Americana Display

This month, the Brezovar Memorial Display Case features Richard Ackley Jr's Americana collection of fast food memorabilia items from over thirty-years of collecting. Richard has collected these items while traveling and at garage sales and feels his collection is a bit of American history. Collecting is a fun hobby for Richard and he feels it is a wonderful way to spend time. Many items Richard has "picked" over the years are overlooked by many. As Richard says, "If you have the knowledge to grab on to an item it can be invaluable to you." His picking gravitates toward advertising and the value of the item increases as the advertising ceases.

Viewing the items in the display will no doubt

City of Crandon partners with Eagle Waste and Recycling Inc.

Eagle Waste & Recycling Inc. in partnership with the City of Crandon are excited to provide a new program for collection of trash and recycling. The changes will improve aesthetics within the city, save money and promote and improve recycling collection and participation. The new number of items that you are allowed to recycle has increased. A summary of the changes to your trash and recycling collection include:

- Each customer will receive a 64 gallon cart on wheels, black lid, for storage and collection of trash. This container will be picked up every week. Please note that all waste must fit into this container. If you need a larger container for trash, you are able to upgrade to a 96 gallon cart for a fee of two a month by contacting us at 715-477-0077.

- Each customer will receive a 96 gallon cart on wheels, green lid, for storage and collection of single stream recyclables, glass, plastic, tin, aluminum, paper and cardboard all mixed together in one container. All material is to be clean and placed loose within the container, no plastic bags. The 96 gallon recycling cart will be picked up every other week on the same day as your trash. Most residents will find the cart large enough to hold two or more weeks of recyclables. If you determine you need an additional cart for recycling, one will be provided at no charge.

- Your collection schedule will continue on as usual with pickup on Wednesday until the week of March 4th. Therefore, place both your trash and recycling out on February 20th and 27th. During the week of March 4th your collection day will change to Monday and recyclables will be picked up every other week. On March 4th we will be picking up Trash only. On March 11th we will be collecting both trash and recycling. Recycling will continue to be picked up every other week thereafter.

- Please place your trash and recyclables out by the curb by 6:00 a.m. on the day of collection.

- Please place your cart in the location it was delivered. The cart is picked up with an arm that extends out of the truck. Therefore, the driver does not need to get out of the truck to pick up your trash or recyclables.

- Please be sure that the cart is at least three feet from other carts, telephone poles, vehicles or anything else that would interfere with the automated arm.

- Please note that Eagle Waste collects trash and recycling on all holidays with the exception of Christmas.

Please visit our website at www.eaglewasteandrecycling.com to obtain more information about our company or the services we provide. Specific questions can be answered by contacting customer service at 715-477-0077.

Decisions, decisions! How often have you tried to decide what you would like for lunch? This weasel seems to be trying to make up his mind if he would like a gray squirrel lunch or not. This story has a happy ending for the squirrel, who became went after the weasel. The weasel evidently decided that a mouse dinner was good enough after all.

Rosemarie Rogers pleads guilty Sentence rendered

On Friday February 15, 2013 Rosemarie Rogers entered a Guilty plea to the Class G felony of Theft (greater than $10,000). The second count, misdemeanor bail jumping was dismissed and read-in. The defendant is required to file state and federal returns on or before April 1, of each year with the entirety of the returns being forfeited towards restitution until it is paid in full. The defendant is also required to perform 250 hours of community service while on probation which must start within 60 days of her conviction, must write an apology letter to the victim, must work full-time, is to have no contact with the victim and will be given credit for 30 days she already served if she is revoked on probation as she sat 30 days prior to being bonded out of jail.

The amount originally owed was much greater, approximately $24,000, but we were able to recover some funds which mitigated the final restitution amount.

Report on the meeting of the Forest County Board

By Mike Monte

The full Forest County Board met last Tuesday, February 19th at 7:00 p.m. in the board room.

The meeting was opened by Jim Schuessler, representing the Forest County Economic Development Partnership. Schuessler gave plenty of good news about some of the job creation that has taken place in the county, and outlined some of the goals of FCEDP. Discussed was the building of an ORV park in the county in the 10,000 acre range, getting rail service back into the county, signage in the county, and an effort to get an increase in available timber, especially from the national forest lands.

Lets go turkey bowling

Strap on the grippers and get to the Riverview Ice Rinks early for Turkey Bowling this Saturday, February 23rd. Better get there by 11:30 am so you have time to take on some nourishment and a libation or two to ready yourself for Turkey Bowling. We sure do have fun at this event. You will find a challenge or two between the bowling waves this year. Yes indeed all 12 lanes will be at the ready for those who think they can make a STRIKE with that scream'in frozen fowl ! We will once again be in strict adherence to the Professional Ice Turkey Bowlers Code of Conduct. Rule #1 - Have FUN, Rule #2 - Have FUN, and Rule #3 - Never, Never turn your back on a frozen turkey. Vet's Corner

By Jim Garamone

American Forces Press Service

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13, 2013 - Defense Secretary Leon E. Panetta has approved a new medal designed to recognize service members directly affecting combat operations who may not even be on the same continent as the action.

