Forest County Board of Supervisors hold February meeting

By Boyd Monte

The Forest County Board of Supervisors met Tuesday, February 17, at the Forest County Courthouse. The meeting was started with a report from Chairman Paul Millan. Chairman Millan reported on the proposed budget of Governor Scott Walker. He mentioned the possible freezing of the stewardship funding and how it would slow the growth of our county forest, but he did say that nothing is final yet. The joint finance committee and the parties in the state legislature still need to look over the proposed budget and have discussions.

Josh Jameson, Executive Director of the Forest County Economic Development, gave an update on the work in his office. He is finishing the technology grant for the Town of Wabeno. He is investigating sewer and water for Armstrong Creek. Josh said that he is looking into funding for courthouse security, fixing current buildings and putting broadband receivers on DNR towers. Blackwell just received a grant for broadband receivers. He is working with the Forest County Sheriffs office and starting the revolving loan fund. The Workforce Development Center is having an open house next week.

There were six resolutions on the agenda; approve The Emergency Fire Warden's List, approve the Forestry Department Annual Work Plan, authorize Forest County to participate in the County Forest Administrator Program for 2015, authorize request to DNR to provide the 2015 payment per Sec. 28.11(8)(b)1 for $.50 per acre of County Forest lands, approve purchase of BCPL Block, approve Amendments to 15 year Comprehensive Land Use Plan and approve implementation of the Good Neighbor Authority Program. All the resolutions passed 16-0 with six supervisors absent.

First Workforce Development Center Open House

The Forest County Economic Development Partnership has announced the formation of the Forest County Workforce Development Center. The Center will be located in the Forest County Visitor Center. The center will be accepting clients starting February 25th. The first Open House will be on Tuesday, February 24th, from 2:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m.

Sokaogon Chippewa distribute funds to Forest County

The Sokaogon Chippewa Community distributed funds at a recent meeting held at the Mole Lake Hotel and Conference Center. Under the terms of the gaming compact between the Tribe and the State of Wisconsin, the Tribe paid $19,000 to Forest County for the following organizations: Forest County Fairgrounds-$2,000, Forest County ATV Association-$5,000, Forest County Association of Lakes-$3,000, Lake Advancement Association-$3,000, Lake Metonga Association-$3,000, and Pickerel/Crane Lake Protection and Rehabilitation District-$3,000.

These Forest County Organizations are extremely appreciative of the funds which will help to maintain healthy lakes and enhance recreation in the county.

Will the last person leaving Forest County please turn out the lights!

By Mike Monte

Last week we received the third mailing concerning the proposed off-road vehicle park that Forest County Tourism put in everyone's mailbox. It was absolutely shocking to find out that Forest County is not one of the most prosperous counties in the state. I'm sure none of us were aware of that.

We were told in no uncertain terms that Forest County is declining, as the headline on the card said. But, there are many statistics available these days on the internet, and not all of the stats for Forest County and the surrounding counties were printed on this card.

In case you threw your mailing away, it stated that Vilas County had tourism expenditures of $203.24 million and that Oneida County's number was $196.96 million. Forest County was rated number 68 in the state on tourism expenditure with a paltry $11.77 million in tourism expenditures.

Is this a fair comparison? I think not. All it takes is a glance at a map of Wisconsin and you will see that Vilas County has a string of 26 lakes, and some of these lakes are also in Oneida County. Minocqua is also in Oneida County, and is water rich, which also means that they are tourist rich. Water and the shoreline that goes around every lake is a draw that Forest County can never have.

This being said, how does Forest County stack up on other statistics?

Checking the internet on the Department of Workforce Development, I found that Forest County had a non-seasonally adjusted rate of 9.6% for the year 2013, which is the latest data they had on the site. Vilas County had an unemployment rate of 9.8%, and Oneida County had a rate of 8.8%. The question is: Are these statistics significantly different? Another question is: Will an off-road vehicle park, financed by the taxpayers, turn us around with a lower unemployment rate?

While looking over statistics on various internet sites I came to the conclusion that Mark Twain was quite correct when he wrote: "There are lies, damn lies, and statistics." It is quite easy to find any number of statistics to show either how well Forest County is doing in comparison to its neighbors, or how poorly, or where they stack up in the state.

I think the questions that have to be answered in this conflict over whether or not to build a park lies elsewhere.

