Comments on the long-eared bat and the effects on the logging industry by Dick Krawze

As I was driving to my office this morning, I thought about some of the problems facing this Great Forest Products Industry. I could not help but think about the number of battles that a lot of us have fought over the years, and especially with those issues where we need to work with congressman, senators and agencies at the federal level.

Environmental battles that should never have reached the degree of destruction that the final decisions leveled on this nation. In most cases, these decisions were made based on ignorance of the facts and facts that were wrong and spoon-fed to decision makers and Congress by those who were after personal or financial gain for their respective group.

This brings up the current issue of the northern long-eared bat, and on a somewhat smaller scale, the wood turtle. Both of these species are being used, and will continue to be used, by some of the same environmental groups to again tap into the federal funds they have been so successful at acquiring in the past. It is my firm belief that the Endangered Species Act and National Environmental Policy Act were never intended to be used by these economic terrorists for the financial gain they have prospered by for their lawyers and their own pockets.

We are all aware of the spotted owl, the red and gray wolf and numerous other ESA issues that have cost billions to the taxpayers of this nation and also have and continue to destroy families, businesses, schools, and in some cases, entire counties with severe impact on states as well.

The environmental groups have used several means to get their claws on taxpayer dollars, and in most cases, trying to track the amount they and their lawyers have received has been an effort in futility.

In any case, by use of the Judgement Fund and the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), and coupling this with a feathered or furry animal, bird, or in this most recent assault, a bat and a turtle, they will again satisfy the financial needs of their lawyers and group bank accounts.

I believe that these various groups have no interest in the well-being of a specie or species, but only their financial greed.

I also believe that the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) is, and has been, a participant in the flawed process and has no or very little interest in the economic impact their decisions have placed on this nation.

My experience has also shown that it is impossible to try and work with these groups and any so-called compromise is another step backwards and leaves more boot marks on our backs.

In conclusion, it is my belief that the forest industry by its associations and in joint effort by other affected stakeholders educates our decision makers based on fact, and not the desire to fill the coffers of the respective environmental groups and their lawyers.

Now that the northern long-eared bat has been listed as threatened, and this will take interim effect May 4, 2015, we can add another nail in the coffin of the industry, communities, schools, and the forests themselves.

The forest products industry has no negative impact on the bat, and the fact that we could be severely punished for something we have not caused is very troublesome and should be of great concern to everyone.

Wabeno receives Elwyn Remington Foundation Grant for Boardwalk Project

The Town of Wabeno, in collaboration with the Friends of Wabeno, was recently awarded an Elwyn Remington grant of $10,500 for Phase 2 of the Barrier Free Boardwalk and Trail Project. Elwyn "Al" Remington owned and operated Remington Motors dealership and the Birnamwood Oil Company in Antigo. He was successful in many business endeavors and his gratitude to his community was never ending. He established the Elwyn Remington Foundation to give back to his community by providing grants to make public improvements, promote public safety, and foster educational support for people and organizations in the greater Antigo area. Phase 2 of the Boardwalk project will begin in July, 2015. The Town of Wabeno is very appreciative of the support provided by the Remington Foundation.

To learn more, come to the Friends of Wabeno meeting on April 22nd at 7:00 p.m. in Town Hall.

Luscious Locks Hair Salon now open in Crandon

After working at Fantastic Sam's for the last eight years, Lori Lockridge decided to open her own shop in Crandon. Thus, Luscious Locks Hair Salon, 106 South Lake Avenue, was born.

The shop is decorated in bright, joyful colors, giving the salon a happy, cheerful vibe. Lori is offering the usual services of hair cutting, styling, coloring, shampooing and more, for men, women and children. There is also a tanning bed available.

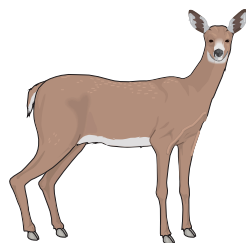

Lori likes to make people look and feel great at a reasonable price. She is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm. On Saturday the hours are 9:00 am until noon. You can reach Lori for an appointment at 715-784-0214. Walk-ins are welcome.

Coming soon to her business will be a children's themed salon. She believes that giving children their own space will make them more comfortable.

The Pioneer Express wishes you good luck with your business venture.

