Construction begins on Crandon Police Dept. garage

By Mike Monte

The Blackwell Job Corp is busy constructing the new garage, which is attached to the Crandon Police Department headquarters. The wiring will also be handled by the Job Corp. It is a way for the City of Crandon to save money, and it is an educational tool for the craftsmen, who are learning carpentry and electrical construction skills. In addition, the Job Corp will roof the new structure and re-roof the existing structure.

The garage will give heated storage to the two squad cars as well as house an evidence room. The estimated cost is $45,000.

According to Mayor Jaeger, the heated garage will save wear and tear on squads that are now kept in service for three years instead of the usual two years per squad. In addition, there won't be valuable time spent in scraping windows in an emergency situation.

Open House Nov. 3 at Nicolet for adults seeking a college education

Adults wanting to attend college are invited to an open house at Nicolet College Thursday, Nov. 3, that will lay out the roadmap to the education that will help them get ahead in life.

The Returning to Learning event will run from 4:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in the Northwoods Center on the Rhinelander campus. People can drop by anytime to learn about a wide variety of topics that include how to enroll; pay for college; balance school, work and family; and determine what to study. Informal roundtable discussions will begin every 30 minutes on these topics and others. Information booths will also be available.

Adults currently taking classes at Nicolet will also be on hand to share their experiences about what it is like to be a college student later in life.

Those attending will have the opportunity to tour the college's labs and classrooms, meet instructors, and get a hands-on feel for taking classes online. Nicolet will also waive the application fee for all people filling out an application for admission that evening.

For more information about the event, contact Nicolet at (715) 365-4512, 1-800-544-3039, ext. 4512, or TDD 711 relay. General information about the college is available online at nicoletcollege.edu.

Ministry Medical Group hosts community blood drive

Crandon Ministry Medical Group is planning a community blood drive on Thursday, November 17 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. The blood drive will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, located at 501 Park Avenue in Crandon.

"Blood is life!" said Jan Hadsell of the Community Blood Center. "Blood is only available through the generosity and compassion of volunteer blood donors. Their generous contributions allow neighbors, friends, and family members to receive the blood they need."

Donation appointments are highly recommended, and may be made by calling the Community Blood Center at (800)280-4102 or going to www.save3lives.org. Walk-in donors are welcome, but scheduling an appointment keeps the total time required for a donation to less than an hour.

Blood donors must be at least 17 years old (16 with parental permission), weigh at least 110 pounds, be in general good health, and bring a photo ID. Donors are encouraged to eat a regular meal and drink plenty of fluids prior to donating.

Emy's & Hair by Sue combine in a new location

Sue Deer and Emy Belland have combined their talents in a new beauty salon in Crandon. They opened their door on Tuesday of this week, after moving their equipment from the back of the building to the front, in the space formerly occupied by McBeths.

Emy and Sue are offering full hair care, which includes perms, cutting, coloring and waxing. They also offer a full line of Paul Mitchell products.

Emy says they now have more space, better parking and visibility on the main street.

They take appointments on the following lines: Sue - 715-889-0015 or Emy at 715-478-0909.
We wish them luck in their new venture!

Christmas 2011 -- Birth of a New Tradition

As the holidays approach, the giant Asian factories are kicking into high gear to provide Americans with monstrous piles of cheaply produced goods -- merchandise that has been produced at the expense of American labor. This year will be different. This year Americans will give the gift of genuine concern for other Americans. There is no longer an excuse that, at gift giving time, nothing can be found that is produced by American hands. Yes there is!

It's time to think outside the box, people. Who says a gift needs to fit in a shirt box, wrapped in Chinese produced wrapping paper?

Everyone -- yes EVERYONE gets their hair cut. How about gift certificates from your local American hair salon or barber?

Gym membership? It's appropriate for all ages who are thinking about some health improvement.

Who wouldn't appreciate getting their car detailed? Small, American owned detail shops and car washes would love to sell you a gift certificate or a book of gift certificates.

Are you one of those extravagant givers who think nothing of plonking down the Benjamins on a Chinese made flat-screen? Perhaps that grateful gift receiver would like his driveway sealed, or lawn mowed for the summer, or driveway plowed all winter, or games at the local golf course.

