Performing artists fill 3 stages at 2nd Annual WAM Fest!

Plans are taking shape for the Wabeno Art & Music (WAM) Fest on Saturday, August 6th. In its second year WAM Fest features live music on three stages, fine art auction, "arty" activities for kids, Plein Air landscape painting competition and artwork sale, food, drink and more. The event runs from 10 am to 10pm in historic downtown Wabeno, Highway 32 in Forest County.

Tim Friesen, member of the WAM Fest planning committee is happy to announce the line-up of performers. According to Friesen, "This year we created a staggered schedule on three stages that will allow continual live music during the day-long event. And the music this year is wide and varied including a fire dancer at dusk." There are three stages: the East Pavilion Stage, Band Shell and the West Pavilion Stage.

On the East Pavilion Stage artists perform one hour starting with Skip Jones (folk) at 10 a.m., Ray Ehlinger (roots country) at 11:45 a.m., Keith McGillivray (flutist) and Ric Doonbaliat (percussionist) 1:30 p.m., Carolyn Carter (Southern bell-hillbilly) at 3:15 p.m., Gary "Buzz" Baum (singer songwriter based in Georgia) at 5 p.m., Jeff Brown (acoustic rock genre) at 6:45 p.m. and CityScape (trio based in Milwaukee performing classic standards, jazz, blues, pop/rock) 8:30 p.m. to close.

Performances on the Band Shell stage vary from 45 minutes to one hour with Heather Styka (folk and award-winning song writer) beginning at 10:30 a.m., Michael Magee (originals and covers) at 11:45 a.m., Cheri & Paul (husband-wife duo from Lakewood play 60s and 70s, old and new country, Americana and folk) at 1 p.m., Living Room (folk rock trio) at 2:15 p.m., Leah Reed (3-piece jazz rap fusion) at 3:45 p.m., Larry Seiler (eclectic) at 5:30 p.m., Ed Marsh (bluegrass 5 piece) at 7 p.m., Heidi Milan (fire dancer) at dusk and Ric Stream (classic rock/oldies) performs 8:45 p.m. to close.

New to WAM fest is an emerging performing artist stage, the West Pavilion Stage for budding performing artists. The Anger Brothers start the day at 11 a.m.; a ukulele group will perform at noon followed by Sophie Wysocki at 1 p.m., Blake Matthews at 2 p.m., Irish dancers at 3 p.m., Maddie Korbas at 4:30 p.m. and Sarah Jennings at 5:30 p.m.

Each stage is within close proximity and easy walking on the Logging Museum grounds.

The children's arty activities will be held outside in front of the Museum and run from noon to 3 p.m. Activities include clothesline art, paint books and bubbles galore. There is no cost to participate. An additional kid's activity is called Jr. Rembrandt. Kids are invited to paint on a provided canvas and their art will be on display for silent auction. WAM Fest attendees can purchase tickets three for $1 and try to win the kids' art piece. Voting closes at 4:30 p.m. Best of Show winners will be selected by a panel of judges in two categories; 12 and under and teens with artful prizes awarded.

Plein Air artists are signing up to participate in a competition and sale of their completed artwork. Artists select a landscape, downtown building or other outdoor location within one mile of the Wabeno Band Shell. That's where they paint and visitors can view the action. Painting begins anytime between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. and runs until 2 p.m. Each artist may submit up to three Plein Air paintings.

Framed, ready-to-hang paintings will be sold at the artist's selected price during the "buy it now" period 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at WAM Fest "ART HQ". Artists are encouraged to preregister and details and registration form can be found online:

<https://wabenoartandmusicfest.org/artists>. Registration can also take place at WAM Fest.

Volunteers still needed. Contact Mary Beck to help serve food, beverage sales and set up. This year an artist commemorative pin will be sold for $2. The artwork on the pin was created by local artist Stephen Wysocki from Armstrong Creek.

