All Forest County Snowmobile Trails will remain closed until further notice.

The Nicolet State Trail and the Wolf River State Trail cannot be used by licensed motor vehicles (cars or trucks) at any time. Driving either trail for hunting purposes is illegal. Motor vehicles are causing damage to the trail surface and bridges. Citations will be issued for all illegal uses.

Pack 'Em Inn supports the food pantry at NewCap

The crew at Pack 'Em Inn held an Ugly Sweater Contest on December 13th. The customers brought in non-perishable food items, and for each item they received a ticket for a chance to win a flat-screen television. Virgie Hanson was the lucky winner.

Pictured above are the food items, with Dawn Volz, on the left, and Linda Duff. Dawn said the food drive was a success, and they plan on having the event again.

Childhood Memories of Christmas

Submitted by Barb (Bintz) Read

When I was a child Christmas was such a magical time, starting with the fact that a new, fancy dress was always in order. For my parents, finding the money to pay for it wasn't always easy I am sure -- because we were an ordinary mid-west farming family -- but I remember getting a new outfit every year.

The first time I would get to wear my new outfit would be on Christmas Eve. After weeks of Saturday morning practice with my fellow Sunday school chums, Christmas Eve was "Show Time" -- perhaps saying, "Worship Time" would be more appropriate.

Like all the members of my family, I would take a bath and get "all dolled up" as my dad used to say. Putting on our Sunday best on a cold, dark winter night was always exciting for me -- in my case my new dress -- along with new, clean white tights and black, patent-leather shoes that were so shiny nearby objects would reflect in them.

My mom would braid my hair and make sure that my brother and I were bundled up to stay warm on what would always be a typical freezing night in the depth of winter. I hated having to shove my feet into my bulky fur lined winter boots and zip them up over my beautiful, gleaming shoes for the five mile drive into town. The boots always made my feet feel sweaty and the snug feel always tended to wrinkle my tights.

I was always a little anxious when we arrived at our place of worship. My brother Bruce and I were blessed to be third generation members of the Bintz family, who attended Trintiy Evangelical Lutheran Church, in the town of Wabeno, Wisconsin.

Parents and guardians would help their smaller children remove and hang up coats, mittens, hats and then the adults would file into the church, leaving their offspring and/or charges in the supervision of nervous

Fall timber sales are released for Forest County

By Boyd Monte

The Forest County Forestry Department met last night, December 16, in the board room of the Forest County Courthouse. The Forestry Department has been extremely busy lately, but were able to get four timber sales out of a possible seven this fall. The other three sales will have to wait till spring and hopefully the timber prices will not drop. The bids totaled 264,935.00.

The committee also discussed the previous meeting of the sub committee and WORVPI. WORVPI is working on a master plan to get changes made to the 15 year comprehensive land use plan. The department has not set a date for the next sub committee meeting, but it should be in January.

There will be a new cabin at the Forest County Veteran's Memorial Park. The committee will be working on getting bids to print. The next forestry meeting will be January 12 at 4:00 P.M.

Mccaslin Lions host annual Childrens Christmas Party

Recently the McCaslin Lions Club hosted their annual Christmas party for 65 area children ten years old and under. Prizes were awarded to the Bingo winners played before lunch was served. Face painting was very popular with the youngsters. After lunch, Santa arrived via a Townsend fire truck with lights a flashing and sirens blazing.

After Santa's arrival, each child got to sit on Santa's lap to tell him their wishes for a Christmas present. Finishing the event, 20 trikes and bikes were given away to lucky children by lottery. A great time was had by all.

Sunday school teachers who were then deemed "in charge."

Standing and waiting in the less than warm front hall, in a chronologically formed line -- oldest to youngest -- always made me fearful. But I am sure I wasn't the only little kid with butterflies in their stomach -- most everyone, no doubt, was afraid of forgetting their lines when it would come time to say their part. This was such a big event!

At the sound the loud ringing church bell and the resounding music coming from the organ in the balcony we would march single file, through the double swinging doors into the main body of the church. The oldest leading the way down the aisle and sitting down in the same organized order -- the oldest to the youngest -- on the folding chairs lined up in rows, in front of and facing the altar. When it was time for a group of Sunday school students to perform, they would stand and turn around to face the congregation.

Singing old familiar hymns like "Away in a Manger" and "Silent Night" was a year to year tradition along with each grade taking turns reciting parts of the Christmas Story from the Holy Bible. Some of the more talented children actually got solo parts! Hearing the wonder of it all always gave me goose-bumps and made my knees knock together.

The church always seemed to sparkle, even though the stain glass windows that were usually adorned with sunlight on Sunday mornings would be as dark as the night outside. It was this darkness that seemed to make the candles and the lights all the more bright and exciting.

