What a difference a year makes! Senator Johnson revisits a clearcut

A year ago, Senator Ron Johnson (R) visited Forest County and discussed timber issues. In the top photo, he looks over a clearcut area on a recent Forest County timber sale. He was joined by (from L to R) Dick Krawze, Jane Sievert (WI County Forest Association), County Forester Dave Ziolkowski, with the Senator to far

Before listening to constituent concerns at the Hotel Crandon on Saturday afternoon, the same four people posed for a photo in the same spot. In a year's time, the aspen had grown four to seven feet tall.

In another year, the aspen will ruin the view of the adjoining hills, which is a good thing! This is a perfect example of how forests can be utilized for the needs of a society, and how a clearcut can be a good thing in the right timber type. By the way, grouse, deer and a whole host of songbirds like new, emerging forests as well.

Crandon International releases packed schedule for 46th Labor Day Off-Road World Championship® Weekend

In preparation for hosting the oldest and most prestigious stadium-style off-road races in the world, Crandon International Raceway today released its official action-packed Labor Day weekend schedule.

Representing what many call the sport's "Indianapolis 500," for tens of thousands of fun-loving race fans the end-of-summer trek to the Wisconsin Northwoods is a "can't miss" tradition. For 2015, guests to the 400-acre "Big House" can look forward to a jam-packed, three-day schedule of great racing, rich tradition and on-site entertainment that make up the unforgettable "Crandon Experience."

Crandon's custom wrought iron gates will open to welcome visitors on Wednesday, September 2nd at precisely 12:00 noon (EST). The facility's massive grounds feature nearly 2,000 manicured grass campsites, many of which are reserved months in advance. While track management expects another sell-out for campsites, those remaining will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Daily parking and admission tickets are also available at the gate.

The weekend officially kicks off on Friday, September 4th in downtown Crandon with the Pit Crew Competition starting at 9:30am. All of the weekend's The Off Road Championship (TORC) Pro and Crandon Sportsman class cars and drivers will line the streets of the small Wisconsin community to interact with fans just prior to the 46th Anniversary World Championship Labor Day Parade. A perfect slice of authentic Americana, the parade is a beloved Crandon tradition.

After taking the mile-long drive back to Crandon International Raceway, competitors will begin preparing for the Forest County Potawatomi "Friday Night of Thunder." This special event will include TORC Pro class practice, Crandon Sportsman practice as well as special racer for the Brew Pub Short Course Karts, the Lincoln Electric 1600 buggies and the modified Trophy Kart class. At 8:00 p.m. race fans will enjoy a live concert at the Monster Energy stage courtesy of the Road Trip band.

For three generations, the end of summer in Wisconsin is a 46-year-old celebration at Crandon International Off Road Raceway (top). Known as "The Big House," the 400-acre facility will host the sport's largest race over three days of competition and live entertainment. On Saturday night the Crandon crowd will party late into the night thanks to the Vic Ferrari Band. (Peter Murphy image)

Cool Meals for Hot Days

As the temperature soars, your desire to turn on the stove likely wanes. Keep cool and stay healthy with these delicious, no-cook dinner ideas.

Rely on fresh produce: In the summer, vegetables and fruit are plentiful and at their flavorful peak. Use them for salads, appetizers, side dishes and dessert. Try pre-washed greens as a quick salad base, and for a meal, add protein-rich options such as canned tuna or salmon, chickpeas, cubed cheese, nuts, seeds or last night's leftover chicken. Top off your meal with fresh fruit for dessert.

Quick vegetable-based dishes include:

- Tomato and mozzarella salad with basil.
- Gazpacho.
- Greek salad.
- Southwestern corn, avocado and cilantro salad.
- Peach salsa with corn tortillas.
- Eggplant dip (baby ghanoush with whole grain pita).
- Lentil and sweet pepper salad.

Try a cold soup: Minestrone or healthy chowder may warm you up in the winter, but don't ignore soup as a dinner staple in hot weather. Simple blends such as gazpacho are a refreshing change, and are easy to make with no heat required. Try fruit soups (cherry, watermelon, etc.) with a dollop of Greek yogurt. Don't forget fragrant fresh herbs!