We are told that an offroad park will bring in $28 million dollars a year in revenue. Where did this number come from? Would WORVPI please explain how they arrived at this number. Who computed the 300 plus jobs the park is supposed to create? Why is only Forest County in decline when the state median income dropped. Why is Forest County in decline when the whole country was put in a decline in 2008, and still is in a decline that we haven't crawled out of yet?

Is an offroad park the panacea that will put us on top of the heap? I think the majority of the residents of this county have little, if any, faith in this project. There are various reasons for the scepticism.

When talking to people around the county, almost all are against the county spending money on a tourism attraction that leaves the county taxpayers with any kind of increase in taxes should it fail. While we have been told by some supporters that it won't cost Forest County residents anything at all, I think of all the meeting costs that have piled up since this idea began. That money comes from the pockets of Forest County residents. There are others who don't want the woods cut up by ruts or the noise that goes with internal combustion engines, and would like nature left alone. Still others don't believe that an offroad park will co-exist with the hunting and fishing. Many don't believe, as do I, that there is a big enough pool of customers to make such a large venture pay off, and I also agree with all of the other reasons.

That being said, it is perfectly alright to be for or against the park. Everyone is entitled to their own opinion, and even those who are on different sides of this issue usually agree on other matters.

I do find the Forest County bashing to be very annoying. People who live in this county are very well aware of the fact that this is not an area with a rip-roaring economy, and they are willing to give up the frenetic pace of city life for the positive qualities that exist here and in other northern counties. It is, I think, a compromise between a bustling economy and a lifestyle that is preferred by most residents, even though the author of this mailing doesn't seem to agree with that concept.

I also take exception to the idea that any growth in this or any other northern county is always related to the tourism industry. There is nothing wrong with having a healthy tourism business in the area, and this publication profits from that as well, but it is not the only direction we should look for economic growth. We already have some manufacturing in Forest County, and we might have more if we tried. That manufacturing we now have includes CPF Metal Fabricating, Snow River wood products, Hometown Trolley, Infinity Flooring, and Rosa Trailer, all in Crandon. Laona has Nicolet Hardwoods and two WD Flooring plants. Wabeno has Forest Sawmill. And in Newald, the world famous Cleereman Carriages have been manufactured since the 1950's. Cavour also has a thriving sawmill. And, I have probably missed a few. We shouldn't forget that there are numerous people who make a good living in the logging industry. We are hardly without enterprising people!

A logging activist from Libby, Montana, who I have heard speak twice and have interviewed for a magazine article says it best when he speaks of the tourism industry in Libby, which probably also applies to us as well: "Tourism is the frosting, but it isn't the cake."

I would also like to add that Wisconsin's median income (those damn statistics again) is 9.43% lower than it was in 2007, according to a survey by Google. There is still that recession to work our way out of, not just here, but statewide. We shouldn't be complacent about economic growth in Forest County, but we shouldn't just try to pull off a questionable enterprise paid for by the citizenry. I think we can do better, and I for one have no regrets about living most of my life in Forest County and the greater Northwoods of Wisconsin.

Addendum: Forestry in Forest County
 After the above article was written, I was told of a DNR survey of Wisconsin's forest product industry county by county. It is an interesting summary of what we already have and probably take for granted. With the addition of National Forest timber sales, these numbers could be improved upon. This data is from 2012.

Forest County is 87% forested with total forest land of 583,019 acres, of which 367,291 acres is public land and 215,727 acres private lands.

Forestry and logging produces 254 jobs with a total output of $18.4 million and a value added of $4.4 million.

Sawmill and wood products produce 180 jobs with an output of $20 million and a value added of $5.3 million.

The total of logging, sawmilling and wood products is 434 jobs with a total output of $38.4 million. The payroll for this effort is $5.2 million and 486 jobs are created with indirect employment.

It would seem that with more public timber on the market and more businesses adding value to harvested timber before it leaves the borders of Forest County, we have a chance for more opportunity in this industry.

Abby Fryar winner of Readers for Education at Wabeno Elementary

The Readers for Education campaign finished up this week at Wabeno Elementary. The students took home forms to be filled out and brought back. All the participants' names were put in a drawing for the grand prize at the school, Joe-Bot the Robot. Abby Fryar was the lucky winner of the prize. Congratulations Abby and good job to all the students that participated.

