Lincoln Building Committee meets on proposed town building

By Boyd Monte

The Building Committee for the proposed new town hall met last Thursday, February 16. Keller Inc. was present and they started the discussion with a summary of the trip to view the town hall in Beecher, located on the corner of Highway 141 and County Road Z and the new building in Little Suamico, which was just completed and put into use. The committee agreed that they would want to present a plan on a building that was bigger than the Beecher building, but not as expensive as the building in Little Suamico.

The floor was then open to the public and the question was asked, "Is this an informative meeting or a decision making meeting?" The answer from Chairperson Black was that, "The building committee would make decisions to get the best design for a town hall to present to the people at a future meeting. The committee wants to have the best and most economical plan for the people of the Town of Lincoln."

Keller Inc. was given the floor and they presented two designs. The first design was to be located at the Bear Road site. It would be a town hall with an attached garage and a community center that seats 100 people with room for expansion if needed in the future. The second design was a remodel and expansion of the existing structure on county highway W. Both structures would satisfy the needs of the town. The discussion that followed determined that the committee wants Keller Inc. to give them a realistic budget for a few options.

The first option would be to remodel and expand the current building and garage and include a community center that seats 100 people on the current site on County W. The second option would be a town hall, community center and garage on the fourteen acre plot on Bear Road. The third option would be a larger town hall and community center on Bear road. The fourth option would be to add a garage to the town hall and community center on Bear Road. Further discussion considered a larger community center that would seat 300 people, but that would require a sprinkler system.

Keller, will be back for the next meeting on March 20 to present their findings. The committee will then eliminate the plans that are the least helpful to the people of the town. The next meeting will be at the Lincoln Town Hall at March 20, at 5:00 p.m.

Candidate Spotlight

Anyone seeking political office is invited and encouraged to announce their candidacy in the Candidate Spotlight. It is an opportunity to tell the voters why you are running, goals if elected, etc. It is not a forum for bashing an opponent, and there is no charge.

Kathleen Marsh runs for Oconto County Supervisor spot

Hello! My name is Kathleen Marsh and I am running for Oconto County Supervisor, District #31 (Townsend and Doty). If you elect me, I promise to listen, then do my very best to represent you and your interests.

Qualities that make me the best candidate are leadership, organization, teamwork, and communication. While some may view me as a passionate partisan, I suggest that's a good thing. I will channel that same energy to represent your interests by courageously speaking out for Townsend/Doty.

My husband Jon and I bought our Townsend property in 1993, making it our permanent home in 2002. While we have not lived in northern Oconto County all our lives, it

Drive In Not Drive Through

Tuesday night, February 21, at about 10:30, a driver fell asleep at the wheel and crashed into the front of the Double Buck Cafe destroying a storage room.

Mick Gifford and his wife Deb, who are the owners of the Double Buck stated, "We are happy that no one was injured. If the driver would have hit a beam or at a different angle, the outcome would be different." Mick spent the rest of the night and next day cleaning up. The Double Buck Cafe will be open for business on Thursday February 23.

Free Personal Classifieds in the Month of March

You can get rid of those unwanted items next month by putting a free personal classified in the Pioneer Express.

In the doldrums of the last month of winter, selling things you neither want nor need to another individual can bring joy and light into your bleak life in the Ides of March. And the money is nice to have to.

Send us your ads listing those items that might be happier in another person's possession, and we will print your ad and mass mail it to households in the area, and we will pay for the printing and the postage!

Email or call us, we don't care. You can have two free classified ads per week, and they have to be renewed weekly, starting with our first issue in March.

Crandon Blood Drive Hours Expand

Due to increasing numbers of blood donors, the next community blood drive in Crandon will have expanded hours, running from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The drive will be held on Thursday, March 8 at St. Paul Lutheran Church, at 501 N. Park Avenue in Crandon. Crandon Clinic Ministry Medical Group is hosting the blood drive.

