FCP donates to Forest County Association of Lakes

By Mike Monte

Forest County Potawatomi Vice-Chair Al Milham presented this symbolic check to Lee Lamers, President of the Forest County Association of Lakes (FCAL). The check in the amount of $2,000 will be used by FCAL to fund their ongoing operations.

Vice-Chair Milham said that the Potawatomi are always glad to support environmental causes like the work performed by FCAL and said the tribe wanted to help the organization and their good works with area lakes.

FCAL has a mission to preserve and improve the quality of area lakes and is a joint effort of area lake associations. They work to eliminate invasive species and educate young people on lake quality with an essay contest. There are plans to start a photo contest for young people in the future.

Community Thanksgiving Dinners

Arbutus Lutheran holds a Community Thanksgiving Dinner

A Community Thanksgiving Dinner will be served in the Pickerel-Pearson area at Arbutus Lutheran Church on Thanksgiving Day from 11:30-1:00 p.m. Thanksgiving worship begins at 10:30 a.m. at the church, located just off Highway 55 near County T, in Pearson. Everyone is welcome. There is no charge for the meal. Freewill offerings support the church Local Needs Fund. We are also collecting non-perishable food items for the Elcho Food Pantry. Carry-outs are available.

The families of Arbutus Church make this dinner every year as a service to the community. Head Chef Herm Wissbroecker roasts twelve turkeys, mashes 100 pounds of hand-peeled, locally-grown potatoes, and cooks a couple roasters of stuffing. Dinner includes all the fixings like gravy, cranberry sauce, fresh breads, and homemade desserts, including pumpkin pie.

"We hope that those who otherwise would be alone or wouldn't fix a thanksgiving dinner will come and be part of our Thanksgiving celebration. Singles, families, couples and hunters are all invited," said Pastor Nancy Richmond.

For more information, call 715-623-6850.

Crandon Community Thanksgiving Day Dinner

The Crandon Community Thanksgiving Day Dinner will be at St. Luke's United Methodist Church on South Lake Avenue. The dinner is on Thanksgiving Day, November 22nd from 11:00 till 2:00 p.m. The meal is free with a free will offering available.

Carryouts are available with a limit of three, and transportation is available. Call 478-3797 for more info.

Crandon's Trifecta Stores Food Drive Sale

Would you like to do some shopping and receive a hefty discount and help the Newcap Food Pantry? Well, Saturday, November 17th is the last day of the annual sale held by Tricia's Treasures, Flowers From the Heart and She's All that.

Each store has a different formula for the amount of non-perishable food items required to get a specific discount, but you can get up to 30% off for 15 non-perishable items at one of the stores, 25% off for 10 food items at two of the stores and lesser discounts for smaller amounts of food items.

Shop and help the food pantry. You can get some Christmas shopping done locally and help others while you do!

Vet's Day Dinner

Ron Boldt was the guest speaker at the Veteran's Day Dinner

By Boyd Monte

Every year on November 11, the United States honors veterans of all wars on what is called Veteran's Day. Veterans Day was originally named Armistice Day and was the end of the Great War, or World War I. Many people did not think that we would ever see a war like that again. In 1919, the first Armistice Day was celebrated. It was made a federal holiday in 1938. After World War II and the Korean War was fought, the United States had more veterans, so in 1954, Armistice Day was renamed, Veteran's Day so that veterans of all the wars were honored.

The Deer Hunting Tradition

Deer hunting is a tradition in Wisconsin, that for some people, is the highlight of the year. The old photo above is typical of deer camps of yesteryear. It is a buck pole at Theiler's camp in 1934. Many loggers know Carl Theiler who served as secretary of the Timber Producers for years, and these are his relatives.

Good luck to all of you who are pursuing the wily whitetail, even though most "pursue" from a tree stand over a bait pile. May the hunting gods smile upon you, and be safe.