Local businesses are making monetary and prize donations; funds will help defer the costs of the artist performers. Prize drawings will be held throughout the day of the event and all attendees have a chance to win by filling out the event evaluation form.

For more information about WAM Fest, check out the website: www.WabenoArtAndMusicFest.org or on Facebook.

The Lumberjack Steam Train invites police and their families to ride as guests

The Lumberjack Steam Train, in Laona, always welcomes active duty servicemen and their families with an invitation to ride the train as guests. They are now extending an invitation to active police and their families.

The Lumberjack Steam Train management team wants to show support for the "Thin Blue Line." It is a way to show support and appreciation to the men and women who keep our society safe and sometimes are injured or killed in fulfilling their duty

The offer is extended until the end of the summer season, which ends August 20. The offer is also extended to the Fall Runs that are on all the Saturdays in September.

This is a special season for the Lumberjack Steam Train. It is the 100th year of operation for the 1916 Vulcan steam engine, and the train ride on vintage rail cars harkens us back to the days of old, when train travel was the predominant form of transportation for travel and hauling of goods.

To find out more about the Lumberjack Steam Train and a ride to the logging museum, petting zoo, a corn maze, the Crackerbarrel Gift Shop, and more, log on to lumberjacksteamtrain.com.

Kentuck Day and Kentuck Klassic Car Show in Crandon this weekend

By Mike Monte

The annual celebration of the Kentucky heritage of the Crandon area will be this weekend on Saturday, July 30th. The courthouse square will be full of vendors, live music and great food will be available. In addition, Crandon businesses will have special sales all day!

The Kentuck Klassic will be on the grounds of the Weber-Hill Funeral Home, and each year the show gets better!

Why is this celebration held? It is part of the heritage of many families, not just from the Crandon area, but predominantly from Crandon. To some, Kentuck was viewed as a nationality.

3rd Annual Pork'n'Bean Invitational Coming Up!

Back in 2014 it has been decided, after some hard thinking and a few drinks, that the Redneck Golfers from My Bar in Townsend would like to hold an event in honor of Terry Rank, who loved his Redneck golf! But, as anyone who knew Terry knows, he didn't do much unless it was for the community and in keeping with that tradition the proceeds will be put in a fund for area community improvements.

So, on Sunday, August 28th, the Sleepy Hollow Mini Golf Course will be the site of the 3rd Annual Pork'n'Bean Invitational Mini Golf Outing. This will be a 2-person team event, cost is $25 per person. There will be fun course events and raffles. The golf starts at NOON, with registration at 11:00 at Sleepy Hollow. After the golfing is done, the fun will continue at My Bar/Birch Hills Resort with food (including Terry's favorite recipe Pork'n'Beans), more raffles and golfing prizes awarded.

To sign up for this 'promising to be a crazy fun' day, you can call 715-276-6195 or 715-276-7088 or to pre-register stop in at My Bar.

Nu-Roc Annual Senior Citizen Picnic August 2nd

Nu-Roc is inviting all surrounding area senior citizens to join us for our annual picnic. It will be held on Tuesday, August 2nd, from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

There will be live entertainment and all guests will be eligible to win various cash prizes. Tours of the facility will be available.

Please RSVP to Linda at 715-674-4477, extension 608. The picnic will be held rain or shine.

Naunkca computer service holds an Open House

James Whiteaker has found a headquarters for his computer business at 213 East Madison Street in Crandon.

Naunkca will be able to help you with your computer needs, including networking, security, programming and phone systems.

Naunkca is a service-oriented business that can keep you computing, sell you new hardware and programming, and give you solutions to your computer headaches.

Whiteaker and company will be holding an Open House at 5:00 p.m. on August 5th at the new office. Staff will be on hand to welcome you and answer your questions.

James Whiteaker was interested in the technology behind many things while growing up. He took a job with 1 Prospect, where he learned a great deal about the computer business and the technology. After the close of 1 Prospect, James started doing computer work for some of his former 1 Prospect clients, and the need for this service has grown.