Make a sandwich: You can also cool off at dinner with a well-stacked sandwich. Start with whole-grain bread and load it with vegetables and high-protein fillers such as chicken or turkey breast, canned fish or crab meat, sliced leftover steak, hummus and cheese. Go easy on high-sodium condiments such as pickles, mustard and mayo.

EASY RECIPE

Red Pepper Gazpacho:

- 1 cup diced red pepper
- 4 cups diced tomatoes
- 2 cups English cucumber, seeded and diced
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- 1 cup water
- 3 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
- 2 tbsp red wine or sherry vinegar
- 1/4 tsp coarse salt
- 1/4 cup fresh basil leaves

Directions: In a blender or food processor, combine the red pepper, tomatoes, cucumber, garlic, water, oil and vinegar. Process until coarsely pureed. Serve with a pinch of coarse salt and fresh basil leaves.

Makes 6 servings. Per serving: 97 calories / 1.5g protein / 7g total fat / 1g saturated fat / 5g mono fat / 1g poly fat / 0mg cholesterol / 8g carbohydrate / 1g sugar / 2g fiber / 109mg sodium.

Getting Medicare part A Coverage

Medicare can be a challenging program to understand - particularly if you have a unique enrollment circumstance. Many folks will automatically be enrolled in Medicare Part A and not have to pay a premium for this coverage, but this is not the case for everyone. In general, if you or your spouse worked for 10 years in Medicare-covered employment, you are eligible to receive Medicare Part A benefits without paying a premium. Medicare-covered employment is any job you or your spouse held in which you paid Medicare or PICA taxes. You earn one credit for every $1,120 of taxable income with a maximum of four credits per year. Some people may have left the workforce early and, therefore, do not have enough work credits for premium-free Part A. While others may be new to the country and have only worked in the United States for a couple years. Regardless of the reason, it can be a difficult situation to navigate. Here are some things to keep in mind:

Medicare premiums are expensive. If a person has less than 30 work credits, the Part A monthly premium is $407. If a person has 30-39 work credits, the premium is $224 per month. Others who are eligible for the reduced premiums are:

- 1.) A spouse who has been married to a person with 30 or more work credits for at least one year;
- 2.) A widow who was married to a person with 30 or more work credits for at least one year prior to death; and
- 3.) A divorced spouse who was married to a person with 30 or more work credits for a period of at least 10 years immediately before the date of divorce if the insured spouse had at least 30 work credits at the time of divorce.

Part A late enrollment penalty. If a person is not eligible for premium-free Medicare Part A and does not buy it when he or she is first eligible, the penalty is an increase in the premium of 10%. The person will be subject to the higher premium for twice the number of years (period of 12 months total) he or she could have had Part A, but did not sign up.

For example, if someone was eligible for Part A in 2015, but only had 10 work credits, he or she would have a premium of $407 each month. If the person waited 2 full years to enroll - he or she would have to pay $447.70 per month in Part A premiums for 4 years.

Medicare Savings Program. A person may have his or her Part A premiums paid for by the state if he or she is eligible for a Medicare Savings Program called Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB). Eligibility is determined based on one's income and asset level. People who qualify at the lowest income level may be eligible for coverage for the Medicare Parts A and B deductibles, co-pays, and coinsurance, as well as coverage of the Part B $104.90 monthly premium.

Marketplace. People not entitled to premium-free Part A may purchase a plan on the Marketplace. They would be eligible for subsidies via the Marketplace by virtue of not having premium free Medicare Part A coverage. While the Marketplace would provide minimum essential coverage, the individual would still be subject to late enrollment penalties from Medicare.

World Championships, series titles and Record Purse Up For Grabs at Crandon's 46th Labor Day Off-Road Race Weekend

It's Greaves Versus LeDuc In An Amsoil Cup Rematch

For off-road racing fans around the country, the upcoming Labor Day weekend means one thing – the annual World Championships at Wisconsin's Crandon International Raceway.

For 46 years, the sport's fastest racers and 45,000-plus fans have converged on the small Northwoods town of Crandon to settle bragging rights and earn a special place in motorsports history. The largest event of its type in the world, both The Off Road Championship (TORC) professional and Crandon Sportsman series' drivers will be looking to end their seasons with a victory at the theater of speed affectionately known as "The Big House."