There are a bazillion owner-run restaurants -- all offering gift certificates. And, if your intended isn't the fancy eatery sort, what about a half dozen breakfasts at the local breakfast joint. Remember, folks this isn't about big National chains -- this is about supporting your home town Americans with their financial lives on the line to keep their doors open.

How many people couldn't use an oil change for their car, truck or motorcycle, done at a shop run by the American working guy?

Thinking about a heartfelt gift for mom? Mom would LOVE the services of a local cleaning lady for a day.

My computer could use a tune-up, and I KNOW I can find some young guy who is struggling to get his repair business up and running.

OK, you were looking for something more personal. Local crafts people spin their own wool and knit them into scarves. They make jewelry, and pottery and beautiful wooden boxes.

Plan your holiday outings at local, owner operated restaurants and leave your server a nice tip. And, how about going out to see a play or ballet at your hometown theatre.

Musicians need love too, so find a venue showcasing local bands.

Honestly, people, do you REALLY need to buy

New Postmaster-Laona

The USPS swore in the Postmaster of the Laona, WI Post Office on Thursday, October, 27th. The new Postmaster, Mike Bradaseric (left), started his career with the Postal Service in July 1984 as a clerk/carrier in Rhinelander, WI. In 1992, he became a Tour 1 Supervisor in Rhinelander. He was appointed Postmaster of Laona on October 9th, 2010. He was sworn in by Postal Operations Manager, Mark Rask (right). Present also was his wife Juli (center). He and his wife live in Rhinelander.

FCAL Essay Contest winners

FCAL representative John McCulloch introduced the student speakers, explaining that this year's essay topic was, "If I lived on a Forest County Lake, what should my healthy shoreline look like."

The top three winners from Laona Elementary, Crandon Elementary and Wabeno Elementary were invited as guests of FCAL, along with their parents. The students did an excellent job describing what it takes to have a healthy shoreline.

The essays are available to read at the Crandon Library, and in this issue of the Pioneer Express.

Annual ethical hunter award nominations

"We must always remind ourselves about the importance of safety and ethical hunting each time we head into the field," said Bob Lamb, retired La Crosse Tribune outdoors editor and co-founder of the Tribune/Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources Hunter Ethics Award. "In turn, by acknowledging safe and ethical hunting when we see it, we are encouraging more of the same."

Safe hunting reigns supreme and goes without saying. Ethical hunting also goes without saying, but is rarely talked about. That's why Steve Dewald, Jerry Davis and Lamb developed the state award in 1997.

Dewald, who retired as DNR conservation warden supervisor in the La Crosse area earlier this year, said the 15th annual award signifies the qualities of hunters helping others. It's also about hunters engaged in behavior that positively reflects on Wisconsin's hunting tradition.

"All hunters want to have an enjoyable hunt. In many cases, how their hunt goes, depends on the kind of interaction they have with other hunters," Dewald said. "The Hunter Ethics Award provides positive examples for all hunters to follow. These actions reflect positively on the Carol was born on December 29, 1942 in Laona, WI, a daughter of the late Donald H. and Fern M. (Rasmussen) Newman.

Carol was a loving mother and grandmother. She enjoyed reading, playing and working in her many gardens and every now and then a short getaway to the casinos for fun. She loved the excitement of the Brewer and Packer games and never missed watching the games. Carol was a devoted hard working employee of Rytac Corporation (Jackson, WI) who enjoyed the everyday camaraderie at work. The coworkers at Rytac were her second family.

Survivors Include: Her husband: Gustav J. Kuester of Laona, WI; three Sons: Bart (Cindy) Kuester of Sheboygan Falls, Mark Kuester of Waldo and Gus (Patti) Kuester of Cedarburg; one Daughter: Shelly Kuester Pallin (Husband: Jeffrey) of Seabeck, WA; nine grandchildren: Sara of Grafton, Jamie of West Bend, Leia Seabeck of Washington, Gabi of Grafton, Forrest of Sheboygan Falls, Oliva of Grafton, Connor Seabeck of Washington, Tanya of Sheboygan Falls, Jordan of Sheboygan Falls; two great grandchildren: Dylan and Lily of Grafton; one sister: Mary Underwood; and two brothers: Jerry Newman of Laona and Gordy Newman of Johnson Creek. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by one daughter: Jessica Kuester and one brother: Arnold Newman.