"We're encouraging people to make blood donation appointments in advance. This reduces wait times and helps us provide the best possible customer service."

Donation appointments are highly recommended, and may be made by calling the Community Blood Center at (800)280-4102, or going to www.save3lives.org. Walk-in donors are welcome, although scheduling an appointment keeps the total time required for a donation to less than an hour.

Most blood donations are about 1 pint, which is roughly equal to 1 pound. The average adult has 10-12 pints of blood in their body.

Blood donors must be at least 17 years old (16 with parental permission), weigh at least 110 pounds, be in general good health, and bring a photo ID. Donors are encouraged to eat a regular meal and drink plenty of fluids prior to donating.

Farming and other income tax forms available at Wabeno Public Library

While it has become more difficult to get paper forms and booklets for filing state and federal income taxes, they are still available, and the Wabeno Public Library has both state and federal forms for the short and itemized versions. While all forms and schedules are available for downloading on-line, patrons who do not have access to home computers are welcome to come in for these forms, and to file on-line.

While the librarians cannot offer detailed assistance in completing or filing forms, we can assist in

Wabeno Board decides to wait on decision for revocation

By Mike Monte

The Wabeno Town Board met on Tuesday, February 21 to discuss the issues concerning the Bottoms Up bar in Wabeno and other business.

District Attorney Simono was on hand to answer questions and add to the dialogue. Simono said that there are some charges he has to look at before filing a warrant for arrest, and his office has been extremely busy with other more pressing issues.

The Wabeno Town Board voted to move to closed session to discuss the issue of whether or not the license will be revoked for Bottoms Up. After some deliberation, the board voted to table the issue contingent on the actions of the Police Department and the office of the District Attorney.

Tom Pari, owner of Bottoms Up, said he had nothing to add to the discussion.

Got Cabin Fever?
Don't We All This Time of Year?

Cabin fever is an idiomatic term for a claustrophobic reaction that takes place when a person or group is isolated and/or shut in a small space, with nothing to do, for an extended period (as in a simple country vacation cottage during a long rain or snow). Symptoms include restlessness, irritability, paranoia, irrational frustration with everyday objects, forgetfulness, laughter, excessive sleeping, distrust of anyone they are with, and an urge to go outside even in the rain, snow, dark or hail.

The phrase is also used humorously to indicate simple boredom from being home alone. The term was first recorded in 1918. Other references have the term in use at least to 1906.

One therapy for cabin fever may be as simple as getting out and interacting with nature. Research has proven that even brief interactions with nature can promote improved cognitive functioning and overall well-being.

sure feels like it because we flat-out love it here. One of the unexpected delights of campaigning has been getting to know my neighbors in Doty.

I own and operate a successful micro-business, Otter Run Books LLC, which will publish its seventh book next year. In recording the history of Townsend, I have read every minute of every Town meeting, giving me a unique sense of the rich heritage of those born and raised here, as well as those, like me, who choose to call it home.

In 2005, Jon and I created a memorial on the island we own in the Townsend Flowage as a tribute to Wisconsin military killed in Iraq and Afghanistan. I lovingly tend the grounds/crosses, guide tours, and extend comforting arms to families and friends who visit. I am currently compiling a book memorializing each of the fallen so that his/her ultimate sacrifice is never forgotten.

When I learned in 2007 that the Holt and Balcom Logging Camp Museum in Lakewood was rotting away, I stepped up to raise the money to save it. I guided tours, planned events, produced plays, and hosted lumberjack dinners, attracting thousands of visitors. I currently serve as general contractor of the camp restoration.

I teach classes for NWTC, NATC and Concordia University and conduct abstinence classes at Wabeno Middle School. I facilitate meetings of Up North Authors Circle, am very active in the American Legion Auxiliary, direct and emcee the Townsend Variety Show, and volunteer for the Townsend Flowage Association and Red Arrow ATV/Snowmobile Club. I recently became Chair of the Townsend 2016 Centennial Committee and am leading a group to reestablish a Townsend Business Owners Association.