As was the case last year, a major storyline will focus on California-based racer Kyle LeDuc as he attempts to slow down Green Bay's CJ Greaves and his father Johnny in the sport's premier unlimited PRO 4x4 truck class. LeDuc comes to Crandon bolstered by an incredible 12-for-12 victory tally in the west coast-based Lucas Oil series piloting his #99 Monster Energy Ford. CJ Greaves will be looking to not only wrap up the 2015 TORC PRO 4x4 championship, but also another season title in the TORC PRO 2WD

After a full weekend of racing and concerts held within the track's massive 400-acre property, the 6th Annual Amsoil Challenge Cup will again serve as an intense and spectacular finale. The race will see TORC's PRO 2WD and PRO 4x4 classes let loose on the track at the same time after receiving staggered starts. In an Amsoil Challenge Cup record, the winner will take home $46,000 in cash plus additional prizes from MasterCraft Safety and Lincoln Welders.

Last year it was a flying LeDuc that snatched the Amsoil Cup victory from both Greaves -- all piloting Monster Energy-sponsored TORC PRO 4x4 trucks.

For this year, the Greaves Motorsports team is taking steps to insure that performance won't happen again. "We've improved both our trucks to another level over 2014," said Johnny Greaves, himself a two-time Labor Day cup winner. "Our laps times at Crandon for the spring Forest County Potawatomi Community Cup race were faster than the quickest lap laid down at last year's Amsoil Cup race."

Part of that philosophy springs from the confidence found in fact that CJ Greaves has the lead in both the TORC PRO 2WD and PRO 4x4 categories, with Johnny a solid runner up in the later class. The younger Greaves will be battling Crandon's own Keegan Kincaid for the PRO 2WD title.

Another source of optimism might also be the news that the team is rolling out a brand new unlimited Toyota PRO 4x4 for CJ that incorporates the same manual transmission used by his father.

Labor Day weekend at Crandon is the biggest, baddest race there is by far," the senior Greaves added. "So, we are coming to dominate and leave absolutely nothing on the table."

Representing what many call the sport's "Indianapolis 500," for tens of thousands of fun-loving race fans the end-of-summer trek to the Wisconsin Northwoods is a "can't miss" tradition. For 2015, guests to the 400-acre "Big House" can look forward to a jam-packed, three-day schedule of great racing, rich tradition and on-site entertainment that make up the unforgettable "Crandon Experience."

Crandon's custom wrought iron gates will open to welcome visitors on Wednesday, September 2nd at precisely 12:00 noon (EST). The facility's massive grounds feature nearly 2,000 manicured grass campsites, many of which are reserved months in advance. While track management expects another sell-out for campsites, those remaining will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Daily parking and admission tickets are also available at the gate.

Hot racing action!

They are back! Much to delight of fans, last year the wild Modified Kart class made its Crandon International debut. Driven by a talented group of youngsters, these small but mighty Karts feature large motors, long wheel travel and high speeds. (Jeffrey Keeble image).

Nicolet AARP Chapter 1191

The speakers for the August meeting of the Nicolet AARP Chapter 1191 were Gary Donaldson from Nicolet Pharmacy and Cecile Rodenkirch who is a pharmacy intern temporarily at the Nicolet Pharmacy. Cecile Rodenkirch provided volumes of information on tick born diseases with emphasis on Lyme disease carried by the common deer tick. Gary Donaldson pointed out that the numbers of infections are much more frequent then we might expect. This makes prevention and an understanding of the symptoms very important. Although the numbers of cases reported in Oconto County annually is fairly low, the number of estimated cases in Wisconsin in recent years has averaged over 3,000 yearly. Cecile Rodenkirch's presentation resulted in many questions from the AARP members.

The speaker for the September 22nd meeting will be Janet Glime from the Oconto County Literacy Council. The Fall Dinner will be held this year at the Anderson Supper Club South of Mountain on Tuesday, September 29, 2015.

All persons 50 and over are invited to join the local AARP Chapter. AARP meetings are social, entertaining, and informative. Meetings are held at the Lakewood Presbyterian Church on the fourth Tuesday of each month starting at 7:00 pm. Contact Joyce West, Membership Chairman, at 715-276-9409.