Girl Scouts hold a Food Drive

The Up North Area Girl Scouts are having a food drive for the Townsend Food Pantry. Our girl scouts work hard this time of year with school and learning how to give back to our communities. The scouts are gearing up and practicing to go Christmas caroling at the Nu Roc Nursing Home in Blackwell on November 30, 2012.

Boxes or bins will be at our local business in Wabeno, Laona, Townsend & Crandon. Your donations will be greatly appreciated for this month is about Thanksgiving.

Humane Society fund raiser in Armstrong Creek

Submitted by Vern Hollister

Armstrong Creek-Saturday, November 17, travelers and residents near Armstrong Creek can help the Forest County Humane Society from 10 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at The Corner Store in Armstrong Creek. Andrea Millan, an area resident, volunteered at Humane Societies when she was a college student. Her work and starting a young family prevent her from volunteering at the Society in Crandon. Caring for animals never left her. She contacted the Forest County Society about raising funds for their needs.

This Saturday, Millan will host a bake sale and a donation basket with the proceeds going to the FCHS. Their needs are considerable. Millan said they need dog food, cat food, blankets, bedding, towels, laundry detergent, and bleach.

For this high traffic deer hunting weekend, Millan enlisted family members and other volunteers to bake bars, cookies, muffins, cakes, and pies. If anyone has not been contacted and would like to contribute to the sale, stop at The Corner Store with a dozen cookies or just pause to contribute. With hunters travelling north and preparing to spend time in the area, Millan believes they may like some homemade sweets to carry to the hunting shacks. Hunters can help out domestic animals while they pursue the wild ones.

Help victims of Hurricane Sandy with community rummage sale

A rummage sale is being planned in Forest County, with all the proceeds from the event, to go to the victims of Hurricane Sandy.

The sale is scheduled for Friday, December 7 & Saturday, December 8th at the Crandon Community Building beginning at 9:00 am both days. There will be a silent auction and raffles. The Crandon Lions will be selling food.

People are needed both for help at the event and to donate items for the sale. So look through your closets for anything in good shape to donate. How about those Christmas gifts from last year that you have never used or the toys your child wanted for all of fifteen minutes and they are now collecting dust. Any of these items would be welcome, and in turn may help the people who are buying at the sale by making their money go further at this holiday time. If you have donations or are willing to help at the sale, please call Lana at 715-478-3502.

The set up starts Monday, December 3 at 1:00 pm at the community building.

Wisconsin Brass Quintet will perform in Three Lakes

The Three Lakes School/Community Arts Association is delighted to bring the Wisconsin Brass Quintet to the Northwoods for a concert on Monday, December 3rd. Founded in 1972, the Wisconsin Brass Quintet is a faculty ensemble-in-residence at the University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Music. With extensive performances throughout the Midwest and nationally, including appearances at New York's Carnegie Recital Hall and Merkin Concert Hall, the quintet's educational programs and master classes have been presented in such prestigious settings as The Juilliard School and the Yale School of Music. They perform annual live radio broadcast concerts on Wisconsin Public Radio. Barry Kilpatrick writes for the American Record Guide: "I've reviewed over 250 brass recordings in the past five years, and this is one of the very best. The WBQ is a remarkable ensemble that plays with more reckless abandon, warmth, stylistic variety and interpretive interest than almost any quintet in memory."

It is the mission of the Wisconsin Brass Quintet to perform and record, at the highest level of artistry, a large and diverse range of repertoire both originally composed and adapted for brass quintet. This includes works from those not talented enough to achieve pro status. "It's easier to make better decisions when you're focused and in good condition," said Daniels Sr.

There are boxing clubs around the world known for helping its young members stay out of trouble. Boxing builds self-confidence, while fighters develop self-discipline and learn about responsibility and sportsmanship. There are many stories about at-risk youth turning into champions, who may not have had the same chance if it weren't for boxing.

