smashing success. The event was held June 12 at McCauslin Brook Golf and Country Club in Lakewood. The competition, which was held as a scramble, began at noon as perfect weather finally made its way onto the greens. Kathleen Marsh was in charge of planning and organizing the day. She was assisted by the ever-friendly McCauslin Golf Course Staff.

Several "Friends of the Logging Camp" were also on hand to help: Jon Marsh, Bruce Beno, John Brantmeier, Linda Ahles, and Tom Thielke. Friends Janet Biese, Jean Beno, Barb Ouellette and Fay Thielke all donated delicious homemade goodies for the buffet supper.

Taking home the Grand Prize with a score of 67 were Ken Klein, Ralph Klein, Steve Heimerman and Brian Palmer. Individual prizes went to Betsy Hodson, Paul Langer, Janet Biese, and Craig Kowalski.

All proceeds from the event will go to the restoration of the Holt & Balcom Logging Camp Museum. Anyone interested in becoming a "Friend of the Logging Camp" may call 715-276-6515 or email kathiemarsh@yahoo.com for more details.

And don't forget the July 25 special program "My Life as a Lumberjack" starring Bill Kamke as John Nelligan. Two performances will be held, one at 2:00 p.m. and one at 7:00 p.m. in the air-conditioned McCauslin Brook Clubhouse. Admission is just $5.00 per person. Children 10 and under are free. The camp is closed this summer for restoration, but be sure to come out and view our restoration project progress, funded 100% by local fundraising events and private donations!

Lakewood Assisted Living

"Live Life With Confidence"

Assisted living allows frail seniors, who are unable to stay at home but do not need 24-hour skilled nursing care, to move into a residential setting with services designed to meet their needs. Residents can create an individualized care program that changes as their needs change, allowing older Americans to age in place. In addition to being less expensive than skilled nursing care, assisted living provides residents with private apartments rather than an institutional setting. Care and services are delivered with an emphasis on maintaining an individual's independence, dignity, and privacy.

Lakewood Assisted Living is located in a rural setting with lakes, rivers, streams, and a beautiful National Forest close by, giving you the feeling of being "Up North". If this is the type of setting you are looking for then give us a call to set up a personal walk through of the home. Please call 715-276-1680 to set up an appointment today.

The bell in it's new location at Saint Joseph's Church in Crandon

St Mary's/St. Joseph's bell

The bell with the dedication from the Ladies of the Argonne Alter Society.

Submitted by Marge Bocek, Parish Secretary
Excerpts from a letter from Mrs. Clara Houle to Gertrude Cunningham, dated April 18, 1937, and mailed from Soperton (Wabeno, WI).

"We came to North Crandon (Argonne) in August of 1886. Our first priest was Father Taken, he used to come to Crandon about every six months and say mass at the John Masbaum store building. We would go, sometimes walk, sometimes ride a big lumber wagon, and glad to go any old way. There were only about 3 or 4 families them some came from Cavour. In September of 1988 Dennis was born and he was baptized by Father July of Rhinelander. Still would go to mass in the same place in Crandon. Father July would stop at our house, now the Kluss place, at the junction, cause there wer no signn of a town then Argonne. By the time Lydia was baptized, he came to Wall. Wall was a village about a mile east of Argonne. Lydia was baptized in 1892. The priest would come every six months or so and we wouldn't miss a chance of going. Then when Henry was baptized in 1894, Father Toplak of Eagle River baptized in North Crandon (Argonne). We used to have mass then in the old town hall which burnt. Then right after that we built the church there. There were then I don't think any more than 8 to 10 families, and some came from Cavour. I think that church must have been built somewhere around 1895.

We had to go to Crandon after all our groceries. I tell you our life wasn't all roses them days but I always prayed to God to leave me live to bring up my family and I'm thankful He heard my prayers..."

St. Mary's in North Crandon (Argonne) was dedicated on October 6, 1900, by Bishop Messmer of Green Bay. North Crandon was changed to Argonne in 1921. During Father Gonnering's pastorate, from 1906 until 1911, he also enlarged St. Mary's in North Crandon (Argonne), and built St. Michael's at Hiles.

St. Mary's in Argonne had seen many changes since its dedication in 1900, one being the addition of a bell tower. In 1905 the Ladies of St. Mary's (which later became known at St. Rose Altar Society) donated the bell for the new bell tower. St. Mary's celebrated 100 years of service with their last Mass on October 6, 2000. The Diocese of Green Bay officially closed St. Mary's January 27, 2001. The steeple was removed and the bell was donated to St. Joseph's in Crandon.

On Saturday, June 11, 2010 Father Ralph Gillis held a blessing and dedication ceremony of St. Mary's Bell which is located on the north west corner of the church grounds. Clarence Krustensterna who designed and built the new bell tower was instrumental in refurbishing the bell back to its original condition (it had been painted white) was on hand for the unveiling.