Following Carol's wishes, cremation has taken place and there will be NO VISITATION or VIEWING and a family and friends "get together" will be held. A memorial is being established for the "Carol Jean Ann Memorial Park Fund".

The Suchon Funeral Home and Cremation Services is serving the family. For online condolences, please visit www.suchonfh.com.

A special thank you for all the love and support her family, friends and co-workers lavished upon her during her struggle with cancer.

If I Lived On A Lake In Forest County, What Should My Healthy Shoreline Look Like?

By Caitlin Cassidy 5th grade Wabeno

My healthy lake shoreline should have natural aquatic vegetation to stabilize the plants that grow there that way fish have a place to spawn. It would also have shore line shrubs and fallen trees that way birds can use the shrubs for nesting, turtles can use the logs for sun bathing and the natural grasses that grow along the shoreline would be a place for ducks to lay their eggs. A healthy shoreline needs to have native sedges and grasses, broadleaf ground cover plants, wild flowers, and shrubs, the mid canopy would have smaller trees like ironwood, hazels, and willows. The canopy layer would have trees like sugar maple, white pine, and red oak to help maintain aquatic life. It would also have beneficial aquatic plants like bulrushes, wild rice, arrowhead, cattails, and bur seeds that would also help protect the land from shoreline erosion. If you have a natural shoreline with all of the above, you would be able to see so many different birds coming and better water quality because those plants also protect the water, and the cycle of life with the fish in the water. It should be kept clean and free from garbage and chemicals. A healthy shoreline should be a natural beautiful area on the lake; it should have 35 - 50 feet of natural vegetation, so that many different types of wildlife can use it. A healthy shoreline is considered a wildlife highway for many animals that should be able to use it and to sustain its life without any worry. That's how I would want a healthy shoreline to look like.

By Caylee Perry, Crandon

A healthy shoreline is a natural shoreline; it is one that is not touched by man. It should have things like native vegetation because it provides homes, shade, and food for fish and other animals. It is also good to leave things like tree limbs and branches in shallow water if they fall because they provide a place for ducks and turtles to eat and to climb up and rest on.

It is really important to leave the shoreline natural because it protects the lake from erosion and helps with pollution. Natural shorelines make the lake front more beautiful. When you are out on the lake, you can see trees, plants, and wildlife instead of houses and other buildings. It is also very important to keep oil or gasoline away from your shore because it will harm the lake, plants, fish, wildlife, and the entire environment.

A healthy shoreline is one that is filled with native trees, shrubs, wild flowers, grasses and aquatic plants. Lake owners need to be careful not to introduce invasive plants like purple loosestrife to the shoreline. Even though it looks pretty, it can take over the native plants actually damage the lake environment. Invasive plants are harmful because they take over and prevent native plants from growing. If a shoreline is healthy, it will look natural from out on the lake. You will only see the things you would see if the shore had never been touched or developed.

By keeping our shorelines natural, we are protecting the water quality and so many other things. A shoreline that has a buffer containing a combination of plants, shrubs, trees and grasses is very important to the health of any lake. It is the job of all who own lakefront property in Forest County to protect existing natural shorelines and work to restore those that have been disturbed.

By Ty Belland 5th Grade Laona

A healthy shoreline to me is a shoreline that has not been disturbed. The trees, shrubs, plants, and ground have been left alone. A healthy shoreline also includes the shallow margins and shores that are home to 90 percent of all living things that are found in your lakes. These include fish, insects, birds and turtles.

Lakeshore lands extend into and away from the lake. Natural shorelines help to prevent runoff and flooding, it increases ground water levels, and prevents or makes it harder for aquatic invasive species to establish themselves. Shore lands also keep the lake cleaner by filtering sediments and nutrients from run off water. Waters edge is not only home to fish, turtles, and other wildlife. It's a source of food, a place to sleep, a place to hide, and a place to raise their young.