Public has one more chance to comment on Antlerless Deer Harvest Quota

The public has one more opportunity to provide comments on the antlerless deer harvest quota recommendation for Forest County.

The local County Deer Advisory Council will hold its final spring meeting on April 22 at 7:00 p.m. at the Forest County Board Room. At this meeting, the council will hear additional public comments prior to developing final quota and permit recommendations.

The council's preliminary recommendation, formed during its March meeting, suggested a quota of zero deer on private land and zero deer on public land. Councils considered scientific data and public opinion when developing their preliminary quota recommendations.

To develop its final recommendation, the council will consider online input and other public comments along with professional assessments from Department of Natural Resources wildlife biologists, foresters and law enforcement. The public may also comment at any time before April 27 by contacting CDAC chair Alan Harrison at (PHONE 715-473-3921) or by emailing.

Forest County's final quota and permit level recommendations will be presented to the DNR following the April meeting, and will then advance to the Natural Resources Board for approval in May. Once approved, the antlerless quota will take effect for the 2015 deer hunting season.

Additional information pertaining to CDAC quota recommendations, agendas and membership is available at <http://dnr.wi.gov/topic/hunt/cdac.html> or email DNRCDACWebMail@wisconsin.gov with any questions.

Pioneer Express starts 30th year with this issue

We start the 30th year of the Pioneer with this issue. The paper was started by Phil Orlenko, who also managed the nursing home in Crandon.

Mike and Linda Monte bought the paper in November of 1987 and put out the issue of November 9th with great effort by us and the staff. We appreciate the support of the advertisers and the communities we serve!

Outside the Box Fitness to hold two-day Grand Opening April 24 & 25

Outside the Box Fitness is a recent addition to the Crandon business community. The facility is located on Forest Avenue, next to the car wash. After opening earlier in the year, Out of the Box has been steadily building a clientele of people who want to stay in good physical condition.

The facility is a place where you can lift weights, use cardio equipment, and take classes. The classes include: martial arts, Zumba dance, boot camp, and soon to be, senior circuit.

The Grand Opening is planned for April 24 and 25. Please turn to the ad for a full schedule of events for the two days on page 2.

Forest County Historical Society starts the new season

With the arrival of spring, the Forest County Historical & Genealogical Society is making plans for new exhibits and displays at the museum. Because of the painting skills of Linnea Doreau and Sandy Plummer, the living room and dining room now have new paint on walls and ceilings and are waiting for "new" old stuff. New displays and work schedules will be the main topic at the April 23 meeting at 7 p.m. at the Crandon Public Library.

The Society is looking for new ideas and items to make museum visits a rewarding experience for young and old alike.

Everyone who has ideas or an interest in museum work is invited to attend the April 23 meeting. Museum hours for the summer will be set depending on the number of guides available. If you enjoy history and want to learn more about our community now is the time to join us.

Senior Citizen Appreciation Dinner offered April 24

The Wabeno Lions Club is offering an evening of food and socialization for area seniors. They will be holding a Senior Citizen Appreciation Dinner on Friday, April 24 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. at the Madonna Hall in Wabeno.

A fish fry with all the trimmings will be offered free of charge to all senior citizens (55 years and older) from the Carter, Wabeno, Freedom and Blackwell areas. A $5 donation is asked for those under 55 years of age.

A collection to view at the Crandon Library

Richard D. Ackley, Jr. is sharing his assortment of memorabilia with us this month. Richard has the shelves of the display case filled with books, toys, collectibles, cameras, games and magazine clippings. You may see something you used 30, 40, or even 50 years ago. Peek in the case as you pass by on your way to select a book, or to use a computer and see what you may remember from the past.

Medicare coverage of new colon cancer screening tool

Colon cancer, also known as colorectal cancer, is the third most common cancer in the world and second leading cause of cancer-related deaths in the United States. Like most forms of cancer, early detection is correlated with a greater chance of survival. The customary testing mechanism for colon cancer is a colonoscopy. A colonoscopy must be performed at a doctor's office and involves bowel prep of 1-2 days before the procedure is performed. However, now an alternative method is on the market for screening colorectal cancer.

What is Cologuard?

Cologuard is a home test that is able to detect the presence of colorectal cancer. It was approved by the Food and Drug Administration in August 2014. It uses DNA technology to look for abnormalities in a stool sample. Cancerous or precancerous cells present in the colon will be picked up by the stool as it passes through the colon.