Zoie Cayan is Wabeno Elementary Artist of the Week

Zoie Cayan was selected by Mr. Keller as Wabeno Elementary's artist of the Week for the week starting with Day A, Friday, February 13, 2015. Mr. Keller's assignment for the students was to combine a feeling with the use of lines and other designs to create a mood. He had them use this in corporation with the Science project that they have been working on. Along with the paint on paint, they used markers to bring focus to some of the objects of interest. Zoie's project was on the way the waste from cruise ships affects the ocean and the life in it. She portrays a very dark and dismal picture of the effects that humans have on the environment. Makes you stop to think.

Great Job Zoie! Way to Step It Up combining your learning.

Stepping it Up at Wabeno Elementary

Mrs. Marshall's Sixth Grade Class was chosen as the Class of the Week at Wabeno Elementary for the week starting with Day A, Friday, February 13, 2015. The students have really Stepped It Up with their expectations when they had a substitute and with their bus behaviors. Some of the students have shown some great leadership skills helping with the younger students in other places around the school. Way to Step It Up Sixth Grade! I'm sure Mrs. Marshall is very proud of your behaviors for the substitute and around the school. Congratulations!

Hospice volunteers needed, and training is available

Hospice is about living each day to the fullest. It's about helping individuals dying of terminal illness live each day in a pain-free environment, with dignity and peace. As a hospice volunteer, you can be a part of this incredible journey.

Compassionate volunteers are currently needed throughout the Rhinelander, Tomahawk and Crandon region. Volunteers provide support to hospice patients and their loved ones in their homes, nursing homes, and other residential care facilities. There are also opportunities to get involved in outreach and fundraising for the hospice program, and to assist the professional team with clerical duties.

Ministry Home Care - Hospice Services will provide their free 6-week volunteer training Tuesdays, March 17 - April 21, 9 a.m. - Noon at their office in Rhinelander (1864 N. Stevens Street).

This comprehensive training provides the foundation of knowledge and skill needed to provide support to patients and their families. Ongoing support and training opportunities are provided throughout a volunteer's tenure.

Hospice volunteers are special men and women! While caring for others, you can find new meaning in your own life, gain greater self-knowledge, and experience satisfaction from making a difference in people's lives. As a result, volunteers often become more focused on the parts of life that matter most.

There is no charge, but pre-registration is required by Friday, March 13th. To register, please call Melissa Houg at 800.643.4663.

Make each day count...become a hospice volunteer.

To the Editor:

In regards the "Forest County being in Decline" mailing that went out last week, I feel I have to voice that I am not at all happy about this coming from the Chamber/Tourism office. I know several private home owners who got these, not just chamber members. I haven't heard one positive thing about them yet, even though the person in charge of the Chamber/Tourism states that she is very happy with the positive feedback they have received on these. They are also surprised and not sure why I am upset.

The people I talked to, are outraged by this, as they should be. I am beside myself that a County Chamber/Tourism office feels there is nothing wrong with the contents of this mailing. Our local Chamber/Tourism office is supposed to promote the businesses, keep the public upbeat, and work on bringing new businesses and tax payers here. How can they think it is ok to advertise what a "Depressed area it is", "Businesses are being crushed", and "The Affairs of Forest County are not a pretty picture"?

I don't see any depression with all the homes we have been selling. Our office alone sold $3,788,580 worth of real estate in Forest County in 2014. I sit in my office and observe the downtown just bustling year around. Seriously, I can't believe they think this was a good thing to do. I know I am not, as I have been told by the Chamber office "The only one who feels this way".

And by the way I am all for the Off Road Park. I was one of the first people to become a charter member. But you can't expect to get what you want by bringing the area down. Of course it would be good for business but we certainly are not going to curl up and die here in Forest County if it doesn't get built, as the Chamber/Tourism mailing suggested we are going to do.

Forest County Historical Society meeting February 26th

The next Forest County Historical and Genealogical Society meeting will be February 26, 2015 at 7:00 p.m. at the Crandon Public Library. Anyone interested in local history is encouraged to attend because we will be working on suggestions for programs for the coming year.

A suggestion has been made to revive the "show and tell" time at each meeting that was so enjoyable in the past. This involves a member bringing items that represent their interests, a collection to show or an item from the museum collection. This always sparked interest in members and visitors alike. It is an activity that makes our local history come to life.

Please join us February 26 at 7:00 p.m. at the Crandon Public Library.