To take advantage of this needed service, stop in the office or call 920-710-0876.

Wednesday

Former Northwoods resident Sharon Ittis will return to play at Concerts on the Riverwalk, Wednesday, August 3, 7 pm, at the bandshell near Trig's in downtown Rhinelander.

Currently living in Montana, "Foghorn Mama" will echo across the Wisconsin River joined by bassist Tim Zier from Woodruff and Jim Jacobs from Montana on banjo. Sharon describes her music as Americana with a country western twist.

As always, the concert is free and some benches are available. Listeners are urged to bring lawn chairs, drinks to go with the free popcorn and a good-will offering for the bucket.

The show is sponsored by Rhinelander Women's Club, and in case of bad weather will be held at the senior center across the parking lot. For more information, call Jan Leschke at 715-362-7157.

Fun and learning at Totus Tuus

St. Mary's of the Lake Catholic Church hosted its 3rd year of Totus Tuus in Lakewood earlier this summer. The Latin phrase, which was a favorite of St. John Paul, means Totally Yours and is the theme for the week-long session facilitated by the Green Bay Catholic Dioceses and run by young men and women who are planning careers in either the Religious or Social field. This years team, Mr. Aaron, Mr. Zachary, Miss Jen and Miss Brie led 20+ youngsters in learning more about their Faith in fun and creative ways, using skits, games and some classroom-style activities.

At the end on the week, the children choose their 'favorite' teacher, who was Miss Jen, and made a Human Sundae of her with their favorite sundae toppings. Following that up was a super Water Fight Competition that was not only fun but helped clean things up!

SOKAOGON CHIPPEWA COMMUNITY
REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS FOR SOLAR DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Sokaogon Chippewa Community ("SCC") is soliciting proposals from a qualified contractor ("Respondents") to design, fabricate, deliver, install, and maintain ground-mounted or rooftop-mounted, utility-interactive solar photovoltaic systems.

SCC has been selected for award negotiations for a $1 million Community-Scale PV System Installation Grant under DOE EERE Deployment of Clean Energy and Energy Efficiency Projects on Indian Land to assist SCC with a solar photovoltaic ("PV") project and, in particular, to install approximately 605.36 kilowatt (kW) of solar PV capacity to serve approximately twelve to fifteen Tribal buildings and potentially certain Tribal residential units on SCC's reservation (the "Project").

Respondents must agree to implement the Project at a reasonable cost and on economic and financing terms as favorable as possible for SCC. To be considered a qualified contractor, the contractor must have experience in successfully installing at least: (1) three solar projects that are each at least 150 kW in size; and (2) four solar projects in Wisconsin that are each at least 50 kW in size.

To request a copy of the RFP, please contact Jeff Ackley Jr., Sokaogon Chippewa Community-Tribal Administrator, Housing Authority-Executive Director, 3265 Indian Settlement Rd., Crandon, WI 54520, Fax: 715.478.2865, Office: 715.478.7628, email jeff.ackley.jr@scc-nsn.gov.

PUBLIC RELEASE - National School Lunch And Breakfast Programs, Special Milk Program

The School District of Laona announced its policy to serve all students breakfast and lunch under the National School Lunch Program and School Breakfast Program free of charge each school day. Each school office and the central office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility. Children from families whose annual income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free and reduced price meals or free milk if a split-session student does not have access to the school lunch or breakfast service.

Application forms may be sent to all homes with a notice to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced price meals or free milk, households must fill out the application and return it to the school (unless notified at the start of the school year that children are eligible through direct certification). Additional copies are available at the office in each school. The information provided on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by agency or other program officials. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

To obtain free or reduced price meals or free milk for children in a household where one or more household members receive FoodShare, FDIPIR, or Wisconsin Works (W-2) cash benefits, list the household member and the FoodShare, FDIPIR or W-2 case number, list the names of all school children, sign the application, and return it to the school office.