Once Cologuard is prescribed by a physician, a collection kit is shipped directly to the patient who then collects a stool sample and sends it to the lab in the mailer provided in the kit. Patients are informed by their doctors of the results in approximately 2 weeks. If the results are a positive, a patient will have to undergo a colonoscopy to verify the results.

In a study of 10,000 people of average risk for colon cancer, Cologuard found 92% of cancer.

Medicare coverage of Cologuard
Medicare Part B will cover use of this test once every three years for beneficiaries who meet the following criteria:

- Age 50 to 85 years old
  - Asymptomatic (no signs or symptoms of colorectal disease including but not limited to lower gastrointestinal pain, blood in stool, positive guaiac fecal occult blood test or fecal immunochemical test)
  - At average risk of developing colorectal cancer (no personal history of adenomatous polyps, colorectal cancer or inflammatory bowel disease including Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis; no family history of colorectal cancers or adenomatous polyps, familial adenomatous polyposis or hereditary nonpolyposis colorectal cancer).
- Conversely, Medicare will not cover use of this test if an individual:
- Has symptoms a doctor thinks may be related to colon cancer.
  - Previously had a positive colonoscopy that found polyps or cancer.
  - Is determined by a doctor to be at high-risk due to a family history of colon cancer.

Cologuard must be ordered by a doctor and cannot be purchased over the counter.

Death Notices

Mary Ann (Wilson) Skrzysowski, age 72, died on April 9, 2015 at her home after a brief struggle with Merkel Cell Carcinoma cancer. Mary was born to the late Floyd Wilson and Alpha (Crum) Wilson on March 19, 1943, in Crandon, Wisconsin.

She attended the Wolf River Grade School and graduated from Crandon High School before attending the Badger Green Bay

Business College. One of her high school summers was spent working at the Dixie Diner in Antigo, which is where she met an Air Force Sergeant Frank J. Skrzysowski, Jr.

On October 20, 1962, Frank and Mary were married and the newlyweds settled into military life in Chanute, Illinois and lastly Duluth, Minnesota. Upon Frank's Air Force retirement in 1977, the family returned to Crandon and built their house one block, one board and one nail at a time. Mary became active in the Ladies VFW Auxiliary and held the position of treasurer for many years. She could also be found on election days at the Crandon Town hall, performing her duties as Chief Election Inspector.

Mary was a phenomenal seamstress from Barbie clothes to boat cushions, drapes to wedding dresses, costumes to quilts, nothing was beyond her talents. She always enjoyed anything outdoors; picnics, parades, camping, canoeing, berry picking, gardening, bird watching, sunsets and nature walks.

Family and friends were Mary's passion and delight. She had a unique gift to recognize and appreciate the talents of others. Mary's love was shown by her bright smile and twinkling blue eyes to those who knew her. Her presence alone made the person feel as if they were the only one in the room.

In addition to her parents, Mary was preceded in death by her brother, Alfred Wilson. Survivors include her husband Frank J. Skrzysowski, Jr., one daughter Lisa (Curtis) Allred, three granddaughters Carly, Kaele and Alanna Allred, all of Crandon. Three sisters, Jeanie (Neil) Schallock of Crandon, Betty (Phil) Walentowski of Brussels, WI and Kathy (James) Crawford of Crandon and one sister-in-law, Debbie (Alfred) Wilson also of Crandon; ten nephews, three nieces, 7 grandnephews and 17 grandnieces. She also leaves behind numerous loving relatives and friends.

Visitation was from 4 to 8 p.m. on Monday, April 13th at the Weber-Hill Funeral Home. Additional visitation was on Tuesday, April 14th from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and funeral services began at 11:30 a.m. with Don Dewing officiating. Burial was at the Town of Crandon Cemetery. Luncheon followed at the Northwoods Recreation Center (NRC) 100 N. Prospect, Crandon, WI.