I intend to be a forceful voice of fiscally responsible, common sense government that works for all, even those of us who live far away from Oconto. I would appreciate your vote on April 3.

Wabeno Music Department Seeking Volunteers

Friday, March 16th marks a big day in the music schedule of Wabeno High School. On that day our school will host the Northern Lakes Conference Solo and Ensembles Festival. In order to make this event a successful and memorable experience for our students, we will need many volunteers to act as room chairmen and office workers. We are looking for people who can help for the day or half-day, but even those who can spare a couple of hours will be greatly appreciated. If you would like to hear some awesome musical performances from around the conference, and are willing to help out, please contact Mrs. Mary Ellen Keller at the high school. She can be reached by phone at 715-473-5122 or by e-mail at MKeller@wabeno.k12.wi.us. Please let her know by March 10th so that she has time to set a workable schedule for the volunteers.

Obesity Raises Risk of Deadly Breast Cancer

CHICAGO - Scientists know that being overweight increases the risk of breast cancers fed by estrogen, but being too fat may also increase the risk of triple-negative breast cancers, a less common and far more deadly type, U.S. researchers said Tuesday.

They said women who are overweight had a 35 percent higher risk of developing triple-negative breast cancers, an aggressive form of cancer that affects 10 to 20 percent of cases.

"The fact that we found an association with triple-negative breast cancer is unique because, biologically, this subtype is very different from other breast cancers," said Amanda Phipps of the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, whose study appears in the journal Cancer Epidemiology, Biomarkers & Prevention.

Breast cancer is the second-leading cause of cancer death among U.S. women, after lung cancer. It kills

Most breast tumors are called estrogen-receptor positive because they are fueled by the hormone estrogen. About 20 percent are HER2-positive, because a protein called HER2 is involved. A third type is driven by the hormone progesterone.

These types of cancer can easily be treated. Then there are triple-negative tumors, so named because they lack estrogen, progesterone or HER2 receptors needed for most breast cancer drugs to work.

Studies have found that women who put on a lot of weight, they increase their risk of breast cancer, likely because estrogen accumulates in the fat and promotes tumors.

For her study, Phipps and colleagues analyzed data from the 155,723 women enrolled in a large study of the effects of hormone replacement therapy on menopausal women.

The team studied body mass index or BMI and physical activity among the 307 women in the study who had triple-negative breast cancer and the 2,610 women who had estrogen receptor-positive breast cancers.

BMI is equal to weight in kilograms divided by height in meters squared. A person 5 feet 5 inches tall is classified as overweight at 150 pounds and obese at 180 pounds.

Phipps and colleagues found women with the highest BMI in the study had a 35 percent higher risk of triple-negative breast cancers, and a 39 percent higher risk of estrogen-fed breast cancers.

The study raises new questions about what besides estrogen drives tumors, suggesting a possible role

We try not to post these weight limits until absolutely necessary, however, due to the unpredictability of the effects of warmer weather on the roadways, there may not be further notification. The limits will be going into effect as soon as the weight limit signs are uncovered. If you need delivery service or have materials to haul on County Highways, NOW is the time to have things done.

No permission will be given to exceed posted weight limits on any County Highway. We would appreciate the public's cooperation to protect our highways.

Phipps said the effect was modest, but if confirmed by other teams, the study offers women new ways to reduce their risk of triple-negative breast cancers. Copyright 2011 Thomson Reuters.

Out of the mouths of athletes, probably with a grain of salt!

New Orleans Saint RB George Rogers when asked about the upcoming season: "I want to rush for 1,000 or 1,500 yards, whichever comes first."

Upon hearing Joe Jacobi of the 'Skin's say: "I'd run over my own mother to win the Super Bowl," Matt Millen of the Raiders said: "To win, I'd run over Joe's Mom, too."