For the school officials to determine eligibility for free or reduced price meals or free milk of households not receiving FoodShare, FDIPIR or W-2 cash benefits, the household must provide the following information requested on the application: names of all household members and the adult signing the application form must also list the last four digits of his or her Social Security Number or mark the box to the right of "Check if no SSN". Also, the income received by each household member must be provided by amount and source (wages, welfare, child support, etc.).

Under the provisions of the free and reduced price meal and free milk policy the high school secretary will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent or guardian is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he/she may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If the parent/guardian wishes to make a formal appeal, he/she may make a request either orally or in writing to Samantha Hoffman, School Board Clerk, 5216 Forest Ave., Ste. A, Laona WI 54541 or call 715-674-3801 Ext. 2.

If a hearing is needed to appeal the decision, the policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a household member becomes unemployed or if the household size changes, the family should contact the school. Such changes may make the household eligible for reduced price meals or free meals or free milk if the household income falls at or below the levels shown above, and they may reapply at that time.

Children formally placed in foster care are also eligible for free meal benefits. Foster children may be certified as eligible without a household application. Households with foster children and non-foster children may choose to include the foster child as a household member, as well as any personal income available to the foster child, on the same application that includes their non-foster children.

The information provided by the household on the application is confidential. Public Law 103-448 limits the release of student free and reduced price school meal eligibility status to persons directly connected with the administration and enforcement of federal or state educational programs. Consent of the parent/guardian is need for other purposes such as waiver of text book fees.

Nicolet AARP Chapter 1191

Pam Nelson, RN, EMT

The speaker for the July meeting of the Nicolet AARP Chapter 1191 was Pam Nelson, RN, EMT from Mountain Ambulance. Pam Nelson, who is a CPR instructor, did CPR (Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation) training with the AARP members. Surprisingly, several members have had some prior CPR training and a couple members have been in a situation where CPR was given. A proper course of CPR training does take a few hours; however, those with basic understanding can save a life where no action would have poor consequences. Also the Heimlich maneuver was discussed as an important consideration in many circumstances.
 Several AARP members went to the Kids from Wisconsin production in Antigo and were impressed with

Wisconsin statewide Point-In-Time Count 2016

Homeless Count to Take Place in Forest, Langlade, Oneida & Vilas Counties

On the evening of July 27, 2016 into the morning hours of July 28, 2016 the Northern Wisconsin Initiative to Stop Homelessness (N*WISH) Continuum of Care will be joining homeless coalitions (or Continuums) around the state in completing a local count of individuals and families experiencing homelessness. Staff and volunteers will count persons in shelters for the night as well as persons residing on the streets, under bridges, or similar places not met for human habitation.

The collected data will assist the community in understanding the scope and size of local homelessness; engage in programs and service development, and to apply for state and federal funding.

The Northern Wisconsin Initiative to Stop Homelessness (N*WISH) Continuum of Care was established in November of 2009. This collaborative system exists to increase awareness and acts to promote and support the eradication of homelessness in Forest, Langlade, Oneida and Vilas Counties. N*WISH is comprised of various state government & public housing agencies; non-profit & faith-based organizations as well as funding & advocacy groups.

On July 28, 2016 at the Northern Advantage Job Center a member of the N*WISH CoC will have an outreach and education booth from 12:30 pm to 2:00 pm that will provide information about homelessness in our communities and resources available. The general public is invited; please feel free to stop by to have cookies and coffee.

A Service Based Count will be completed starting on Thursday, July 28, 2016 until the end of the business day on Friday, July 29, 2016. If you are homeless or know of someone who is homeless, sleeping on the street or in places not meant for human habitation please call 715-365-7842 or stop at the Northern Advantage Job Center to complete a survey and receive resource information.

For more information, please call Lori Hallas at 365-7842.