Donna Mae (Roland) Schramm, age 81, passed away unexpectedly at home from a medical condition on Friday, April 10, 2015. She was born on July 21, 1933, in Manawa, the daughter of Carl and Mary (Delo) Roland and was baptized, confirmed, and married at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at South Dupont. Donna graduated from Little Wolf High School in Manawa and was joined in marriage September 13, 1952, to Lester Schramm. Donna is survived by her beloved husband, Lester, her children, Richard (Barbara) Schramm and Kathleen (Steven) Guttman; grandsons, Evan and Andrew Schramm; sisters-in-law, Irma Prill and Joan Roland, as well as, many nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends especially life-long friends, Jean Costello and Stephanie Maas and their families. She was preceded in death by her parents, sisters, Ruth (Clarence) Bork and Marion (Harlan) Schley, and brother, Charles Roland.

Donna was known for her love for her family. Every challenge she faced was met with her remarkable perseverance and strength. Her talent for baking and cooking delighted the palates of many. Donna also possessed a loving gift to care for children and volunteered her time nurturing children in her church family through work in Sunday School and church preschool. Donna was an administrative assistant at DePaul Hospital in Milwaukee, however, time spent with her family and friends filled her with joy.

Donna worked side-by-side with Les on preserving the clean water of Lake Metonga, in Crandon, WI, while serving the Lake Metonga Association. The shores of Lake Metonga were the magical setting for wonderful times over the years. In the years to come, Lake Metonga will foster warm memories of our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and friend.

A Memorial Visitation was held at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, 4419 South Howell Avenue in Milwaukee, WI, starting at 9:00 am, on Tuesday, April 14, 2015, with a Lutheran Funeral Service at 11:00 a.m. This service was followed by a light luncheon. ## Letters to the Editor

We welcome letter to the Editor; however the letters should be legible, in good taste, not libelous and pertinent to current issues. Names will not be withheld upon request, except for very special circumstances. NAME AND PHONE NUMBER SHOULD BE INCLUDED FOR VERIFICATION PURPOSES. We reserve the right to reject any and all letters.

To the People of Forest County:

The Pioneer Express of April 13 included a letter from a Mr. Jason Headson who argued for termination of efforts by Forest County elected officials to foist unto the Public the building of a 10,000-acre park for off-roaders. He said that there were a number of officials who were acting in a conflict of interest and that the public interest was being "trumped" by those conflicting interests. And, he called for others to join him, speak out and become active.

Mr. Headson is right. The Forest County Public has tolerated the threat of having to support this ill conceived and unpopular plan for long enough. I will join him and would expect others to do the same. Together, I believe that we can take two important steps to protect our way of life in this County and to restore trust in our County Government.

First, we should address the issue of whether a conflict of interest exists for any of our elected officials who have been acting with regard to this proposed park development. The general perception is that some of our officials do have conflicts. Citizen belief or acceptance that their elected officials may have a conflict of interest is very destructive of public trust in government. In fact, it is a crime for an elected official to act on an issue with regard to which he or she has a conflict of interest. We have a system of laws to address criminal conduct. So, it is necessary for purposes of public trust that that matter be resolved one way or another in a process overseen by our Courts. I am willing to lend assistance to see that that process occurs.

Second, while the next scheduled election for county supervisors is still a year away, we are free to petition for a recall election for the position of supervisor in our individual supervisory districts. By doing so, the citizens might exercise their right to replace those supervisors whom they sense have been acting contrary to the will of the People. I would also be willing to provide guidance to those wanting to explore this option in their districts but who need help with the forms and procedures.

There has been something of a lull in activity by the County with regard to this park proposal. Rumor would have it that park proponents have gone on to other counties with their plans and have even found an interested private investor for some part of the costs. I believe that no county will be receptive to the idea of paying for such a park and that without county funding no private investment will materialize. Also, the Forestry Committee of the County Board is pursuing amendments to the County Forestry Plan to accommodate the desires of the promoters. Therefore, we have not yet seen the end of this issue in Forest County. To regain control of our Government, we should all join in on this effort.

Wabeno Student of the Week

Waleli Frank

The Wabeno Jr./Sr. High Student of the Week for April 6-10 is Waleli Frank. Waleli was chosen by her math teacher, Mrs. Palubicki. "Waleli has worked very hard this school year and is developing into a fine young lady. She is a good friend to many and gets along well with others. She is a hard worker and takes her studies seriously. She is a joy to have in the classroom."