Torrin Polk, University of Houston receiver, on his coach, John Jenkins: "He treat us like mens. He let us wear earrings."

Football commentator and former player Joe Theismann: "Nobody in football should be called a genius. A genius is a guy like Norman Einstein."

Senior basketball player at the University of Pittsburgh : "I'm going to graduate on time, no matter how long it takes." (Now that is beautiful)

Bill Peterson, a Florida State football coach: "You guys line up alphabetically by height.. And, "You guys pair up in groups of three, and then line up in a circle."

Boxing promoter Dan Duva on Mike Tyson going to prison: "Why would anyone expect him to come out smarter? He went to prison for three years, not Princeton." S t u

Grimson, Chicago Blackhawks left wing, explaining why he keeps a color photo of himself above his locker: "That's so when I forget how to spell my name, I can still find my clothes."

Lou Duva, veteran boxing trainer, on the Spartan training regimen of heavyweight Andrew Golota: "He's a guy who gets up at six o'clock in the morning, regardless of what time it is."

Chuck Nevitt, North Carolina State basketball player, explaining to Coach Jim Valvano why he appeared nervous at practice: "My sister's expecting a baby, and I don't know if I'm going to be an uncle or an aunt. (I wonder if his IQ ever hit room temperature in January.)" Frank Layden,

Utah Jazz president, on a former player: "I asked him, 'Son, what is it with you? Is it ignorance or apathy?'

He said, 'Coach, I don't know and I don't care.'" Shelby Metcalf, basketball coach at Texas A&M, recounting what he told a player who received four F's and one D: "Son, looks to me like you're spending too much time on one subject."

In the words of NC State great Charles Shackelford: "I can go to my left or right, I am amphibious." Former Houston Oilers coach Bum Phillips when asked by Bob Costas why he takes his wife on all the road trips, Phillips responded: "Because she's too ugly to kiss good-bye."

To: Town of Lincoln Voters and Taxpayers

As many of you know, the Lincoln Town Board, chaired by Lynne Black, together with a Building Committee, appointed by her and also chaired by her, is about to conclude a process aimed at building a new town office facility with meeting room(s) and a community center as well as, perhaps, a town garage. There are several plans under consideration with cost estimates ranging from about $750,000 to about $1,500,000. With less than 1,000 residents in the Town, that represents as much as $1500.00 for every man, woman and child residing here. The ongoing costs of maintaining, insuring, etc. will be an additional and continuing annual increase to the Town's taxpayers.

There are many folks who are somewhat aghast at the direction taken by the Board. And, many more who, though recognizing the aging condition of the existing town garage and inadequacy of the town meeting hall, still see no need for such a grandiose and costly development. Those folks have come together as citizens to discuss and to, collectively, exercise their rights to forestall a waste of public tax dollars.

We call ourselves the Lincoln Government Oversight Committee. Do you have similar concerns? Do you have the feeling that your interests in the issue are being somewhat ignored by your elected town supervisors? Do you get the feeling that the whole process has lacked openness and public disclosure? If so, and you would like to participate or just lend support, we would like to include you. Please call Dave Meier at 715-478-1140.

Mursau Wetland Regulation Reform Bill Passed by Legislature

Governor's Signature Expected

Madison State Representative Jeff Mursau (R-Crivitz) and the entire Wisconsin State legislature passed his bill reforming Department of Natural Resources (DNR) wetland reviews, permits and regulations Tuesday. Mursau expects the bill will help landowners and DNR achieve permit decisions rather than perpetually delayed answers.

"This bill balances both economic and environmental interests," Mursau said. "While it creates more certainty in the review process, it also creates new opportunities for improving already-impaired wetland habitat areas around the state and improved access to many of those wetlands."

