Kentuck Day this weekend

A Forest County moonshine still in the thirties. That's Floyd Ingram on the left, George Smith, middle, and George McMillion on the right.

By Mike Monte

Kentuck Day is this Saturday, on the Courthouse Square in Crandon. Kentuck Day is a celebration of the Kentucky heritage. It is a commemoration of those hardy souls who left their homes in the Appalachian Mountains to look for a better life in the forests of Wisconsin. Available land was very hard to come by in this region due to its early settlement, and much of what was available was

Survey of the Health of Wisconsin

Submitted by Jill Krueger, Forest County Health Department

The University of Wisconsin is carrying out an important health project called the Survey of the Health of Wisconsin. The survey is also called SHOW.

Several homes in the Laona, Wabeno, Freedom and Blackwell area have been selected to join this survey in August and September 2011. The Forest County Health Department supports this project and is encouraging Forest County residents to take part. Participants have a choice to join this project and the personal information is given to this survey is confidential.

This project will collect information about the health of people in Wisconsin. SHOW studies how the neighborhoods and communities that we live in impact our health. Researchers will record information about things like neighborhood parks, conditions of sidewalks, safety for biking, and healthy food availability. The SHOW also offers some free health tests.

The information that SHOW collects will be made available as a public use databank for researchers, policy makers, health officials, and other stakeholders, to use as a tool to identify and address the public health needs of state residents. This information will help us to build healthier communities.

The Forest County Health Department is interested in the information that SHOW is gathering in this survey. We look forward to learning more about the health of the people of Forest County and Wisconsin.

For more information please visit www.show.wisc.edu.

Crandon Library Adds Local History Content

It's easier than ever to relive fond memories or just take a look back into Crandon history. The Crandon Public Library has recently begun to add local history materials to its website located at www.crandonpl.org. Recently added items include a one hundred year-old Town of Lincoln School Register dated 1912. Within the school register we found a school census for the Keith Siding School dated 1934. The school census can be viewed online at the website.

In addition we are beginning to add digitized copies of the Crandon High School Yearbooks from our collection. As of today we have added 1945, 1946 and 1948 to the website. This project is a joint project between the Crandon Public Library and the Forest County Historical Society, which also has yearbooks in its collection online on its site at www.forestcountyhistory.org. Funding for this project is courtesy of Norman Tribett.

For more information about this project, or if you have additional information for the Local History project, please feel free to call Michelle at 478-3784 or email the library at info@crandonpl.org.

Are Your Roots in Lakewood?

Genealogy 101 at the 28th Annual Lakewood Reunion Sept. 24th

Jake Jacobs, an active member of the Oconto County Genealogical Society, will be the guest speaker at the 28th Annual Lakewood Reunion to be held September 24, 2011, at Waubee Lake Lodge in Lakewood, Wisconsin. Jake retired from IBM in 1994 and now has time to devote to genealogy, his hobby of 25 years. He has contributed greatly to the Society's cemetery and school projects. He has researched many families in Oconto County. Jake will share tips and secrets on how to start your own research and some of the sites available to you right here in Oconto County. Don't be surprised if your family is mentioned in the presentation!

Genealogy can be one of the most fascinating and rewarding pursuits of your life! The search for your ancestors who they are, where they came from, how they lived can be a great past-time. It is a time consuming hobby, but in a fun way. Once you start finding clues to your past, you will want to find more.

Join us at the Lakewood Reunion, September 24, 2011, at Waubee Lodge in Lakewood, Wisconsin. Social hours from 4-6 p.m. with the meal served promptly at 6 p.m. Lakewood Trivia will take place throughout the evening. Cost of the reunion is $18 per person. Please send names of those wishing to attend and check to: Rita Thielke Blazewicz, 14245 Glenwood Lane, Lakewood, Wisconsin 54138. For more information contact Rita at: 715-276-6225 or e-mail rjblaze@centurytel.net.