The sight of the twenty foot high tree -- decorated "to the nines" with the beautiful star on top -- that stood in the front of the church every year always warmed my heart. Just looking at the bright large colored lights on the tree was exciting enough but when I slightly crossed my eyes the tree lights would blur and come alive. But most exciting was the anticipation of getting my warm little hands on one of the gifts from under the tree. My eagerness made it so difficult to sit still and wait until the program was over.

All the gifts under the tree -- one for each child -- were exactly the same. Surprisingly they were just a small simple, brown paper lunch bag with the top folded over. There were no fancy ribbons or decorations attached to the top. Inside each bag was one orange, one apple, some square pieces of hard candy covered with dark chocolate, some peanuts in the shell and a piece or two of ribbon candy (flat, hard, striped candy in a curvy shape). In addition, there would be one homemade popcorn ball wrapped in some exotic colored cellophane paper like purple or orange. This, to me, was always the highlight of what was found in the bag. The exquisite popcorn balls were made in the church basement kitchen by the members of the Ladies Aid days prior to the service.

By today's standards, it was a very simple gift. But to a small child -- in the darkness, late at night, in the middle of a very long, cold winter in northern Wisconsin -- it was a treasure that brought pure joy.

The sound of the lovely carols, the feel of my soft new dress, the sight of the color of the cellophane paper and the bright, glowing, colored lights, the smell of the orange and the taste of the candy were all -- in a word -- euphoric!

Oh, the treasured memories of so long ago. Seeing that mountain of brown bags under the tree and knowing I would receive one always brought feelings of comfort, contentment and cheer -- as traditions usually do.

Looking back, it is amazing that the treasured Sunday school gift that was so plain and unpretentious could bring such happiness then and such happy memories now. But then again it is just like God's gift to us of the Christ child, a gift so small, so plain, and so unadorned -- was and is still -- simply and truly our greatest gift and treasure!

Warm For Winter to distribute clothing December 27th

Volunteers Carol Dreifuerst, Betty Eckert and Margaret Baker sort through donations of clothing and other cold-weather items for the next Warm for Winter give-away on Saturday, Dec. 27, 10 a.m., at Friendly Village.

In case Santa forgot that cozy sweater or extra blanket on your wish list, the Warm for Winter clothing give-away is set for Saturday, December 27, 10 a.m. until noon, at Friendly Village, 900 Boyce Drive in Rhineland.

Organizers Jan Leschke and Gale Willcox and a team of over 50 volunteers have been hard at work sorting, folding and stacking items over the last few weeks. "We are in our sixth year of this project," said Jan, "It's been gratifying to see how the community comes together to help recycle items that help people in need."

No income limits or verification is needed; everyone is welcome to take what they need to keep off the chill. The event will continue on the last Saturday of each month through February.

Dear Editor,

Now's the time of year when we all start receiving those beautiful Christmas cards. Once the season has passed, it's a shame to just throw them away. I have a suggestion for repurposing those cards. St. Jude's Ranch for Children accepts the fronts of Christmas, as well as, all occasion greeting cards that they use to make new cards and sell them as a fundraiser.

Their address is: 100 St Jude's Street, Boulder City, NV 89005.

I would like to encourage your readers to send the fronts of their greeting cards to this worthwhile project.

Thanks,
Ann J Koziol,
Crandon

"Beating a Dead Horse" and "If wishes were horses, beggars would ride"

Tell you what, I'll start with the first one, and finish with the last.

So, what do you think of when you hear this old idiom? Where did the phrase come from? What does it actually mean, and just how does it relate to W.O.R.V.P.I. {Wisconsin Off - Road Vehicle Park, Inc.}?

The internet is such a neat place. Google the idiom "beating a dead horse", and you will come up with the following definition, "trying to convince people to do or feel something without any hope of succeeding".

Sounds just like what W.O.R.V.P.I. is wishing to do with their idea of a 10,000 acre off - road park and campground, to be owned by you, the Forest County Taxpayer. Yes, they want you to borrow millions of dollars, to buy 10,000 acres of now private forest land, build a luxury campground, develop an off - road vehicle park, and then, turn it all over to W.O.R.V.P.I. to operate, because after all, it was their idea in the first place!

So what exactly does W.O.R.V.P.I. bring to the table, besides lots of wishes and the idea of a county owned off - road vehicle park? Not much by my standards. I went again last week, to W.O.R.V.P.I.'s website, to check in with what is happening at W.O.R.V.P.I. it seems that John Schnorr, president of W.O.R.V.P.I., is now writing a weekly newsletter to the faithful, detailing what a great job they are doing at helping the county develop "their" idea. According to the website, they have been busy little beavers, getting all their wishes in a row, to help the county purchase "their" land. Read it for yourself, if you're looking for a little levity.