The Distinguished Warfare Medal recognizes the changing face of warfare. In the past, few, if any, service members not actually in a combat zone directly affected combat operations.

These new capabilities have given American service members the ability to engage the enemy and change the course of battle, even from afar, Panetta said at a Pentagon news conference today.

"I've always felt -- having seen the great work that they do, day in and day out -- that those who performed in an outstanding manner should be recognized. Unfortunately, medals that they otherwise might be eligible for simply did not recognize that kind of contribution."

Now, the Defense Department does.

"The medal provides distinct, department-wide recognition for the extraordinary achievements that directly impact on combat operations, but that do not involve acts of valor or physical risk that combat entails," Panetta said.

Technological advancements have dramatically changed how the American military conducts and supports warfighters. Unmanned aerial vehicles, unmanned underwater vehicles, missile defense technology and cyber capabilities all affect combat operations while the operators may not be anywhere near the combat zone. The new medal recognizes the contributions of these service members.

It will not be awarded for acts of battlefield valor, officials said. It will be awarded in the name of the secretary of defense to members of the military whose extraordinary achievements directly impacted combat operations, and cannot be used as an end-of-tour award.

"This new medal recognizes the changing character of warfare and those who make extraordinary contributions to it," said Army Gen. Martin E. Dempsey, the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. "The criteria for this award will be highly selective and reflect high standards."

The most immediate example is the work of an unmanned aerial vehicle operator who could be operating a system over Afghanistan while based at Creech Air Force Base, Nev. The unmanned aerial vehicle would directly affect operations on the ground. Another example is that of a soldier at Fort Meade, Md., who detects and thwarts a cyberattack on a DOD computer system.

The medal could be used to recognize both these exceptional acts, officials said.

In the order of precedence, the Distinguished Warfare Medal will be below the Distinguished Flying Cross, and will be limited to achievements that are truly extraordinary. "The member's actions must have resulted in an accomplishment so exceptional and outstanding as to clearly set the individual apart from comrades or from other persons in similar situations," a DOD official said.

The military department secretary must approve each award, and it may not be presented for valorous actions. "This limitation was specifically included to keep the Distinguished Warfare Medal from detracting from existing valor decorations, such as the Medal of Honor, Service Crosses and Silver Star Medal," the official said.

Award criteria will be incorporated into the next revision of DOD Manual 1348.33-V3, Manual of Military Decorations and Awards, Volume 3.

VRAP Deadline Looms

According to the VA, over 94,000 veterans have applied for VRAP education benefits. To date the VA has approved over 77,000 Certificates of Eligibility. However, just over 27,000 of those eligible veterans have begun using their benefit. The VA is encouraging veterans to finish the process and get enrolled in eligible education programs as soon as possible. A VA official recently stated, "We do not want any of the 99,000 slots to go unused. The program is only two years long. By law we can only accept applications until September 30, 2013, and the last payment can be made through March 31, 2014." VRAP participants that do not enroll in school by March of this year will not be able to receive a full 12 months of training. VRAP participants are being warned that they must apply and begin using their benefits as soon as feasible, or, notify the VA to cancel their Certificate of Eligibility to make room for other veterans to use the benefit.

VRAP GI Bill Factsheet

The Veterans Retraining Assistance Program (VRAP) GI Bill offers up to 12 months of Montgomery GI Bill benefits for older unemployed veterans. Unemployed veterans between the age of 35 and 60 may apply for education benefits worth as much as $17,600 ($1473 a month). This new GI Bill program was created as a part of the VOW to Hire Heroes Act of 2011.

To be eligible for the VRAP GI Bill you must:

Be at least 35 but no more than 60 years old.

Be unemployed (as determined by DoL).

NOTICE

IMPACT OF THE REFERENDUM IN THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF WABENO AREA

The School District of Wabeno Area will have an operating referendum on the ballot April 2, 2013. The School District works hard to provide an excellent education and well-maintained facilities for our students. Evidence of this quality education is confirmed by the high marks the district received on the State School Report Cards which indicate that the district is meeting and exceeding expectations.

At the same time, the School District is cognizant of the impact of educational costs on its taxpayers. The School Board and Administration are committed to keeping the mill rate as low as possible. The proposed referendum will increase the mill rate from the current 6.17 to 6.73. For a home valued at $50,000, the proposed referendum would increase the school tax by approximately $28. For a home valued at $100,000, the proposed referendum would increase the school tax by approximately $56.

The history of mill rate for the School District of Wabeno Area and a comparison of other mill rates in surrounding areas are shown below:

Community invited to Northwoods Business Expo

Area community members are invited to the 6th annual Northwoods Business Expo. This year's Expo will be held at Rhinelander's James Williams Middle School at 915 Acacia Lane in Rhinelander on Wednesday, February 27, from 5 to 8 pm. Area businesses big and small will be displaying their products and services.