As the many people looked on, both from St. Joseph's, Crandon and formerly from St. Mary's Argonne we are reminded not only about buildings and bells but especially about the people whose faith helped them to gather together and build communities. As smaller communities become larger, may we never forget the lessons of history; rising from the ashes, building the spirit of conviction, sharing across denominational lines, and human creativity. May the God of the Ages, and our God, be praised!

Townsend Variety Show donates to food pantry

The group also collected over $400 in non-perishable food items from attendees at two shows staged April 30, making this the group's largest donation in its six years of existence.

Laona Lion Ron Brooks honored for 50 years of service

Lion Ron Brooks accepts his certificate from Laona Lion President Fred Alderton

At the Laona Lions Club dinner meeting Monday June 13th at Silver Lake Inn in Laona, President Lion Fred Alderton presented Lion Ron Brooks with a certificate and chevron from Lions International for 50 years as a Lions Club Member.

Mursau, State Assembly Pass Balanced Budget

MADISON - State Representative Jeff Mursau (R-Crivitz) issued the following statement Thursday regarding passage of the State of Wisconsin's biennial budget:

"This is a historic day for Wisconsin," Mursau said. "The legislature and I passed a budget eliminating a $3 billion deficit without raising taxes and, for the first time in recent memory, the structural deficit is projected to be eliminated."

The biennial budget is required by law to be passed prior to June 30th. The structural deficit left by the Democrat-controlled legislature and Governor Jim Doyle two years ago was $2.5 billion. This existed because that budget relied heavily on one time "stimulus" funds from the United States government in addition to a $3 billion tax increase without necessary spending cuts.

"I made a commitment to the voters that I would work to make government live within the ability of taxpayers to pay for necessary services," Mursau said. "I voted for this budget in order to fulfill that commitment while ensuring spending cuts were measured and effective in a manner preserving vital services for Wisconsin families and businesses."

Mursau fought for and inserted language into the budget requiring each state agency to itemize all base budget spending the same way local governments and school districts do. In addition, base budget reviews will itemize quarterly spending to find wasteful spending.

"It's time to bring the light of day back to State agency budgeting," Mursau said. "Jim Doyle was wrong to get rid of base budget review and this legislature has taken a stand that the people deserve to see how their money is being spent by the State."

Holperin Votes "No" On Budget That Shifts Tax Resources North to South

"The 2011 2013 state budget imposes disproportionate spending cuts on northern Wisconsin schools, communities and services, while providing corporate and business tax breaks that small main street businesses will never benefit from," said State Senator Jim Holperin in explaining why he voted "no" on the budget.

"The new budget spends $1.1 billion more than the budget we passed two years ago, but very, very little of that new spending will find its way to northern Wisconsin," Holperin asserted. "One good example is road spending, which will go up 15% statewide, yet every single local unit of government in the 12th Senate District will have its road aid cut or frozen. Much of new money is basically going into freeway projects in Milwaukee County and southcentral Wisconsin."

Holperin also pointed to technical college aid which will be cut by 30% over the next two years. "Technical colleges have a proven record of effectiveness in educating the students and training the workers our Northwood's businesses need to succeed and thrive," he said. "This unprecedented reduction in state support will drive up the cost of tuition, create waiting lists for many courses and create additional obstacles to those who want to improve their skills in order to find a better paying job." Holperin pointed out that the 12th Senate District has no University campuses, but is served by three technical colleges.

Mursau Comments On Concealed Carry To Wisconsin Citizens

MADISON - State Representative Jeff Mursau (R-Crivitz) made the following statement Tuesday regarding passage of his legislation legalizing concealed carry of firearms, tasers and knives in Wisconsin:

"Criminals in Wisconsin are going to have to start asking themselves if their crimes are worth risking their lives engaging someone maybe ready to protect themselves," Mursau said. "It's time for Wisconsin law to embrace the constitutional right to bear arms."

Governor Walker is expected to sign the legislation, leaving only Illinois and the District of Columbia that prohibit any kind of concealed carrying.

"This is a great first step," Mursau said. "I look forward to the time in the near future when all Wisconsin residents feel comfortable concealed firearms improve our ability to secure ourselves, including people who choose not to carry at all."

Mursau's bill legalizes open carrying of firearms while at the same time licensing Wisconsin residents 21 years or older with no criminal record that satisfy proper safety training.

"Our US and Wisconsin constitutions give us our right to self defense through the right to bear arms," Mursau said. "This law gives us a way to reasonably practice that right."

The bill passed with bipartisan votes in both the State Senate (24-9) and the State Assembly on Tuesday (69-27).

the online survey form. Observers are asked to not include multiple observations if the same brood is being seen repeatedly.