Tar Dam Road construction

The plan, subject to change, is to begin construction on Tar Dam Road (FR 2104), approximately 200' east of State Highway 32 in the Town of Riverview, the week of August 1st. The U.S. Forest Service has contracted a firm to replace the old undersized culvert crossing the 1st Branch Oconto River with a 240"x72"x25' Precast Concrete Box culvert, to provide added protection to the environment.

Sometime during this construction period, the road will be completely closed to traffic for 5 days. The public will be advised, through newspaper articles and social media, when the closure will occur. Please drive safely when using this road.

In 1998, Thomas purchased a vacation home in White Lake, WI. Thomas and Janyce moved to White Lake full time in 2002 until 2008. They then moved to Laona and then to Argonne.

Thomas was an avid fisherman, who also enjoyed hunting, boating, ATViing, snowmobiling, camping and traveling. He also liked watching the Green Bay Packers, Milwaukee Brewers and NASCAR. Thomas loved nature and all kinds of wildlife.

NIXLE System open to all to spread info to the public from the Forest County Sheriff's Dept.

Due to recent Forest County emergency phone loss, Sheriff John Dennee expressed great concern for our community and the need to get important information out to the public in a timely manner. The Forest County Sheriff's Department has joined the NIXLE System and is now able to communicate directly to the citizens and visitors of Forest County through text messaging or email.

The NIXLE System is a web based publishing system that allows the Sheriff's Office to create and assign messages at a priority level ensuring important information reaches you in a timely manner. Such messages can consist of Severe Weather Alerts, Missing Children Alerts, Missing Person Alerts, Hazardous Situation Alerts, and Informational Advisory's. This is a free service for Public Safety Agencies and inflicts no cost to the taxpayer.

Sheriff Dennee recently attended a table top training scenario with our County Health and ADRC representatives. The scenario was on weather preparedness. After attending the scenario, Sheriff Dennee realized there was a need to be able to reach as many people as possible to keep them informed with up to date information regarding severe weather conditions and informational alerts.

To sign up for this service, text your zip code to 888777 and you will receive real-time alerts and advisories directly from the Forest County Sheriff's Office. There is No Charge for registering, but standard text messaging rates associated with your mobile phone service apply. You can opt out at any time by texting "STOP" to 888777. You may also receive alerts through an email; however you will need to visit the NIXLE.Com website to view the instructions to register for that service.

This system is online and you may sign up effective immediately.

Talented area youth helps Forest County Humane Society

Juli Bauknecht and Jay Schaefer

By Boyd Monte

Juli Bauknecht is an amazing young lady. Juli is a ten year old girl from Antigo, Wisconsin who cares deeply for all animals. Juli recently learned of the animal abuse case involving Josephine in Forest County and wanted to help.

Juli has been helping animals since she was five years old. She has raised funds for the Winnebago County Humane Society, Portage County K9 Unit, Clark County Humane Society and Langlade County Humane Society.

Juli has applied for and received a 501 C3, which enables her to have a non profit status which allows her to help needy animals throughout the state of Wisconsin. Juli designed a website, www.caringpawswi.com and is running a silent auction. All of the proceeds raised will go to the medical expenses that Josephine will incur. Josephine is healing quickly, but the cost of procedures, bandages and everyday care has risen quickly.

Juli receives no money from her fundraising work. All the money goes to the needy animals in Wisconsin. The silent auction on her website to benefit Josephine has already started. The auction runs until August 20, 2016. Juli will keep the website updated daily. If you would like to make a bid, you can at www.caringpawswi.com

Sen. Tammy Baldwin toured Kretz Lbr. to highlight Wisconsin's timber economy

U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin toured Kretz Lumber in Antigo to highlight Wisconsin's timber economy. Senator Baldwin was joined by Kretz Lumber leadership and members of the Great Lakes Timber Professionals Association for the tour.