Coaches Webster and Daniels continue to inspire young athletes, teaching them skills that can be applied outside the boxing ring as well. "We love what we do," Daniels said. Webster added, "You have to have a passion for boxing to pursue it. It's also a good way to give back to our community."

Club hours for amateurs are 4 to 6 p.m. Adults work out from 6 8 p.m. Interested boxers from Crandon also welcome. For more information on the club or about upcoming bouts call (715) 889-0883.

10 Brilliant Uses for Salt

1.) Quickly clear your pet's stuffy nose: Achoo! It's cold season for cats and dogs, too. If your pet seems congested, help her breathe easier with saline nose drops. To do: Fill a dropper with a mixture of 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. baking soda and 1 cup of distilled water. Hold the dropper in one hand and tip her head back with the other, then place a drop or two in each nostril. The saline solution will thin and flush out mucus to relieve your pet's symptoms. Repeat twice a day until she's feeling better.

2.) De-puff tired eyes in minutes: The next time a late night leaves you with under-eye puff, try this quick a.m. trick: Add 1 tsp. of salt to a cup of warm water. Dip two cotton balls or pads into the solution, then lie back and place them over your closed eyes for 5 minutes. The warm water will open pores around the eyes so the salt can draw out the retained moisture that causes swelling. You'll look refreshed and rested - even if you don't feel it!

3.) Mildew-proof a shower curtain: Before you hang a new plastic shower curtain or liner, try this genius trick: Fill your tub with 6 inches of water and 2 cups of salt and submerge the curtain for 1 hour, then hang without rinsing. The soak will impart an invisible coat of sodium crystals what will prevent mildew from forming on the plastic. Repeat up to four times a year.

4.) Keep dark jeans from fading: Score! You found a pair of jeans that flatters your every curve. To prevent the dark denim from fading or bleeding onto other clothing, wash the jeans by themselves twice, adding 1 / 4 cup of salt to the wash cycle each time. Salt helps set dye pigments, ensuring the color won't bleed. (After two treatments, wash the jeans as usual.)

5.) Mince garlic with ease: Chopping garlic can be a hassle when you constantly have to stop and wipe sticky pieces off the side of your knife. Next time, dampen your blade with water and sprinkle with salt before getting started. The abrasive granules will provide just enough friction to keep the garlic from clinging to the knife so you can breeze through the task.

6.) Rescue a bitter cup of joe: Stuck with coffee that has too much bite but don't want extra creamer calories or chemicals? Just grab a salt packet and add a pinch to balance the java's acidity. The result: a delicious morning brew - with no salty taste.

7.) Erase a red wine oops: To save your tablecloth after a wine spill, blot with paper towels, then drape the fabric over a bowl, centering the stain inside the rim. Next, pour cool water over the affected area and sprinkle on a layer of salt to absorb the wine. Once the stain has turned pink, pour a few cups of boiling water over the spot and toss the tablecloth in the wash.

8.) Remove sticky iron residue: If you're worried that scorch marks on your iron's plate might get transferred to your clothes and damage the fabric, grab the saltshaker. Simply lay a sheet of wax paper on your ironing board, sprinkle a handful of salt on top and run the hot iron over the paper. The heat will soften the residue, allowing the coarse salt to scrub it off the metal plate. Then turn off the iron, let cool and wipe the plate with a damp cloth.

9.) Clear a clogged pipe for pennies: The only thing worse than a slow draining sink? The noxious smell of drain cleaner! Sidestep both problems with this all-natural fix: Mix 2 Tbs. of salt with 2 cups of seltzer and pour down the drain. Wait 1 minute, then run the hottest tap water for 10 seconds. The abrasive salt and seltzer will break down the blockage and the scalding water will wash it away.