"Observations can be recorded at the end of every day or, for times when you do not have access to the Internet and would like to keep track of your observations, a tally sheet (pdf) has been provided to help record sightings," says Dhuey.

During the summer of 2010, citizens reported 950 observations of wild turkey, ring-necked pheasant, ruffed grouse, prairie chicken, sharp-tailed grouse, gray partridge and bobwhite quail broods. The most frequently observed game bird species were wild turkey (765 observations) and ruffed grouse (117 observations).

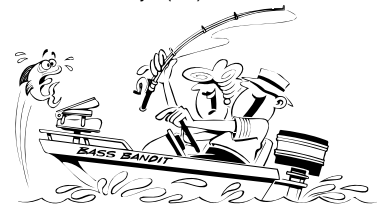

Questions about the Game Bird Brood Observation survey, accessing the tally sheet, reporting your observation, or the results of the survey, can be referred to Brian Dhuey at (608) 221-6342.

Game bird brood observations can be reported online

MADISON - Outdoor enthusiasts and hunters can help the state monitor the brood production of a variety of game birds including ring-necked pheasant, ruffed grouse, turkey, bobwhite quail, gray partridge, prairie chicken and sharp-tailed grouse by reporting brood sightings to the Department of Natural Resources via an online survey. The 2011 Game Bird Brood survey period runs June 12 through August 20.

"This survey provides the department with an estimate of game bird brood production during the summer and is similar to a survey run by department personnel," said Brian Dhuey a DNR research scientist. "Combined with other spring surveys and harvest information it can help us determine the overall status of game birds in the state."

During the survey period, the DNR is asking citizens to report the type of bird seen, the county it was seen in, and the number of hens and chicks observed on

Upgrade job skills with fall classes at Nicolet;
 New online application now available

Anyone interested in upgrading their job skills, training for a new career, or starting on a bachelor's degree is encouraged to enroll in Fall Semester classes at Nicolet College.

"With the job market being what it is, having the right set of skills is critical for landing a job, keeping a job, and moving up in a job," said Nicolet College President Elizabeth Burmaster. "Every academic program at Nicolet is focused on providing students with those exact skills."

In recent years the college has also concentrated on creating more options for students who need to juggle family and job responsibilities. "That increased level of flexibility, whether it's through online, evening or weekend classes, has opened the door to a college education for many students," Burmaster added.

Fall Semester classes start Wednesday, Aug. 24.

The college has also launched a new online application form that's designed to make it cheaper and easier for students to apply for admission, said Susan Kordula, director of Admissions and PK-16 Pathways.

"By applying online, students will save the $10 processing fee that comes with submitting the paper application," Kordula explained.

Students will also be able to complete the online application from any computer with an internet connection, eliminating the need to travel to the Rhinelander campus to complete this step of the enrollment process.

To apply online, click the Apply Now link at the bottom of the Nicolet homepage at nicoletcollege.edu. Kordula added that several classes and programs are filling up quickly and that anyone interested in attending Nicolet in the fall should begin the enrollment process promptly.

Nicolet offers more than 60 different associate degrees, diplomas and certificates along with a University Transfer Liberal Arts program where students complete the first two years of a bachelor's degree.

New programs recently created at the college include the two-year Architectural Technology associate degree and the one-year certificate in Digital Media Arts.

Other programs include Business Management, Administrative Professional, Accounting, Culinary Arts, Early Childhood Education, and Barber Cosmetology.

Along with nine different health occupations options, the college also has programs in the trades that include Building Trades-Carpentry, Welding, and Automotive Technician.

Nicolet is also the only technical college in the state system to offer a two-year associate degree in Land Surveying.

For a complete list of programs, more information about any of the programs above, or for help finding the one that is right for you, call the Nicolet College Welcome Center at (715) 365-4493, 1-800-544-3039, ext. 4493, TDD 365-4558 or 711 relay. Detailed information about each program is also available on the web at www.nicoletcollege.edu.

New role for sports, gun clubs:
 Find next generation of hunters

DNR shooting sports coordinator sets goal of 2,000 new participants for 2011

Here's a thought for Wisconsin hunters: Picture your kids' teachers, your hair stylist, grocery store clerk, doctor, or neighbor kid enjoying their first hunt. You can make it a reality and help preserve a Wisconsin tradition, and the Department of Natural Resources will help.

It's an exciting time to be in sports, rod and gun and conservation clubs. Club members have a focused sense of purpose and challenge -- find the next generation of hunters. Think about recruiting participants from your community. Reach beyond the local hunter education class to other adult friends and their children.

Hunting offers an opportunity to meet new people, exercise, connect with nature, spend quality time with family and friends, and have the opportunity to bring home high quality food. Let's share it and see if we can introduce hunting to at least 2,000 new people this year. I know a lot of hunters who want to help, and I think we can do it.