"Our timber economy in northern and central Wisconsin is facing a number of challenges that need to be addressed," said Senator Baldwin. "Today's tour shows the importance of building on the progress we've made by continuing to work with industry stakeholders in Wisconsin and the U.S. Forest Service. By working together, we can help create a more stable supply of timber from our federal lands, while sustainably managing our resources."

Senator Baldwin has been a strong supporter of Wisconsin's timber economy. She has championed the use of Good Neighbor Authority in Wisconsin, which was established by an agreement signed by the Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest and the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources in 2015. Good Neighbor Authority was passed in the 2014 Farm Bill, which Baldwin supported. It allows the Forest Service to enter into agreements or contracts with states to have them perform forest, rangeland and watershed restoration services on National Forest System lands. Senator Baldwin has also fought to end "fire borrowing," where U.S. Forest Service funds have been regularly diverted from Wisconsin forests to fight wildfires in the west.

Report deer sightings to Operation Deer Watch

Wisconsin's residents can help with deer herd management by participating in this year's Operation Deer Watch, an annual citizen-science survey that collects information on deer. Data from this survey provides insight to the reproductive status of Wisconsin's deer herd for 2016 and helps shape deer management for the state.

"This is a fun and useful opportunity for all individuals and families to enjoy Wisconsin's plentiful wildlife," says Brian Dhuey, DNR surveys coordinator. "The Department of Natural Resources encourages anyone interested in deer, from hunters and trappers, to outdoor enthusiasts to take part."

To get involved, record all bucks, does and fawns seen during the day from Aug. 1 to Sept. 30. Daily observations can be tracked using an online tally sheet available at dnr.wi.gov, keyword "deer watch."

Data from the survey is additionally used by County Deer Advisory Councils (CDAC) when developing deer season framework, harvest quotas and permit level recommendations.

Kentucks, of course, are from many nationalities, with the majority probably being English or Scot, but they also came from French, Dutch, German and other nationalities as well. The common thread here is that they came to the area to improve their lot in life. Cutover logging lands were available at cheap prices and good terms from the big lumber companies in Forest County at that time.

Life in Kentucky, as I have been told by some of the old timers, was rough. They were living on mountainsides very often, and because of the lack of opportunity or the ability to purchase lands for farming, sons and daughters often ended up staying with their parents well into adulthood.

In addition, Kentucky was a border state during the Civil War, and families became split by different allegiances to the Union or the Confederacy. It was often easier to just leave. When a family member came here and work was available he would write home and tell his family, who often followed.

A good example of this was told to me by Oliver Campbell, who came here as a teenager in the years before World War I. He took a walk down the street in Crandon, and was approached by three different men who wanted to know if he needed work. He was amazed. As he described it, there was periodic work back in Kentucky, and the future looked bleak. This was a whole new world.

That is not to say that everything was easy and the money poured into everybody's pocket. It took hard work to get ahead, but at least the work was available. There was also a collision of cultures.

When the big sawmills located here, they brought people with them, and others moved to the area with the money that it took to start a business. The majority of these entrepreneurs were from out east. They had better opportunities to acquire an education, had the chances back in New York or Maine to build up some savings, and they were here to take advantage of the lumber boom brought on by companies like Page and Landeck, who had just built a big sawmill on Clear Lake in Crandon.

The old newspapers of the time loved to portray the Kentucks as a lower class of citizen, and certainly, some of them were lawless. This isn't that surprising when you take into stock that they had left a state with constant fighting between these people with the different allegiances that started with the Civil War.

Of course, most were hard-working. They came from a place where hardwood logging was predominant, and they knew how to use an axe, pull a crosscut and sharpen that crosscut so it could cut hardwood. Like most people in these days, they also knew how to work a draft animal, like horses and oxen.

The Page & Landeck mill became the Keith and Hiles Mill, and then the Fish Lumber Company bought the mill. In 1921, the mill burned, and there were a lot of people out of work.

What is interesting is that many of the eastern business people started to leave, heading, I assume, for greener pastures and another place to make some easy money. Most of the Kentucks stayed, and a large amount of these families are still here.