Catching Good Attendance
Why Regular School Attendance Matters
Summer is flying by and children will be returning to school in a few short weeks. Here are a few reminders about the importance of your child's attending school every day:
• Children who attend school regularly are more likely to be successful during their school years.
• Students who are absent are missed by their classmates and by their teachers.
• Parents who ensure their children's regular attendance are also teaching their children to value education and lifelong learning.
• It is difficult for young people to learn if they are not in class.
• Missing a few hours or a few days of school DOES matter. Those are missed learning opportunities that cannot be retrieved.
• Missing one day of school = as many as three days of catch up for a child to learn missed skills and information.
• Parents who ensure their children's regular attendance at school are helping children develop positive, lifelong habits.

The staff members and administration in all of the schools in Forest County are eager to work with parents/guardians to make sure that schools are responsive to the unique needs of each child and to develop positive attitudes about attendance.

If you have any questions about the best way to help your child succeed at school please call the school at which your child attends.

Caring: The Quiet Struggle

Submitted by Terry & Kathy Renk

In 2007, 1 out of every 4 American families was caring for someone over the age of 50. That was 22.4 million households. That number has grown to 39 million households and continues to rise. Women make up nearly 75% of those caregivers and 2/3 of all caregivers have an outside occupation in addition to the job they handle at home. These numbers do not include the industry that has come from the need for caregivers, such as nursing home, assisted living, respite and hospice workers.

Most caregivers are aged between 35 and 64 years of age, but statistics show many are even older than that. It seems so unfair, that just when you are ready to enjoy your 'golden years', you are instead working hard every day to care for a loved one. Sadly, it is a fact of life in this day and age.

Caregivers come in all varieties. Whether they are caring for a spouse, child, family member or friend, the struggle can be intense. The issues that led to their role as a caregiver can be widespread, cancer, Alzheimer/Dementia, physical infirmities and handicaps are a few of the leading ones. Caregivers find that they begin having some health issues themselves. Many times they have trouble sleeping well or eating right. Energy ebbs and tiredness takes over. Physical aches and pains, headaches, stomach aches can be common. Loss of interest in what they used to find fun and refreshing is also a concern.

While caring for a loved one, caregivers can tend to neglect their own needs. After all, they aren't the one with the disease or condition so why should they complain, right? WRONG! To be an effective caregiver, you need to take care of yourself. If you don't and you falter healthwise, who is going to care for your loved one? To make sure you stay on top, make sure you see your doctor regularly and if or when any issues come up. Take time for yourself! Reach out! There are so many people walking in the same shoes and they can be a source of strength to each other. Find a support group you can join, lean on, gather strength from.

There is just such a group in the Lakewood area. The C.A.R.E. Club meets the 2nd Thursday of each month at 2:00 p.m. at the Lakewood Town Hall/Community Center.

If you are a caregiver and you need some support, please come and join us. If you would like more information, please call Kathy at 715-276-7088 or Dawn at 715-276-1680.

TEPP Program Making a Difference

Have you ever struggled to hear on regular telephone? It happens all the time to people who are experiencing age-related hearing loss or hearing loss related to prolonged exposure to loud sounds. Communication is such an important aspect to our lives that this situation should not be ignored. Fortunately, the state of Wisconsin operates the Telephone Equipment Purchase Program (TEPP) and it's making a difference for thousands of people across the state for decades.

TEPP is a Wisconsin state program that provides free vouchers to residents with hearing loss so they can obtain amplified phones and improve their utilization of basic telephone services. TEPP is administered through the Public Service Commission and funded by a Wisconsin telephone user fee known as the Universal Service Fund. Most people have probably noted the "USF" charge on their phone bill but never knew its purpose. In effect, this is a "pre-paid program" that people are allowed to access if they struggle to communicate on a normal telephone.

The TEPP program will provide free vouchers for telephone equipment given that the following applicant requirements are met:

Wisconsin residency.

A voluntary declaration of hearing loss.

No receipt of TEPP funding within the last three years.

There are no age or income restrictions.