"This is a great opportunity for the public to view and appreciate the variety of businesses and entrepreneurship that exists in the Northwoods", said Dan Kuzlik, one of the Expo organizers. Kuzlik went on to state, "In past years we have had several hundred community members come out to learn about area businesses, network with entrepreneurs and enjoy an evening of complimentary foods, and this year's venue at the middle school gives us better parking and more room for participating businesses and the viewing public."

In addition, Grow North Regional Economic Development Corporation will again be providing $1,000.00 in cash prizes to registered businesses." There is no charge to the public and no need for registration. There are still a few spaces available to businesses who want to set up a table or display for a cost of $50.00 per 8x10 space.

Interested businesses should contact the Rhinelander Area Chamber Of Commerce at 715-365-7464.

In Loving Memory of Walter Dault • February 22, 1975

Time for me to go now. I won't say good-bye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise, When all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me as you know I loved you.
It won't be forever, the day will come and then my loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.

Love & miss you always,
your family

Kristin Schaefer winner at Milwaukee Art Museum

The Milwaukee Art Museum's annual exhibition of works by Wisconsin students grades 7-12 is on view. Over one thousand individual artworks from more than one hundred schools across the state participated in the Scholastic Art Awards.

Gold and Silver Key winning artists are on display in Schroeder Galleria and Pieper Gallery now through March 17, 2013. From Crandon High School, the winner is Kristin Schaefer.

The Scholastic Art Awards - Wisconsin competition and exhibition is the regional section of The Scholastic Art and Writing Awards National Program, conducted by the Alliance for Young Artists and Writers, Inc. On February 2, student artists were awarded 254 individual Gold Keys which forwards them on to the National Scholastic Art Awards Competition, and 139 Silver Keys, which allows for statewide recognition of their work.

"It is a privilege to see the work of these young artists and to be a part of their experience in the Scholastic Art Awards," said Daniel Keegan, director of the Milwaukee Art Museum. "With so much talent, I have no doubt that choosing the winners was hard for our jury, and I look forward to seeing some of these same artists competing again next year."

Ed Smith INSURANCE TIP ARE YOU PREPARED!!! FOR ICE OR THUNDER STORMS?

How about spring flooding? Are you prepared, if that should happen? It is apparent that our weather patterns are changing. All types of storms are getting more severe. Are you prepared for an emergency?

1. Do you know first aid?
2. Do you have a plan, which includes where to go in the event of a tornado?
3. Do you have a supply of water and other necessities?
4. Do you have an escape plan in case of fire?

5. Do you check your fire alarms and carbon monoxide detectors annually?

Of course all these things have a direct effect on your increasing homeowner's insurance rates. Call us if your rates have taken a big rate increase. We may be able to save you some money with one of our quality companies.

A number of things were decided and not decided. The board voted to buy a new fully equipped tandem plow truck fully equipped with dump box, wing, plow, undercarriage and salting apparatus at the cost of about $190,000. There was little discussion, and it was obvious that all present was aware of the Highway Department's need for a new truck to replace a worn out truck.

There were a number of items that were routine, but the discussion over the problems facing the Forest County Humane Society, mainly funding, was lengthy.

The funding currently in place was brought to the attention of the board members, and it appears that money from the sale of dog licenses that come from the various towns and the city is sent to the county, where 25 cents is sent to the state, and a $1,000 fund is maintained to cover animal damages, then the remainder is sent back to the communities. It appears that this money should be sent to the Humane Society by the communities. But, taking into consideration that hardly anybody buys a dog license, this is not a significant amount of money. The sum is about $800 or a slightly more yearly.

This brought up the question of why people don't buy a dog license, and one board member wasn't aware that they were offered anymore, and he was joined in this by others in the room who didn't know they were supposed to be purchased by dog owners. This, in turn, brought up the subject of how dog owners could be induced to buy a dog license. Sheriff Dennee was present and asked if the Sheriff's Department could enforce the ordinance. He replied that his people had their hands full of work now, and that combing the county looking for unregistered dogs took time that the Sheriff's Department didn't have. The idea of having a Humane Officer position was brought up, which brought up a discussion of how this could be funded.

As the old saying goes, "When all was said and done, more was said than done." However, it is a complex problem, and it will not be solved with one meeting, but there was a better understanding by the board members of what the Humane Society is facing. Certainly, we need an organization in place to take care of the numerous dogs and cats that are not cared for in Forest County. It can also be said that the Society needs to come up with some better internal funding, but the county also has a responsibility.

While nothing was settled, the problem was brought to the attention of the board members, and hopefully, there will be some problem solving done to correct this deficiency.

Another item of interest was approving by the board of State Highway 55 as a State Scenic Byway.