Waleli lives in Freedom and is the daughter of Una Ross and Dean Frank. She has two brothers - Bondese and Darren. Her favorite things to do outside of school are to play basketball and hang out with friends. She also enjoys attending and dancing at PowWows with her family and friends. She is looking forward to traveling to Oklahoma and Kansas to visit relatives and friends this summer. She is also looking forward to traveling to Mexico next December for her uncle's wedding.

After high school, Waleli is thinking about joining the military or maybe becoming a lawyer; she's not really sure what she wants to do quite yet. Waleli appreciates Mrs. Palubicki for choosing her for this honor. Congratulations Waleli!

Start the Day Right

How to start your morning can set the tone for your entire day. Greet the day with these strategies.

- Go to bed earlier. A good night's sleep will start your day strong.
- Avoid the snooze button. Get up on time so you won't feel rushed and stressed. If you like time to linger in bed, set your alarm for 20 minutes earlier.
- Reflect. Spend a few minutes reflecting quietly, read or listen to music, or do some stretching.
- Exercise. It quickly raises your energy level and clears your head. Plus, getting your exercise in first thing means you won't put it off later.
- Nourish yourself. Avoid sugary breakfast foods full of empty calories. Eat a nourishing morning meal that includes some protein and whole grains for sustaining energy and blood sugar levels.
- Turn off media. Consider skipping the morning newscast or browsing the headlines, especially if they make you feel worried or stressed. Instead, focus on peaceful, positive ways to prepare for the day ahead.

Senator Tom Tiffany supports Reach Out and Read Program

Rhineland, Wis. (April 8, 2015) – Pediatricians and other clinicians at Ministry Medical Group (MMG) Rhineland pediatric are sending families home from checkups with free books and a very important prescription – “read aloud with your children.” On Monday, April 6, State Sen. Tom Tiffany visited the healthcare facility, not only to cheer them on, but to practice what doctors preach by reading to a group of young patients.

Ministry Medical Group Rhineland pediatric participates in Reach Out and Read, a program that prepares America’s youngest children to succeed in school by partnering with doctors to prescribe books and encourage families to read together. Medical professionals incorporate Reach Out and Read's evidence-based model into regular pediatric checkups, by advising parents about the importance of reading aloud and giving developmentally-appropriate books to children. Through Reach Out and Read, each child starts kindergarten with a home library of up to 10 books. The program begins at the 6-month checkup and continues through age 5, with a special emphasis on children growing up in low-income communities.

Reach Out and Read Wisconsin medical director, Dipesh Navsaria, MPH, MSLIS, MD, emphasizes the importance of books by saying, “walking into a well-child exam without a book for that child is like walking in without my stethoscope.”

The Reach Out and Read model has gained broad bipartisan support in the United States Congress, is endorsed by the American Academy of Pediatrics and the American Academy of Family Physicians, and has one of the strongest records of research support of any psychosocial intervention in primary care pediatrics.

“I support the importance of reading during early childhood development,” said State Sen. Tiffany. “Reading to my three children has been a personal family interest of my wife and mine with the goal of maximizing our children’s potential, appreciation for literature, and contribution to society. I gladly support the opportunity for other children to do the same.”

Antlerless harvest quota and permit level recommendations will be finalized at April County Deer Advisory Council meetings

MADISON - County Deer Advisory Councils are set to prepare final antlerless quota and permit recommendations during the last round of spring meetings from April 20-23, and a public comment period open through April 15 will provide an opportunity to submit feedback.

April CDAC meetings will provide an additional opportunity to provide feedback as councils finalize their recommendations. A meeting schedule and other information can be found at dnr.wi.gov, keyword "CDAC." In addition to attending council meetings, the public can submit comments directly to their county's CDAC chair or via email to DNRCDACWebMail@wisconsin.gov before the review period ends April 27.

Each council will consider online public input form responses and other public comments, along with assessments from Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources biologists, foresters and law enforcement staff as they develop final recommendations.

Following the April meetings, final antlerless quota recommendations will be presented to the department before they are sent to the Natural Resources Board for approval in May. Approved recommendations will be implemented during the 2015 deer hunting seasons.

If you would like to receive email updates and other information regarding deer hunting and season structure in Wisconsin, visit dnr.wi.gov and click on the email icon near the bottom of the page for "subscribe for updates for DNR topics." Follow the prompts and select "white-tailed deer" within the "hunting" list.