The telephones offered are rich in features that enable those with hearing loss to communicate over the phone. These features include hearing aid compatibility, amplified volume, enriched tone controls, extra large numbered keypads, loud ringer volume choices, caller ID enabled, and unique speed-dialing features.

People who apply for the TEPP program can expect to receive their equipment in approximately 4-6 weeks. No additional charges will ever appear on the individuals' phone bill and amplified phone becomes their property. In several years time, TEPP participants may reapply in order to receive technologically advanced equipment to deal with additional needs.

Taking advantage of TEPP voucher program is a privilege afforded to all Wisconsin citizens. If you have any questions or would like to apply for the program, please call Paul Klocko at ElderCom for assistance. The number is: (715) 241-6940.

NOTICE - HYDRANT FLUSHING
AUGUST 9TH & 10TH, 2011

We will be flushing the fire hydrants August 9th & 10th, 2011. You may wish to draw water prior to our flushing dates and refrigerate it for drinking purposes.

During the flushing period your tap water can become discolored. Should you experience discoloration, please flush your water tap until the water runs clear. Hydrant flushing improves water quality.

Should you be interested, we invite you to observe the change in the initial, intermediate and final water quality from the hydrant during flushing. Hydrant flushing can increase water pressure, remove discolored water from the system and increase fire-fighting ability in various parts of our system. This exercise flushes pockets of stagnated water out of the water supply system and improves water quality not only in color, odor and taste but can also remove harmful constituents before they are able to develop. Thank you in advance for your patience during this time period. Should you have any concerns, we ask that you feel free to contact our office at 473-2905.

Food Service Program
School Dist. of Wabeno Area

Children need healthy food to learn. Because of this fact, it has been a long-standing tradition for the School District of Wabeno Area to provide free breakfast and hot lunch to all of our students. We also provide a free milk break to students in grades 4K to 5.

The school district is committed to continuing to provide free breakfast and free lunch for all students. To help us get the most revenue possible through meal reimbursement, there are two new practices we will be implementing for the start of the 2011-2012 school year.

Free and Reduced Meal Application
At the beginning of each school year, we will be requiring families to complete and return an application for free and reduced meals. (This is standard practice for most school districts in the state.) These eligibility figures are very important because they dictate the amount of reimbursement that the district can claim for our breakfast and lunch programs. Families will be receiving these applications in the mail during the first week in August. Applications can also be picked up at the district office.

Finger Image Scanning and Automated System
Collecting income data on an annual basis also allows us to use a computerized, automated system for our meal counting. This will ultimately give us a better, more accurate reimbursement for school meals. To count each staff member and student coming through the food service line, we will be using a finger image scanner. (It is called a finger image because it is NOT a true, complete fingerprint.) Students and staff members must have their finger image scanned and entered into the computer system. Prior to school starting, we would like to get as many students and staff entered into the system as possible. Therefore, starting August 16, we will be scanning finger images of students who are at school for summer school or athletics. We will also have the finger image scanner set up at the Open House.

If you have concerns or questions about your child's finger image being utilized for our food service program, please contact the District Office at 715-473-2592 prior to August 16.

Town of Lincoln Building Committee Holds Meeting

The Town of Lincoln Building committee met Tuesday, July 19th, at the County Building. Construction was there to continue the discussion on the proposed new town hall for the Town of Lincoln. The committee decided that they would design three options to present to the taxpayers.

The first option would be a 5,000 square foot town hall with office, 40% office space and 60% hall. The building would have a meeting room with a capacity of 100 seated. The building would be classified as an A-2 occupancy. The A-2 classification states that it will be an assembly used for food and drink consumption including, but not limited to, banquet halls, night clubs, restaurants, bars and taverns.

The second option would be an A-3 occupancy. An A-3 occupancy is defined as assembly uses intended for worship, recreation or amusement and other assembly uses not classified elsewhere in group A. An A-3 occupancy would not allow food and drink.

The third option would be an A-2 occupancy community building and a new town garage.