The reality facing hunting in Wisconsin and other states is the majority of participants are Baby Boomer generation, marching through middle age into their 60s with reduced participation in the more recent generations. The gradual loss of the hunting population threatens to reduce the relevance of hunting to our strong conservation community.

In the challenge there is also opportunity -- all those baby boomers also represent an army of qualified mentors for the next decade. Wisconsin citizens recognize the importance of hunters to conservation in our state and they strongly support us. It's up to us as hunters -- as well as business organizations, youth groups, churches and neighborhood organizations -- to make sure that great tradition continues.

A good way to introduce people to hunting is a Learn to Hunt event. Nearly 1,000 joined a Learn to Hunt turkey event this past spring. If your group hosted an event, make sure you send in the final roster to the DNR at Learn to Hunt Coordinator LE/8, PO Box 7921, Madison, WI, 53707.

The processes and application forms sponsors need to organize a Learn to Hunt event are available on the DNR website. Sponsors should work closely with the local wildlife biologist or warden when planning an event, and ensure at least one of the event instructors is a certified Hunter Education Instructor. Remember, this opportunity is open to novice hunters of all ages. Consider planning an event for parents who don't hunt and include their children.

Mentors are screened by the DNR using background checks at least two weeks before the hunt. There is also a reimbursement program through which groups can receive $25 per novice hunter to help cover the costs of hosting a learn-to-hunt event. If you are interested in hosting an event or have any questions about LTH, see the DNR website: or contact Warnke at the number below. The DNR initiated the Learn to Hunt program in 1998 to provide novice hunters of all ages opportunities to experience a hunt with an experienced hunter. It does involve classroom instruction and field work before an actual hunt. More than 3,000 novice hunters in the past two years have gone to a Learn to Hunt event. In addition to turkey, the program also includes small game, pheasant, wild turkey, waterfowl, bear, and deer.

Lakewood Assisted Living

"Live Life With Confidence"

Assisted living allows frail seniors, who are unable to stay at home but do not need 24-hour skilled nursing care, to move into a residential setting with services designed to meet their needs. Residents can create an individualized care program that changes as their needs change, allowing older Americans to age in place. In addition to being less expensive than skilled nursing care, assisted living provides residents with private apartments rather than an institutional setting. Care and services are delivered with an emphasis on maintaining an individual's independence, dignity, and privacy.

Lakewood Assisted Living is located in a rural setting with lakes, rivers, streams, and a beautiful National Forest close by, giving you the feeling of being "Up North". If this is the type of setting you are looking for then give us a call to set up a personal walk through of the home. Please call 715-276-1680 to set up an appointment today.

Wabeno D.A.R.E. kids tour Forest County Jail

The 5th grade students at Wabeno Elementary concluded their D.A.R.E. program with a field trip to Crandon. On May 31st, the students toured the jail and visited the Community Center. The students would like to recognize Sheriff John Denney, Mary Sue Engebretson, and other officers for providing a cook out and letting them tour their facility. The students would also like to mention Ron Eveland for providing the Community Center for the students to have fun and celebrate the conclusion of D.A.R.E. The PLAY Organization purchased T-shirts for all the 5th grade students and staff at the elementary school and also provided cake to celebrate this accomplishment.

Crandon Lions Donate to Spanish Class

Crandon Lions President presents Spanish class advisor, Jodi Brownell a check for $340.00 to help offset expenses during the upcoming Spain trip.

Crandon Lions President, Larry Sommer, presented a check for $340.00 to Spanish class advisor, Jodi Brownell. The check was the result of class members doing trash pickup along Highway 8 west of Crandon. The Lions Club challenged the Spanish class to do the trash pickup in exchange for $20.00 a bag to go toward their trip to Spain expenses. A total of 17 bags were picked up.

With an earlier donation, the Lions Club donated a total of $890 to the class members going on the Spain trip this June.

The Lions membership wishes a safe and informative trip to the students and await an interesting presentation of the trip results at a future Lions Club meeting.

Crandon Lions Present Scholarships

The Crandon Lions Club presented two $1,000 scholarship awards at the recent senior banquet.

The recipients are Jordan Falci and Schyler Schultz. Jordan will be attending Nicolet College.

Schyler will also be attending Nicolet College this fall and planning to attend UW Milwaukee later.

According to Lion President Larry Sommer this is the first year that the Gerald Jacobson Memorial Scholarship Award has been increased to $1,000. The Lions members realize that the cost of education continues to rise and that raising the amount of the award now and in the future would benefit the students. This was made possible because of the tremendous support the community has given the Lions fund raisers. They include Summerfest, Winterfest, Kentuck Days and Art in the Square. 100% of the money raised in these events is given back to the community in various ways including the Annual Scholarship Awards.

All of the Lions members wish much success to all graduating seniors.