10.) Disinfect a wooden cutting board: Pomegranates, beets and other colorful foods always leave stains on your cutting board, but scrubbing with dish soap or cleaning spray can impart an unpleasant taste the next time you chop produce. The save: Sprinkle salt all over the board, wet a sponge with hot water and rub the salt in until the marks are gone, then wipe with a towel. The granules will scour away any lingering food particles, cutting stains, odors and the risk of bacterial growth.

Thank You

Words cannot express how thankful I am for a community like this. I was blind-sided by the death of my wife, Sjana, as were all of you. You all grieved with me and shared my tears. I thank God that He led me here and allowed Sjana and I to become part of this amazing community. Jonathan and I thank you for all your cards, letters, calls, food and financial help. The pain of losing part of me is eased by your support and love.
God bless you all.

November is American Diabetes Month

This month, the Forest County Health Department along with the American Diabetes Association hopes to raise the profile of this insidious disease in the hearts and minds of people here at home, and around the globe.

Recent estimates project that as many as 1 in 3 American adults will have diabetes in 2050 unless we take steps to Stop Diabetes®. Today, nearly 26 million adults and children in the U.S. have diabetes. 10% of adults in Wisconsin are estimated to have diabetes compared to 13.4% in Forest County. That's 1,240 people who have diabetes in our community.

Before people develop type 2 diabetes, they almost always have prediabetes - blood glucose levels that are high, but not high enough to be diagnosed as diabetes. Today, nearly 79 million adults and children in the U.S. have prediabetes. In Forest County, an estimated 2,540 people aged 20 years and older have prediabetes. These people are at an increased risk of developing type 2 diabetes, heart disease, and stroke.

A total of 3,780 people in our community either have diabetes or prediabetes. Our total population is 9,300 so we are well on our way to 40% of our population having diabetes unless preventative measures are taken. The cost of diabetes in Forest County adults is staggering. In 2009, direct costs were estimated at $10.6 million, indirect costs were estimated at $5.3 million, totaling an estimated $15.9 million.

We hope to call attention to this epidemic that is facing our nation and our community. If you have been diagnosed with diabetes, it is important that you follow your doctor's advice to stay healthy and prevent complications. If you are at risk for type 2 diabetes, it can be delayed or even prevented. You can take steps to change your diet, increase your physical activity, and maintain a healthy weight.

For more information on risk factors, symptoms, treatment, and preventing complications of diabetes, please visit www.diabetes.org or call us at the Health Department at 715-478-3371.

The Forest County Potawatomi Warriors Boxing Club

Mark Daniels, Mark Daniels Jr. and Eugene Webster take a break from training

CRANDON, Wi.--Tucked away in the former Crandon High School gymnasium, the Forest County Potawatomi Warriors Boxing Club resembles the gym in the first Rocky movie, where Balboa spent his days working out and sparring. Training equipment occupies the space where trainers coach the fighters one-on-one. A weight room looms in the distance on the former gymnasium stage. There are many impressive trophies in the display case and photos of club members from over the years. Of course at the center of it all, is the boxing ring.

Master coach Eugene Webster Jr. and up-and-coming boxer Mark Daniels Jr. weave through the assortment of punching bags, with Webster coaching Daniels on technique. "Show us the 7 punch combination!" Webster shouts. Daniels, in training for what he hopes to be his big debut return to the ring this coming January, easily executes seven punches (including the hook, uppercut, & jab) in three seconds. His hands are a blur. A middleweight, he's one of the notable fighters in the boxing club who hopes to turn professional in early 2013.

Wisconsin Local Boxing Commission, USA Amateur Boxing Association, and Wisconsin Intertribal Boxing Association sanction the club, which has been around since April 2002. There haven't been any prominent fighters over the last decade but, with Daniels Jr. preparing for his big opportunity, the FCP Warriors are expecting things to liven up. The sport may see a huge revival on the reservation. Things are off to a good start with three members ready to box: Daniels, C.J. Skenandore, and William Alloway.

"When our club started there were thirty kids participating," said Head Coach/trainer Mark Daniels Sr., a former champ who won a World Masters title in California in 2008 and a Wisconsin state championship (Indian tournament) in 2005.