Major changes include:

- Creating a pre-meeting for DNR to provide applicants an overview of timelines and requirements
- Creating an Individual Permit to handle "rare and imperiled" wetland projects (20% of all permit applications) in a more deliberative timeline (80% of DNR employee time)
- Creating a General Permit to handle easy wetland projects (80% of all permit applications) in a more efficient timeline (20% of DNR employee time)
- Presumptive approval for less sensitive projects will occur if DNR does not respond in 30 days
- Revising compensatory wetland mitigation program to increase "wetland banking" and credits
- Encouraging mitigation to occur within the same watershed
- Revising the definition of practicable alternatives to those reasonably available and capable of being implemented

The bill was passed by both the Wisconsin State Senate and the Wisconsin State Assembly and now heads to the governor when he is expected to sign the bill

  - 4 cups chicken or vegetable broth
  - 1 package tofu
  - 2 Tbsp. finely chopped chives or fresh cilantro for garnish, optional
1. In a large pot over medium heat, melt butter and add onions. Cook, stirring occasionally, about 5 minutes. Add garlic and cook about 1 minute. Add curry powder and cayenne pepper, stir to combine thoroughly, about 30 seconds.
  2. Add broth and cauliflower, stir to combine, bring to a boil, reduce heat to maintain a steady simmer and cook until cauliflower is very tender, about 10 minutes.
  3. Purée soup mixture and tofu in batches in a blender or food processor until smooth
  4. Return to large pot and cook over medium-low heat until hot. Makes about 8 Servings

WXPR One Step Closer to Downtown

WXPR Public Radio has been working for nearly two years on the Hear the Future Campaign. The campaign will result in four new production studios in a new location, plus funding a new position, Community Features Editor, to create new stories on the air and on the web.

According to Executive Director Mick Fiocchi, the station needs to raise an additional $60,000 to complete all of the goals of the campaign, but the first step has been taken. Remodeling has begun on the building at 28 North Stevens Street, Rhinelander, that is the future home of WXPR.

According to Fiocchi the station has raised $340,000 so far, plus a donation of 75% of the value of the building by Johnson and Houlihan Law Office. "We are deeply grateful to the community for the generosity that has brought us to this point."

Next steps? Fiocchi says the remodeling will be followed by installation of the studio equipment. The move into the new location is expected by the end of May. Then the station will begin a search for the Community Features Editor.

Once the project is fully realized, WXPR will be able to broadcast more live music events from the studio and bring stories from all around the Northwoods to its listeners. For information about the campaign, contact Fiocchi at 715-362-6000.

Wabeno Area School Late Start For Jr/Sr High & No School For Elementary

Wednesday, March 7, 2012

The Jr/Sr High School students will be starting school 1 hour 50 minutes late on Wednesday, March 7, 2012. Parents should expect buses to arrive 1 hour 50 minutes later than normal on this day. Dismissal time will not change. The purpose of the late start is for staff cooperative planning time. Parents who bring their children to school and children who walk to school should arrive at 10:00 A.M.

For Elementary students there will be no school on the first Wednesday of the month. This new initiative is to provide the elementary staff with more collaboration and training time for improving our reading and math programs. State instructional guidelines allow for this kind of scheduling as the yearly required minutes of instruction for elementary students are substantially less than those for Jr/Sr High students.

Additional Jr/Sr High late starting/Elementary no school dates during this school year will be May 2.

Happy Birthday to Laney, the Cinderella of the Pioneer

From all your friends & co-workers at the Pioneer Express

Thank You & Personals

Thank You

I want to say "thank you" to all my patients, whom I have seen in the last 3 years at Ministry Health Center in Crandon. Thank each of you, for allowing me to be part of your health care and for allowing me to know you as a person.

I am sorry that I had to leave so abruptly and if this caused any loss in continuation of your health care. I left on my own decisions, for reasons that I will not discuss publicly, but know that it was necessary for my health and happiness.