For Old Time's Sake

The village blacksmith was an essential part of a community in the early days of the last century. He could keep the plow repaired and the buckboard running. This shot of a Laona blacksmith shop didn't give any clues as to location, but the names on the picture are, to the left, Charles Eggsbrecht, and the other fellow was listed as Murphy McHugh.

This forest fire stopped short of burning Laona down, but to be sure, there must have been worrying going on. In the early days of logging and our sawmill towns, the dry slash was often on the outskirts of the community, and forest fires were a danger. Not having the logs to run the mill was also a danger, so the logging was heavy!

Senator Johnson encourages preparedness during National Preparedness Month

Disasters can strike anywhere and anytime. National Preparedness Month – observed every September – serves as a reminder that everyone must prepare for the types of emergencies and disasters that can affect each of us where we live, work or visit.

“As chairman of the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee, I am honored to serve as a congressional co-chair for the 12th annual National Preparedness Month,” Senator Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) said. “Over the years, my home state of Wisconsin has seen its share of disasters, weathering severe storms, power outages, damaging winds, tornadoes, flooding and mudslides. This year’s National Preparedness Month theme, ‘Don’t Wait. Communicate: Make Your Emergency Plan Today,’ is vital, as disasters happen at a moment’s notice. It is imperative that families think ahead by creating and reviewing emergency plans, building and restocking emergency kits, and promoting awareness among friends and local communities. Through effective preparation, we can do a better job of keeping our communities and loved ones safe.”

The theme for National Preparedness Month is “Don’t Wait. Communicate. Make Your Emergency Plan Today.” The message underscores the importance of making an emergency communication plan for how your family will get to a safe place, how you will contact one another and how you will get back together following a disaster.

Each week during National Preparedness Month raises awareness about natural disasters - floods, wildfires, and hurricanes – and power outages. On September 30, National Preparedness Month culminates with National PrepareAthon! Day, which offers all Americans an opportunity to take action and practice their preparedness in advance of an emergency. By practicing preparedness actions in advance of a disaster, you can be better prepared to handle an emergency you may encounter.

There are many ways to participate in the National Preparedness Month. Examples include:

-  Creating and testing an emergency communication plan for your family, organization or workplace.
 -  Assembling or updating emergency supply kits to keep at home, at work and in your car.
 -  Contacting your local or state Emergency Management Office to sign up for local text message alerts and warnings.
 -  Finding out if your cell phone can receive free Wireless Emergency Alerts (WEAs); no subscription is needed. Learn more at www.ready.gov/alerts.
 -  Downloading the FEMA or American Red Cross app.
 - Gathering critical personal, legal and medical documents for safekeeping.
 -  Practicing going to your protective location (safe room) in the event of an emergency.
 -  Conducting a table top exercise to test your organization’s continuity of operation plans.
 -  Using social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter, to spread the word.
 -  Downloading free preparedness guides for floods, hurricanes, winter storms, tornados, wildfires and earthquakes from America’s PrepareAthon! and register to host or participate in a preparedness event at www.ready.gov/prepare.
- For more information on National Preparedness Month, visit Ready.gov/September or follow the campaign on Facebook and Twitter.
- To support America’s PrepareAthon! and to learn more about how you can play a role in your community’s preparedness, visit www.ready.gov/prepare.

Ask Your Insurance Professional

Ed Smith INSURANCE TIP UMBRELLA COVERAGE

Umbrellas cover $1,000,000 or more over and above your current homeowners liability and your auto liability. I’ve heard people talk about insurance umbrellas as if they cover anything. They are a good idea, but do not cover everything just like your primary home and auto, they have exclusions. Generally, you have a minimum liability of $300,000 on your homeowners and $500,000 on your auto before the umbrella coverage would be activated. This umbrella liability also covers above your boat, snowmobile, recreational liability and some rental properties.

Today’s jury awards you have been reading about are unbelievable as far as the amounts of money they are handing out.

Most umbrellas can be purchased for between $150-$2300 per year, depending on your personal circumstances. Give your agent a call and find out.

Wisconsin State Patrol Law of the Month: September 2015

Drivers should be patient, cautious, attentive, as school year starts

At the start of the school year, students are not the only ones who need to recall what they learned just a few months ago. Drivers also need to remember some important lessons.