He shared a brief history. "Back in the early 80s, Lou Boyd came to the rez and got people interested in starting a boxing club but could not get financial support for it. He showed us the basics and I knew that I loved it. I tried to keep people interested. In 2002 I started holding informal practices in the basement of my home. We didn't have much equipment to work with-- a few pairs of gloves, some headgear, and a few punching bags. In 2003 we moved to the old Tribal Hall gymnasium, and finally in 2005 we moved to the former Crandon High School gym. It's perfect for what we wanted to do."

Webster explained a typical workout that includes 35 cardiovascular drills geared toward boxing. In addition, "roadwork" consists of running two miles each day on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. "Two weeks before a fight, we ask them to run every weeknight and taper off so they can focus on sparring before the fight." Fighters are advised to eat right, get plenty of rest, and do well in school. They are also required to stay out of trouble.

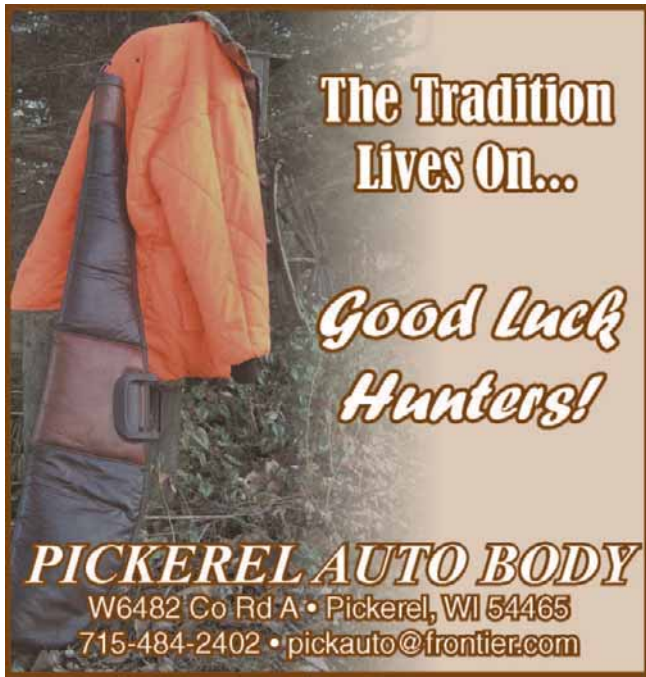

A member of the club since it opened, Mark Daniels Jr. showed promise over the last decade. The club rules stipulate that members stay away from drinking, drugs, gangs, etc. --and life sometimes takes an unexpected turn. He found himself in trouble with the law and his Probation Officer prohibited him from boxing. He continued to train, however and now dedicates most of his time to it. On January 23rd, 2013, he will have paid his debt to society.

His debut bout will be in February in Lac du Flambeau. If he does well, another professional contract will come his way because according to his coach and father, there are two agents who will be present at the debut match. He was offered a 3-year contract in October 2011-- before the legal woes.

Webster oversees his coaching. "Mark Jr. will be able to travel without restrictions, we hope to see his self-discipline pay off," he said. Four fighters have backed out of matches with Daniels in recent months.

"It's a significant step that boxers take after participating in the amateurs- to pursue a professional boxing career." says Webster, a former pro boxer whose record speaks for itself with 399 wins, 78 losses, 52 knockouts, and 20 titles. Webster has boxed since the age of 3, discovering his talent while at Flandreau Indian School under the coaching of Harold "Gus" Frank in the late 1970s. "Professional boxing is a serious business. You can get killed in this sport. You have to dedicate yourself completely."

Boxing is a sport dating back to ancient times. In the 20th century it became one of the top moneymaking spectator sports in the world. Referred to as "the sweet science" because of the complexity and athleticism involved, the sport has transformed many fighters- even