Everything on this project is tentative and there will be more meeting on this issue with an eventual public hearing and input from the taxpayers of the Town of Lincoln.

Kentuck Klassic Car Show looks for record tries

CRANDON, WI: The 9th Annual Kentuck Klassic Car Show will take place on the beautiful grounds of the Weber-Hill Funeral Home from 10:00 a.m. till 3:00 p.m. Show Chair Winda Collins is expecting a record number of entries this year and she encourages everyone to register early as the first 100 participants receive a big 'goody bag', including t-shirts, dash plaques, and more! The committee has some fun new things planned, including three trophies to award in each class thanks to the many fine sponsors of this event.

Food and refreshments will be available on the grounds and DJ Rusty will be playing tunes throughout the day. Whether your vehicle is show ready or a work-in-progress, plan to attend and show pride in your ride at the vertical. The best agricultural land was found in the valleys between the mountains, not on the side of the mountain. Northeast Kentucky was also lawless and dangerous in the decades following the Civil War. Families divided over whether to support the Union or the Confederacy, and many people used this as an excuse to rob and pillage their neighbors, who had been on the "wrong" side back in the Civil War.

Kentuck Classic Car Show. Bring your friends and family to check out these beautiful, nostalgic vehicles. As always, admission is free.

Most of our early Kentucky ancestors came just before or just after 1900. Many came with horse and wagon, a few made the journey by train. They took advantage of the available land offered through the Homestead Act or the selling of cutover lands by lumber companies, both affordable.

The Kentuckians, as the early newspapers called them, were often considered a lower class of people by many of the Yankee businessmen who followed the sawmills into the Midwest to take advantage of boom times. Articles in the papers were quick to report any transgressions by the Appalachian folk, and I think, a little slower to report on the shenanigans of the merchant class.

In 1921, the big Fish Lumber Co. sawmill that had drawn in the New Englanders and New Yorkers, burned to the ground, and many headed elsewhere. Our Kentucks, who by this time had also entered into some local business ventures, were the ones who stayed and kept things going.

Sawmilling and logging became a smaller industry after the Fish Lumber fire, but fortunately, the federal government opened a new market that our Kentucks excelled at. That was the making of whiskey.

Whiskey had been a thriving venture back in Kentucky, because markets for corn were distant from the mountainous cornfields tilled by our ancestors. The logical way to market this corn, and other grains, was in a bottle, after being skillfully distilled. Those cases of whiskey hauled down to market represented a great many bushels of corn.

In 1919, the Congress outlawed liquor, and the door was open for enterprising individuals to fill the market gap. Whiskey was made all over the nation, but our Kentucks enjoyed a reputation as making some of the best whiskey available. It was marketed all over the Midwest, in places like St. Louis, Minneapolis, Chicago, Milwaukee and all places in between. The illegal trade put a lot of people to work, including the government agents that tried to stop it. By 1933, booze was legalized, and the demand for home-made whiskey shrank, but not completely, as it took the legal whiskey makers some time to gear back up, and it was still preferable to buy tax-free whiskey.

So come to Crandon's Kentuck Day celebration this Saturday and enjoy the food, the music, the vendors, the special deals in the stores and the heritage of our community. And don't forget the Kentuck Klassic Car Show, which takes place at the same time.

New Uses For Kitchen Items

1. Citrus peel as Garbage Disposal deodorizer: Keep your disposal smelling fresh by dropping a few peels down the drain and flipping the switch.
2. Citrus peel as a coffee mug cleaner: Remove Coffee or tea stains from a mug by rubbing them with a lightly salted citrus peel.
3. Baking Soda as a drain unclogger: To get your drain running again (without resorting to chemicals worthy of a hazmat suit) pour 1/2 cup soda, then 1/2 cup vinegar, down a clogged drain. Cover it with a wet cloth, wait 4 minutes, uncover, and flush with steaming-hot water.
4. Bundt pan as corn holder: Cut corn from the cob without the mess. Place an ear in the center of a Bundt pan. As you slide the knife down, the corn will fall right into the pan.
5. Baking Soda as a hair cleanser: If daily use of mousse or gel is weighing down your locks, add a pinch or two of baking soda to your shampoo once a week to remove product buildup. Getting squeaky-clean strands is a piece of cake.
6. Baking Soda as Silver Polish: To polish silver wash items, then place on aluminum foil in the bottom of a pot. Add a baking-soda solution (1/4 cup soda, a few teaspoons salt, 1 quart boiling water) and cover for a few seconds. The result? A chemical reaction that gets the black off the gravy boat.