2015 WPS Farm Show set for March 24, 25, 26 at Oshkosh

Green Bay, WI - The 55th annual Wisconsin Public Service (WPS) Farm Show is set for the EAA Grounds in Oshkosh on March 24, 25, and 26. The annual show attracts about 20,000 visitors to the three day agricultural expo that features demonstrations of the latest farm technologies and equipment and boasts a wide range of agricultural services. "We expect nearly 500 exhibitors from all over the US and Canada demonstrating about $30 million worth of equipment and machinery in about 430,000 sq. ft. of exhibits," said Rob Juneau who manages the show for WPS.

"It's an awesome display of the latest ag technologies. The goal is to have active farmers attend and see what's new in an effort to provide solutions to help them improve their overall operations, whether big or small," according to Juneau. "Admission is free," added Juneau. There is a $3 fee for parking.

Juneau expects to see farmers and agricultural professionals from all over Wisconsin, the UP, Minnesota, Illinois and even Canada.

Some of the show features include: ventilation systems, lighting, watering equipment, computerized and Internet ag applications, milking and barn equipment, seed, feed and fertilizer, manure handling, livestock, field machinery and parts, tractors and essential farming equipment.

"It's amazing to see how far the industry has come since we've been hosting this show, now in its 55th year," said Juneau. The advancements of technology greatly enhanced the farmer's job to be more efficient and productive. Wireless internet technology allows the ag tech to have instant info at their disposal for record keeping, production, feeding and all aspects of farming, using wireless technology.

WPS Agricultural Consultants will be available for consultation and will be demonstrating a state-of-the-art farm wiring system during the three day event. For more information, access the WPS Farm Show website.

For Old Time's Sake

This old shot of Argonne was pulled from a negative that isn't in good shape. This tavern was in Argonne, and Lloyd was Lloyd McCorkle. The building was located about one lot south of Ed's Main Street Inn, and was adjacent to the Argonne Cash Market, which is now gone. Wadsworth Jock tore down the empty building and converted the lot into a lawn. The building sat empty for years, and was used for play by many of the Argonne kids in the 1950's.

The people in the shot are not known, and if anybody has a clue as to their identity, please let us know.

Wisconsin State Patrol

Law of the Month-February

Vehicles in a ditch along a highway or stuck in a snow bank on the side of a street are a familiar part of Wisconsin's winter landscape. Although drivers try to blame slippery roads for losing control of their vehicles, frequently the truth is they were driving too fast for conditions.

"Driving at the posted speed limit often will be too fast for conditions when there's ice, snow and slick spots on roadways or when visibility is reduced by snow, sleet and fog," says Wisconsin State Patrol Captain Nicholas R. Wanink of the Wausau Post. "The speed limit is set for safe driving on dry pavement with good visibility. You might not be able to stop or control your vehicle at the posted speed limit on a slippery road or during hazardous weather."

Slowing down when driving conditions are treacherous is not just common sense—it's the law. It is illegal to drive at speeds that exceed what is reasonable and prudent under existing road conditions. Drivers are required to adjust their speeds to take into account both the actual and potential hazards due to weather, highway conditions or other traffic.

A violation of this state law costs $213.10 with four demerit points added to the driver's record. A second offense within a 12-month period costs $263.50 with four additional points.

"The slogan 'Snow Means Slow' also applies to four-wheel drive and other heavy-duty vehicles, which can still slide, skid and fish tail while trying to slow down or stop on slippery roads," says Captain Wanink. "If you drive too fast for conditions and slide off the road or crash, you likely will have to pay for an expensive traffic ticket plus towing and vehicle repair bills. It's much cheaper, safer and certainly less frightening to maintain control of your vehicle by slowing down."

Laona students ages 9 through 14 have been participating in the Knights of Columbus Free Throw contest. Pictured are the winners in their age groups.

They will each move on to shoot in the District Level held at Laona High School on Saturday, Feb. 14 at 10 a.m. Winners on the 14th will have an opportunity to advance and shoot at the Regional Level held in Green Bay on Saturday, Feb. 21.

Laona has had great representation in the past few years, with two State Qualifiers (Elizabeth Krawze and Libby Tinsman) attempting to repeat. Congrats and good luck to all those participating.

Natural Resources Board to consider deer rules, population objectives at February 25 meeting

MADISON -- Proposed rules related to deer management, hunting, and implementation of the 2012 White-tailed Deer Trustee's Report and white-tailed deer population objectives for Wisconsin deer management units are among the issues the state Natural Resources Board will take up at its February 25 meeting in Madison. The meeting will begin at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday, February 25, in Room G09, State Natural Resources Building (GEF 2), 101 South Webster St., Madison.