Threats to shore lands, over development, and the clearing of lake lots can have a tremendous impact on the quality of our lakes. What can we as people do? If you build houses, make them small and leave the fallen trees in the water. Leave dead fish in the water so other animals can eat them. Do not move any of the trees and rocks because they could be home to some fish, crabs, turtles, frogs, tadpoles, and water bugs.

Our thanks also to Pastor Rebecca Niese, the Weber-Hill Funeral Home, and especially to our Argonne United Methodist Church family.
 Your comfort and compassion has meant more than you will ever know. May God bless you all.

"My Heart"

Michelle L. Sperberg
 3/19/86 - 11/9/2003

My heart is filled with pleasure and sometimes filled with pain; As I wonder what you're doing or do you look the same.
 So much has not been spoken and things you haven't done; But then I came to realize Heaven's victory you have won!
 So I made a place within my heart where you will always stay; And much of who I have become I owe to you today.
 For you never seemed discourage throughout turmoil's touch; Teaching me to smile and love life so very much.
 So on this day and always know you're in my heart; With love being the greatest gift; we'll share while being apart.
 Love Forever - Mom and Lenny

tradition of hunting, and leave good memories with the hunters who are fortunate to encounter these individuals in the great outdoors."

Davis retired from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse several years ago and lives near Barneveld.

"We are usually writing, hearing and reading about hunters doing bad things, illegal things. But those cases are the minority, the tiny minority," Davis said. "We need, now more than ever, to write, read and recognize the great things that the majority of hunters are doing when they're in the fields and forests. It makes us all feel good when we hear of a hunter who took some of his or her own time to help a fellow hunter or landowner."

Dewald said nominations for the 2011 adult and youth hunter ethics awards must be submitted by December 15.

Past award winners have been recognized for restoring wildlife habitat, making private lands available to new hunters, assisting a warden who was dealing with a dangerous person, providing opportunities for disabled hunters, rendering aid to a citizen in a serious car accident, and helping find the rightful owner of a large buck that had fallen off the back end of a pickup truck.

Dewald said the award is about what you can do for the sport, not what you can do for yourself.

Conservation Warden Todd Schaller, who serves as the DNR Section Chief of Recreation Enforcement and Education, joined Dewald, Davis and Lamb on last year's selection panel. He remains an active member this year.

"The vast majority of our hunters are responsible and ethical, and support Wisconsin's hunting and conservation heritage," Schaller said. "However, the incidents that the public reads or hears about often puts hunters in a negative light. The Hunter Ethics Award is a way to highlight what most hunters are about."

To become eligible for the award:

The nominee must be a licensed Wisconsin hunter.

The ethical hunting act must occur in Wisconsin during the 2011 calendar year.

Written nominations must contain the name, address and telephone number of the witness or witnesses to the behavior that lead to the nomination and mailed to Todd Schaller at Todd.schaller@wisconsin.gov, or to Department of Natural Resources, Attention: Warden Schaller LE/5, PO Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707-7921, by Dec. 15, 2011.

Nominations will be considered for any DNR regulated hunting activity in Wisconsin.

another ten thousand Chinese lights for the house? When you buy a five dollar string of light, about fifty cents stays in the community. If you have those kinds of bucks to burn, leave the mailman, trash guy or babysitter a nice BIG tip.

You see, Christmas is no longer about draining American pockets so that China can build another glittering city. Christmas is now about caring about US, encouraging American small businesses to keep plugging away to follow their dreams. And, when we care about other Americans, we care about our communities, and the benefits come back to us in ways we couldn't imagine. THIS is the new American Christmas tradition.

SECOND HAND STORIES

SUSAN KNUTH HAS ALWAYS HAD A LOVE FOR BOOKS, AND SINCE HER CARPAL TUNNEL TREATMENT, HER BOOKS ARE IN GOOD HANDS.

I was diagnosed with bilateral carpal tunnel syndrome in my left thumb and was given a shot to help with pain management. After six weeks of occupational therapy treatment I was able to get back to normal. Now I can focus on my books instead of the pain, and Lani, my occupational therapist, gets a great big thumbs-up.