I attended the meeting last Tuesday between the Forest County Forestry Department Sub Committee and W.O.R.V.P.I. Gee, who do you think was there to represent W.O.R.V.P.I., but Melinda Otto, who holds the titles of W.O.R.V.P.I.'s Secretary/Treasurer, Crandon City Council Member, Forest County Board Member, and lastly Executive Director of the Forest County's Chamber of Commerce! The second representative was former Forest County board member Jack Matuszewski. Apparently, W.O.R.V.P.I. had asked for revisions to Forest County's 15 year Comprehensive Land Use Plan, so that an off - road vehicle park could be operated on county owned lands. The meeting didn't get much accomplished. It seems that W.O.R.V.P.I. has been asked and so far unable to provide information from their wish list, including a master plan, a definition of a "MRA park", a definition of a rutting standard for prevention of environmental damage, and a definition of the business relationship between the county and W.O.R.V.P.I.. I also heard comments about: Who will build and own the buildings in the proposed park? Who will provide the required liability insurance? Who is going to be responsible for building new roads and trails in the park? Who is going to pay for road and trail maintenance? All these questions, came from county board members, and I heard no answers, from W.O.R.V.P.I. representatives, just lots of wishes.

Every single meeting that is being held between W.O.R.V.P.I. and our county board cost us, the taxpayers, money. How? Just one item is, every meeting I have attended has had Forest County's Corporation Council Paul Payant in attendance. I'm not sure why it's necessary for Corporation Council to be in attendance at each of these meetings, and I don't know what he is billing the County for travel time, or time spent in each of these meetings, but I'm guessing its easily in the thousands of dollars. All, to beat a dead horse.

It's really time to stop beating this "Dead Horse."

Lets again ask our Forest County Board Members to place a referendum question on the spring ballot. I believe the question could be as simple as "Should Forest County Government be involved in development of a publicly owned Motorized Recreation Area or Off - Road Vehicle Park" with a Yes or No answer. Let's give the Forest County Taxpayer a say in this issue!

I personally have been told by county board members, who last voted to keep this issue off the ballot last fall, that they would now vote to place the issue on a referendum ballot for the people of Forest County to decide. But it's going to be up to you to contact your county board member, and ask for this to happen. I believe it has to be soon, if it's going to be in time for the Spring Elections.

Which brings me to the idiom "If wishes were horses, beggars would ride". What is W.O.R.V.P.I. looking for? You the County Taxpayer, to provide them with a 10,000 acre playground to operate their off - road vehicles, that now have no where else to go. All their bringing to the table, in my opinion, is lots of wishes, and no capital. So, I'm changing it to "If wishes were an off - road vehicle park, W.O.R.V.P.I. would ride!

As always, these are my opinions, and my opinions only, but at least, I'll sign my correct name.

Jim Odekirk, Cavour

Animal Resource Fund

By Cory Campbell

I don't usually submit an article right after our year-end Christmas Letter, but felt we should let everyone know how great our Christmas Bazaar held at the Nashville Town Hall turned out. We had many vendors with a great variety of gifts, crafts, and goodies for sale. Our A.R.F. tables were loaded with both gifts and Christmas décor.

The weather was definitely in our favor, and we enjoyed customers from opening till closing, with the animals in need coming out the winners when the money was counted at the end of the day.

All the vendors put together three baskets of great gifts. Names could be placed in the drawing with a donation to A.R.F. At the end of the regular Market Day on Wednesday, Dec. 10, winners of those baskets were drawn, and the happy three were Pat Gallagher, Glenda Conn, and Charlie Polar. Donations from this fund raiser certainly helped, and we at A.R.F. appreciate the vendors "adopting" our organization.

A.R.F. Board member Judy Zimmermann held another sale for the animals at her winter home in Milwaukee, which netted us another thousand dollars to add to our winter working revenue. We try never to miss an opportunity for work to make a few more bucks to keep things afloat. Judy also collects items there to bring to our big spring sale here each year.

We have a family of a mama cat and her five youngsters in foster care that will be ready for permanent homes within the next couple of months. As soon as the kittens are vetted, we'll be advertising them for adoption. This feline family was found a few months ago in a church window well right before one of the big torrential rains we experienced. Since the kittens were just newborns, they would certainly have perished, had they not been discovered by some caring individuals and brought to safety with us. A.R.F. knows no "township" boundaries. A needy animal knows not what municipality he has wound up in—all he knows is that he needs help, and A.R.F. will be there to provide it, as long as we have the revenue to do so. We are thankful for any kindness to animals, whether it be a rescue as the one above, financial assistance, adopting from shelters or rescues, or taking in a stray on your own, and we know God will bless you for your good works.