"Drivers must be cautious when approaching students who are walking or riding bikes. They also will need to be careful around school buses that are loading or unloading passengers," says Lieutenant Steve G. Krueger of the Wisconsin State Patrol North Central Region.

Stop for school buses

Wisconsin law requires drivers to stop a minimum of 20 feet from a stopped school bus with its red warning lights flashing. Drivers must stop whether the bus is on their side of road, on the opposite side of the road, or at an intersection they are approaching. However, drivers are not required to stop for a school bus if they are traveling in the opposite direction on the other side of a divided roadway separated by a median or other physical barrier. When they are passed illegally, school bus drivers are authorized to report the violator to a law enforcement agency and a citation may be issued. The owner of the vehicle, who might not be the offending driver, will then be responsible for paying the citation.

A citation for failure to stop for a school bus costs $326.50 with four demerit points. If reported by a school bus driver, the vehicle owner's liability for the illegal passing of a bus costs $326.50 with no demerit points.

Students walking to school

State law requires drivers to yield to pedestrians:

- Who have started crossing an intersection or crosswalk on a walk signal or on a green light if there's no walk signal.
- Who are crossing the road within a marked or unmarked crosswalk at an intersection where there are no traffic lights or control signals.
- When a vehicle is crossing a sidewalk or entering an alley or driveway.

In addition, drivers may not legally overtake and pass any vehicle that has stopped for pedestrians at an intersection or crosswalk.

Drivers who fail to yield the right of way to pedestrians who are legally crossing roadways may be issued citations that cost approximately $175 to $326 (depending on the type of violation) along with four demerit points on their license. The cost of the citation increases if it's the second violation within one year. A citation for passing a vehicle that is stopped for pedestrians costs $326.50 with three demerit points. Students biking to school

When drivers are passing bicycles traveling in the same direction, they must leave a safe distance of no less than 3-feet of clearance and must maintain that clearance until they have safely passed the bicycle.

A violation of the state law that requires drivers to overtake and pass bicyclists safely costs a total of $200.50 with three demerit points. The cost for a second violation within four years increases to $263.50 with three points.

Lieutenant Krueger says, "As another school year begins, we are asking drivers to be patient, cautious and attentive whenever they are near students who are walking, biking or riding a bus."

Senator Johnson held question and answer session in Crandon

By Boyd Monte

Senator Ron Johnson held a question and answer session in Crandon at the Hotel Crandon on Saturday, August 29th. Johnson started by stating that, "We share the same goal, we all want a safe, prosperous and secure America, Wisconsin and Crandon."

Johnson is the Chairman of the Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee. He also serves on the committees on the Budget; Commerce, Science and Transportation; and Foreign Relations.

As Chairman of the Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee, there has been 49 pieces of legislation. Almost all of it has been unanimous. The committee has priorities that do not have an order but their concerns are border security, cyber security, protecting our critical info structure, and answering terrorist threats in America.

Governmental Affairs looks into abuse of taxpayers dollars in the form of fraudulent and wasteful programs and working on eliminating the wasteful spending or program. Senator Johnson also commented that the Good Neighbor authority was granted. He stated that it is a good program to give the logging industry a boost. There will be more opportunities for jobs and bringing money into Northern Wisconsin. He then opened the floor to questions.

Some of the concerns from the public were; veterans' health benefits decreasing, the V.A. in Tomah, planned parenthood, sugars in foods and drinks, and the military.

The first major concern was the Iran nuclear deal. Senator Johnson said that he is not in favor and that it is a bad deal. He also stated that it does appear to be going through because there will not be enough votes to override a veto from the president.

Johnson was asked what he is doing for medical benefits for the veterans. Benefits are decreasing and causing concern. Johnson replied that the investigation by his staff is still on going, referring to the V.A. hospital in Tomah and he hopes that in the future, veterans will have a choice on their medical benefits.

Senator Johnson was then asked about planned parenthood. Johnson responded that he is waiting to hear if planned parenthood is breaking the law. A bill to de-fund planned parenthood failed in the senate.

WI 70 improvements in Forest County are underway

Work to improve WIS 70, between WIS 55 and WIS 139, in Forest County was to begin August 31.

Northeast Asphalt is the prime contractor for the $1.4 million project. Crews will resurface the roadway, install centerline rumble strips, and replace guardrail.