As of this March, I will be working as a Family Nurse Practitioner at Northern Health Center in Lakewood. I am taking new and previous patients. The number is 715 276-6321. Most insurances, including Medicare and Medicaid are covered, along with sliding fee scale for those without insurance.

Thanks again, Janet Dailey

CONGRATULATIONS HAYDEN KRUEGER FOR MAKING STATE!

We feel truly blessed by the outpouring of kindness we've been shown.

Thank you for all the cards, visits, flowers, food and especially all of the prayers.

We are truly grateful and appreciative.

Also, thank you to Mr. Gruber for your patience. No more late night calls, "Wrong number... SORRY!"

SHE LOVED YOU ALL VERY MUCH!

Attendance is on the Rise at Crandon Elementary

Crandon Elementary students have been working hard these past few months on improving attendance. The students improved 2nd quarter attendance by 3.4% compared to 2nd quarter attendance in 2010. This achievement was acknowledged with a movie in the auditorium. We credit the students and parents for helping us improve our attendance.

Remember, parent involvement and attendance are two key factors in school success. Keep up the good work.

Viterbo to offer Special Education Licensure Program

LA CROSSE, Wis. In an effort to enhance the skills of educators and to alleviate the shortage of special education teachers in Wisconsin, Viterbo University will offer a new Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction approved Cross-categorical Special Education Licensure program.

"We are pleased to offer this new licensure program, as it will allow teachers to broaden their area of expertise, which we believe will increase their employability," said Susan Hughes, director of educational research at Viterbo. "By offering a program that is relevant, convenient, and close to home, we anticipate that teachers around the State of Wisconsin will seize this opportunity to develop an additional area of expertise."

The Viterbo Special Education Licensure program has emphases in cognitive disabilities and specific learning disabilities, with options for teachers at middle childhood to early adolescence and/or early adolescence to adolescence, and is designed to meet the Council for Exceptional Children Professional Teaching Standards. The program also reinforces Viterbo's commitment to preparing quality educators in Wisconsin.

The Viterbo program will be offered on weekends and in the summer in four locations throughout Wisconsin: La Crosse, Gillett, Madison, and Milwaukee. The La Crosse and Gillett cohorts are scheduled to begin in June 2012, with the Madison and Milwaukee cohorts beginning at a later date.

For more information about the Special Education Licensure program, visit www.viterbo.edu/soe.

SNOW FLEAS?

Snow Fleas are not fleas at all, but a type of insect called a springtail. Springtails get their name because they have two long things that look like tails sticking from their abdomen (back body section). The "tails" can fold under the body and are held by two hooks under the body. When the springtail releases the hooks, the insect goes flying in the air.

Snow Fleas are very small, about 1/16 inch long. They are dark blue, have short antennae, and have two eye clusters (with 16 eyes in each).

Snow Fleas, and other springtails, live in soil, leaf litter, mosses, fungi, and along shores of ponds. Sometimes they can be found on the surface of ponds. Since they are so light, they can walk on the surface without sinking.

They eat old dead plant matter, bacteria, fungi, algae, pollen, roundworms, rotifers, and sap. Roundworms and rotifers are tiny microscopic animals.

Snow Fleas mate in the Spring, and the females lay eggs in the soil. Tiny springtails are born, which are called nymphs. Nymphs do not look exactly like adult Snow Fleas.

Snow Flea nymphs will eat and grow. As they grow they will shed their outer skin (called an exoskeleton). Each time they molt, they will look a little bit more like an adult Snow Flea. By Winter, all the nymphs have turned into adults.

During very cold Winter days, Snow Fleas are not very active. But if it warms up, Snow Fleas will become active and look for food. They may even crawl out onto the surface of snow. This is how Snow Fleas get their name. People notice large amounts of them, like black dust, around the base of a tree. They are usually there when there isn't snow too, as long as the temperature is warm enough; you just see them better on a white background.

Predators of Snow Fleas, and other springtails, include: beetles, ants, mites, centipedes, and other small insect-eaters.