Jamison Fricke, Wabeno Student of the Week: December 15th

Jamison Fricke, son of Joe and Val Fricke of Lakewood, was chosen as student of the week for the week of December 15th. After graduation, Jamison is interested in moving to West Virginia by his sister, getting a job and eventually enlisting in the military. He looks up to those in the military, especially his brother.

Last year Jamison started Operation Bold Move at Wabeno Jr/Sr High School. He created posters in his computer applications class and hung them around the school to promote "help someone everyday." Jamison saw an opportunity to make our school and community a better place. He wrote "Be Amazing to Each Other! If someone you know needs help and you don't have the qualifications to do so let someone else know, maybe they can help." The mission duration stated, "Your ENTIRE life" and the mission reasoning read, "It is our duty as the human species to restore faith in humanity and not be afraid to show we care about another."

Jamison has made a huge impact on many people with Operation Bold Move. Many people have credited Operation Bold Move as the reason they went out of their way to help someone whether it was at school or somewhere like the grocery store. Thank you, Jamison, for striving to fill our community with helping hands. You have certainly made a positive impact on our school and community.

Christmas Tree Safety Tips

- Choose a Christmas tree with fresh, green needles.
- If you have an artificial tree, make sure that it is labeled as fire-retardant.
- Make sure the tree is at least three feet away from heat sources such as fireplaces or radiators.
- Only use lights that are labeled with the certification of an independent testing laboratory.
- Always turn off Christmas lights before leaving home or going to bed.

Food Safe Holiday Parties

It's that time of year again! It's time to loosen up our belts and throw dietary caution to the wind! But let us not throw food safety to the wind.

'Tis the season for holiday parties, potlucks and smorgasbords. And 'tis the season for time and temperature abuse, cross-contamination and food-borne illness! As we gather together for holiday cheer, we put our food and one another at risk for food-borne illness. Follow these easy tips to ensure your holiday foods are safe for everyone to enjoy!

Certainly one of the most important things you can do to keep your holiday food safe is to ensure it is cooked to a proper internal temperature. Use a thermometer to check temps before serving.

Make sure you wash your hands, food prep area, equipment and utensils frequently.

Potentially hazardous foods -- cooked meats, gravies, cooked starches and cooked fruits and vegetables are all at risk of being time and temperature abused. Potentially hazardous foods that sit out without a heat or cooling source need to be eaten within a couple hours or they need to be tossed.

Use crock pots, electric skillet or chafing dishes to keep food hot, or keep it in the oven until you need it.

Keep cold food on ice.

And watch the clock.

Don't let food sit on the table for hours on end.

To avoid dirty hands in the food, keep your serving tables well stocked with utensils like spoons and tongs.

Have fun but be safe.

Did you know?

Any dessert made with dairy (eggnog, cheesecake, cream pies, real whipped topping, etc.) need to remain cold at 41 degrees Fahrenheit.

Turkeys can be kept safe indefinitely if kept frozen in the freezer, but use within a year for the best quality.

The amount of moisture, protein and starch a food has determines how much bacteria will like it.

Never eat raw cookie dough or lick the beaters after mixing a batter made with raw eggs. Raw eggs can contain salmonella and make you very ill.

Happy birthday & Merry Christmas Dad...
If we could have one Christmas wish, one dream that would come true, We would pray to God, with all our hearts just to see and speak with you. A thousand words won't bring you back. We know because we've tried. And neither will a million tears. We know because we've cried. You've left behind our broken hearts and precious memories too, but we never wanted memories Dad. We only wanted you.
We love and miss you every day!
Love Anne & Mom

I wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Christmas Morning Comes Too Soon

Christmas morning comes too soon
Anticipation's best.
The sugar-shivers of the Eve
Were wealthiest.

The pine-rise and the shining eyes,
The bounces and applause
Mixed in mosaic with gifts and cake,
Tinsels, berry sauce,

Wrappings silver, golden, red,
And ginger-cooky things.
Anticipation's best:
next, the Rememberings.

See all the Christmas cheer in the Forest County Courthouse

The door to the Forest County Clerk's Office By Boyd Monte

If you have had to visit the Forest County Courthouse in the month of December, I hope that you have been able to take a look at all of the doors to the offices. Each office has decorated their door in a friendly competition for a pizza party.

Members of the Forest County Chamber came to judge the art. They ruled that these are the top five winners: Forest County Clerk's Office took first place, Child Support came in second, Clerk of Court took third, the District Attorney's office came in fourth and the Zoning Office placed fifth.

The Forest County Clerk's Office have generously given the pizza party to the second place finisher, the Child Support Office, although they are keeping the bragging rights!

The District Attorney has his "cell" nicely decorated

Rudolph sure does have a bright nose!