TIP OF THE WEEK

Summer Concerns Make sure your dog has access to fresh water at all times, especially in the summer. NEVER ever leave your dog unattended in a hot parked car. When it's only 80 degrees outside, the inside of a car can heat up to more than 120 degrees in just minutes.

Laona Park N' Rec Dealt With the Heat!

The Laona Park N' Rec program had yet another fantastic year. It ran from July 5th through July 28th on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9:00 until 4:00 at the Laona Community Building. The Laona Park N' Rec program offered a great deal of fun activities for the children with great staff. Even the rain and heat didn't stop them, they had plenty of fun indoor options to stay dry and cool. We had new outdoor toys, arts and crafts, along with the classics, jumping rope and kickball. We went on four exciting field trips to a variety of local places.

Some of the children's favorite activities were arts and crafts, the beach, the last day party and hanging out with their friends. Director Kelly Bartelme stated "Our program this year was exceptional with new activities everyday! It may have been hot, but we still had a great time. The children were never bored with all of the choices of activities offered. Our children really enjoyed every minute of it."

We are here for your emergency meds. And your everyday meds, too.

When you need a medication right away, a mail-order pharmacy can't help you. Driving to a distant chain store wastes precious time and money. That's when you really appreciate the care and convenience of a community pharmacy.

And when it's not an emergency, we can mail your everyday medications directly to your home or winter destination. In many cases we can match or beat the copays on generic drugs from mail-order pharmacies.

At Nicolet Pharmacy, you are cared for by long-standing members of your local community who have been helping you since 1996.

It's easy to transfer your prescriptions to Nicolet Pharmacy. Just give us a call and we'll handle all the details for you.

Imprelis Indicated in Damage to Trees

Imprelis is a new herbicide from DuPont registered for broadleaf weed control in turfgrasses. Aminocyclopyrachlor, the active ingredient in Imprelis, is thought to accumulate in growing regions of plants and have a strong, lengthy impact on plant growth. Due to the nature of this chemical, the signs of damage from Imprelis are fairly distinctive.

At this time, DuPont is recommending that Imprelis not be used on properties with Norway Spruce or White Pine; there have been many reports that the chemical can also be harmful to other conifers, as well as some deciduous trees. If Imprelis damage is suspected on a property, the property owner should refrain from planting new trees during the season that the soil was treated with Imprelis.

Signs of possible Imprelis damage on conifers include yellowing and browning of needles, twisting of branch tips, and needle drop (usually the newest growth). On deciduous trees and shrubs, the damage may result in twisted, cupped leaves, yellowing and marginal browning of the leaves, and shrunken or misshapen form of leaves.

If you believe you are seeing these signs and Imprelis has been used on your property or your neighbor's, please contact your lawn care provider, the Plant Disease Diagnostic Clinic (pddc.wisc.edu), the Turfgrass Diagnostic Lab (www.tdl.wisc.edu), or your local UW-Extension office (715 365-2750). More information on Imprelis can be found online at the UW-Extension website (oneida.uwex.edu).

McCaslin Swim Program 2011

For the past two weeks, 44 children learned how to be "safe" as well as have fun in the water, while getting great swimming instruction at Wheeler Lake. Daniel Goetz and Tami Goetz, along with several graduated students, and a few Lioness, taught children ages five and up to not only swim, but how to be safe in the water.

The McCaslin Lioness are proud to be able to provide this service to the children in the community, and recognize Daniel, Tami, and all who participated in the program.