Motorists can expect to encounter lane closures and flagging operations.

Construction is scheduled for completion in late-October 2015. The schedule is subject to change based on favorable weather conditions and construction status.

Eighty percent of the project will be paid with federal transportation funds; the remaining 20 percent will be paid with state transportation funds.

Hospice: What You Should Know

by the GWAAR Legal Services Team

It is a fact of life that we must - at some point - deal with end-of-life issues. When an individual has been diagnosed with a terminal disease or condition, hospice care can be a wonderful care option. Hospice care was introduced to the United States in the 1970's, and it has become an increasingly common treatment. Last year, 1/65 million people received hospice care, according to the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization. More people are utilizing hospice care, and more providers are entering the market.

For many families, however, hospice is an unfamiliar concept that prompts fear and questions. Following are answers to some common questions.

What is hospice care? Hospice provides end-of-life care and support to people who are dying and their families, most often in a patient's home. By signing up for hospice, patients generally agree to stop all disease-fighting treatments, although some hospices allow such therapy if it is to help manage symptoms such as pain or problems breathing. Hospice's primary goal is to alleviate pain. Through a team of caregivers, hospice provides comprehensive care and instructs families on patient care.

How much care does hospice provide? Comprehensive care generally does not mean around-the-clock service, although many hospices do provide 24/7 care when the patient is in crisis or near death. Therefore, hospice may not be viable option for everyone as it may require involvement of family members or necessitate hiring a private nurse or home health aide.

Who pays for hospice care? Medicare covers most hospices for its beneficiaries. Private insurance plans and HMOs also generally pay for hospice care, but they may have a preferred provider. Daily co-pays and additional costs may be incurred by an insured.

If hospice is not a place, where do I get hospice care? For patients who can't be cared for at home, some hospices have inpatient facilities in free-standing centers or specially designated sections in hospitals or nursing homes.

When should I start to think about hospice? Most hospices require an order from the patient's physician as well as approval from the hospice medical director. Both must certify that the patient has six months or less to live if the illness runs its normal course. However, if a patient outlives that time, he or she can be "re-certified" to continue receiving hospice care. If you get better, you can leave hospice and go into active treatment.

How do I find a good hospice? First, seek recommendations from health-care providers and specialists. Ask which hospice they would use for themselves or a loved one. Next, call the recommended hospices and ask questions about the issues that matter most to you. You can then get a feel for if the hospice would meet you and your family needs through this conversation.

Where can I go for additional help? There is information about hospice online including:

It's Potatofest Weekend in Rhinelander
The free-third annual Trig's PotatoFest has fantastic music lined up. Starting on Friday night at 5:00 p.m. enjoy "Jagged Highway" and then at 8:00 p.m. "The Whitehouse Players".
The "Rhinelander Community Band" starts the music off on Saturday beginning at 11:00 a.m. Then enjoy our own "Scott Kirby" at 12:00 p.m. Start easing into the evening listening and dancing to "America's Party Band" at 4:00 p.m. only to finish your day with nothing but fun with "The Dweebs" at 8:00 p.m. Remember, we've added another day to Potatofest which is music centered. The WXPR Potato Polkafest runs from 12:00-3:00 p.m featuring the "Jim Pekol Band".
Plan to attend on Saturday? Let your taste buds be heard. There are eight entries in the Potato Salad contest this year and your tasting and voting determines the BEST potato salad in Rhinelander. Both of the past winners are again entered; Sportman's Café (2 entries) and The Fireside. Trying to beat the champs are; CT Deli, Dominics, Holiday Acres, Northwestern and the Rhinelander Café & Pub.
This family friendly event has something for any age. There are kids activities/ games and the Tator Tot Parade. Enjoy the potato pancake breakfast put on by the Masonic Lodge, enter the cribbage tournament, and the adult contests. Don't forget to buy your "duck" for the Duck Regatta. Oneida County Tavern League members have tickets. Live music, vendors, food and beverages all add to making your stop complete.
Stop for an hour or experience all three days at Trig's Potatofest. It all happens at the Greenspace located on Courtney Street in front of Trigs. Voted Rhinelander's #1 Event it's the perfect event that is a great thing to do with family or friends in downtown Rhinelander.