Of course, the stereotype of the Kentuck is a fellow taking a nap alongside a whiskey still, with his hound dog and old shotgun by his side. What is not accurate is that making whiskey in the woods was easy work. Wood had to be cut and carried, sugar and grain had to be moved to the site, and an endless supply of good water was also needed and had to be carried. After talking about this business with the old Kentucks through the years, they were quick to say it was a lot of work!

With prohibition and the lack of industry available after the mill burning, making whiskey became an opportunity for many, and the Kentucks, with their heritage of making whiskey, made good stuff, if you can believe the old timers. Whiskey made from corn and other grains was an easier way to get your produce to market in the mountains of Kentucky, so there was a practical side to this trade.

Illegal whiskey paid for a lot of meals, clothes and other necessities in those years. Distilling provided jobs and money, but so did the transport to markets, which included Chicago and even St. Louis. The business went on to provide incomes even after the repeal of prohibition, because it was also a way to keep from paying taxes on the booze.

So time has passed, and most of us who claim some Kentucky heritage are descendants of people who were Kentucks and those who weren't. But, it is good to remember where we came from, and the people who worked and sacrificed to give us this beautiful place to live. For these same reasons, Armstrong Creek was settled heavily by Polish people who also came seeking land and opportunity, and that community will be celebrating their heritage this weekend also.

Be Food Safe

- 10 tips to reduce the risk of food borne illness:
- CLEAN
1. Wash hands with soap and water - Wet hands with clean running water and apply soap. Use warm water if it is available. Rub hands together to make a lather and scrub all parts of the hand for 20 seconds. Rinse hands thoroughly and dry using a clean paper towel. If possible, use a paper towel to turn off the faucet.
 2. Sanitize surfaces - Surfaces should be washed with hot, soapy water. A solution of 1 tablespoon of unscented, liquid chlorine bleach per gallon of water can be used to sanitize surfaces.
 3. Clean sweep refrigerated foods once a week - At least once a week, throw out refrigerated foods that should no longer be eaten. Cooked leftovers should be discarded after 4 days; raw poultry and ground meats, 1 to 2 days.
 4. Keep appliances clean - Clean the inside and the outside of appliances. Pay particular attention to buttons and handles where cross-contamination to hands can occur.
 5. Rinse produce - Rinse fresh vegetables and fruits under running water just before eating, cutting or cooking. Even if you plan to peel or cut the produce before eating, it is important to thoroughly rinse it first to prevent microbes from transferring from the outside to the inside of the produce.
- SEPARATE
6. Separate foods when shopping - Place raw seafood, meat and poultry in plastic bags. Store them below ready-to-eat foods in your refrigerator.
 7. Separate foods when preparing and serving - Always use a clean cutting board for fresh produce and a separate one for raw seafood, meat and poultry. Never place cooked food back on the same plate or cutting board that previously held raw food.

COOK AND CHILL
 8. Use a food thermometer when cooking - A food thermometer should be used to ensure that food is safely cooked and that cooked food is held at safe temperatures until eaten.

9. Cook food to safe internal temperatures - One effective way to prevent illness is to check the internal temperature of seafood, meat, poultry and egg dishes. Cook all raw beef, pork, lamb and veal steaks, chops and roasts to a safe minimum temperature of 145 degrees F. For safety and quality, allow meat to rest for at least 3 minutes before carving or eating. Cook all raw ground beef, pork, lamb, and veal to an internal temperature of 160 degrees F. Cook all poultry, including ground turkey and chicken, to an internal temperature of 165 degrees F.

10. Keep foods at safe temperatures - Hold cold foods at 40 degrees F or below. Keep hot foods at 140 degrees F or above. Food are no longer safe to eat when they have been in the danger zone between 40-140 degrees F for more than 2 hours (1 hour if the temperature was above 90 degrees F).