The board will also consider:
 proposed revisions to administrative rules intended to provide consistency and standardization of eligibility and reimbursement standards for the state, counties, and municipalities for their assistance with Department of Natural Resources law enforcement programs, such as all-terrain vehicle, snowmobile and boating.
 a request for the state parks program to undertake a master plan amendment process at Rib Mountain State Park for the purpose of expanding the Granite Peak Ski Area;
 a request for public hearings for emergency and permanent rules related to the DNRs environmental analysis and review program;
 making adjustments to laboratory certification and registration program fees.

The board will also hear updates on the history of the Natural Resources Board and the proposed 2015-17 DNR budget.

The complete February board agenda is available by searching the DNR website, dnr.wi.gov for keyword "NRB" and clicking on the button for "view agendas."

The public may testify at board meetings on topics open for public comment (listed on the agenda) and during the citizen participation period. The deadline to register to speak at the board meeting or to submit comments is 11 a.m. on Friday, February 20, 2015. The public may also submit written comments about issues that come before the board. For more information see the board public participation page of the DNR website.

Board meetings are webcast live. People can watch the meeting over the Internet by going to the NRB page of the DNR website and clicking on "NRB webcasts" link under the "Meeting materials" tab. Then click on this month's meeting. After each meeting, the webcast will be permanently available on demand.

Summer classes at Nicolet College
 A great way to advance your college education

Enrollment is now open for the more than 50 credit classes Nicolet College will offer in the upcoming Summer Semester. "Taking college classes in summer has many advantages," said Kenneth Urban, interim president at Nicolet. "Students can shorten their time to graduation, lighten class loads in future semesters, or even begin their college careers."

This summer Nicolet will offer classes in numerous academic areas. These include University Transfer, Accounting, Art, Computer Software, Cosmetology, Culinary Arts, Early Childhood Education, Graphic Design, Manufacturing, and Health Occupations. Summer Semester will start Friday, June 5.

Classes are also offered in various formats. Some will be held in the traditional lecture and lab setting; others in the hybrid format, which blends face-to-face and online learning; and many can be completed entirely online from any location.

"This gives students a great deal of flexibility to earn a college credential," Urban explained. "It's all about giving students options so they can pick the classes that best fit their needs and summer plans."

Urban also noted that all credits earned in University Transfer classes and many from other Nicolet programs transfer to numerous four-year colleges and universities, including every campus in the University of Wisconsin System.

"Every year we have students from other colleges who are home for the summer take classes at Nicolet and then transfer these credits to the campus they'll attend in Fall Semester," Urban said.

An added benefit is that tuition for Nicolet credits is typically significantly less than at four-year campuses and the credits count exactly the same towards a bachelor's degree, he noted.

To view Nicolet's Summer Semester class schedule, visit nicoletcollege.edu and click on the Course Schedules link at the bottom of the page.

Smoking: Quitters Win

People often say quitting smoking was the hardest thing they ever did. Learning to live tobacco free is a remarkable achievement.

The primary reason people stop smoking is to improve their health. It's a good reason, considering about half of cigarette smokers who don't quit die from a smoking-related disease.

Other forms of tobacco use are also risky. Smokeless tobacco contains carcinogens and nicotine; using an average-size dip for 30 minutes releases as much nicotine as smoking three cigarettes. Smoking cigars? Heavy or regular use and inhaling deeply raise the risk for various cancers, heart disease and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. Regular hookah smoking is equivalent to heavy smoking.

If you're concerned about the challenges of quitting, consider the benefits:

- Withdrawal typically lasts for just one to three weeks, and you can manage it.
- Quitting is a challenge for sure. Stay focused on your future, and take it one day at a time.
- Cravings last only a few minutes, and over time the urges get weaker and come less often.
- Every day you spend without tobacco builds new routines that keep you stronger and feeling free.

Nicotine addiction is a chronic disease. That's why it helps to meet with your health care provider when preparing to quit. You can discuss the best ways to cope with nicotine withdrawal based on your health and any prior quit attempts.

and educational institutions, to prosper and grow. The Forest County economy thrives when people living here have the education and skills that allow our target industries to grow and prosper. An individual's quality of life is directly linked to their ability to earn a good living.

A critical focus of Workforce Development is helping create a workforce that can be successful today and in the future. This happens when educational partners work together to ensure that effective educational and training programs are in place that efficiently provides training opportunities to individuals and businesses throughout the county.

Industry
 Workforce Development is working directly with target industries to ensure that when they are ready to expand or relocate to the area, there is a high quality, qualified, and available workforce to fill the new jobs. Businesses of all sizes benefit when the workforce is trained and ready.

Economic Development
 Workforce Development is the right hand of economic development because it ensures Forest County has a globally competitive workforce that encourages business growth or relocation. Successfully retaining or recruiting businesses is vital to the region economy. Workforce Development's role in this process is in anticipating and delivering the types of education and training that will be needed now and in the future to meet demands from our target industries.

Whether you want help finding a job, gaining additional skills, or starting a business we can help you. We can assist people with their employment, education, or small-business management needs. Regardless of whether you are just starting out in your career or are a seasoned professional, we will help to find information and resources to meet your needs. You will be asked about your skills, abilities, and needs. You will be assisted in creating a simple plan to help you reach your immediate career goals. You will also be provided with information and resources that may address many of your needs, including job leads, effective job search techniques, résumé or curriculum vitae writing, networking opportunities, school programs, financial aid, or information about small-business management. You will have the chance to participate in workshops and meetings that are hosted by the center. These include networking meetings and other scheduled events such as career fairs.

We can help local businesses find qualified employees to meet the needs of your business. Just let us know what positions you have open and we will help find those workers.

The goal is to also partnership with the libraries throughout the county to insure all residents are able to get job and career information. Staff will be making appointments in other areas of the county to help those that are not able to get to the Workforce Development Center in Crandon.

Library Display Case features a collection of Dragonflies

This month's display case features a collection from Barbara Bolz of Argonne. The display highlights Barbara's love of dragonflies and their life from nymph to mature dragonfly. The transformation of a grub into a dragonfly with beautiful wings is evident in her collection of dragonflies. The collection contains many articles such as lapel pins bejeweled with abalone and beads, a plaque laden with glass-tiled dragonfly wings, and many more ceramic, metal, and glass items with the dragonfly theme. Please take the time to stop in and view this lovely collection. We thank Barbara for sharing her collection with her community.

Helmets For Kids

The Wabeno Lions Club partnered with the Potawatomi Carter Casino and held a 9-Pin Tap bowling tournament at Rusty's Wabeno Bowl in 2014 to raise money to provide "Helmets for Kids," a program in which Forest County residents or visitors who pass their Snowmobile Safety or ATV Safety courses will be provided a helmet from funds raised in the bowling event.

In June, 18 students received their ATV Safety certificates and received their helmets. This past weekend, 20 students passed their Snowmobile Safety Course, many with perfect 100% scores, and received their certificate for a helmet from Wabeno Lions Barb and

Gregg Tallier. Most of those kids are pictured here with Lion Tallier, FCSD Officers Sam Wurtinger and Don Belland, and DNR Warden Brad Dalquist.

A reminder to these students that they have 30 days to redeem their helmet certificate at Smith Sport and Hobby in Crandon. On behalf of the Wabeno Lions Club and Potawatomi Carter Casino, congratulations and "safe riding", students, and our appreciation to Officers Wurtinger, Belland and Dalquist, and to Rusty's Wabeno Bowl and Smith Sport and Hobby.

A special visitor to the kids at Wabeno Elementary

One of Wabeno Elementary's former students paid us a very special visit on February 4, 2015. Mr. Donald Keeble was part of Wabeno High School's graduating class of 2001.

He has taken it upon himself to educate people on the various aspects of the Potawatomi Culture. He brought his dance regalia along with other items that he explained about. He put on his regalia and explained the steps of the dances to the students.

We at Wabeno Elementary are very happy that Mr. Keeble came to our school. We are also very proud that he, as one of our former students, is doing this presentation to different groups and schools to educate them on the Potawatomi Culture. Way to Step It Up, Donald!

Making glass at Laona High

Laona Physical Science students recently experimented with Saturated solutions by making Sugar glass. Sugar glass is what you see in movies when an actor is hit over the head with a bottle or jumps through a window. They were able to see how saturated solutions are made and while they were at it, created some unique stained glass art that will be hung in Mr. Kircher's classroom, if it doesn't get eaten first!

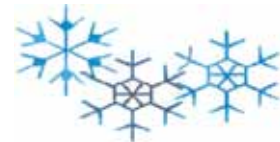

Wabeno Elementary Artist of the Week is Logan Higgins
