The Wisconsin Exhibit, A Face For Every Name comes to the Northwoods

Sue Bessert (far right) talking to visitors about the display.

The Wisconsin Exhibit, A Face For Every Name, came to Wabeno during Steam Up Days. The exhibit was on display in the American Legion Sylvan Post 44 hall on July 8 and 9. Sue Bessert of the General Federation of Women's Clubs was responsible for bringing the exhibit to Wabeno.

A Face For Every Name is a traveling exhibit that puts a face to all 1,161 people from Wisconsin that served and gave their life in the Vietnam War. They are all listed on the memorial in Washington D.C. The exhibit goes a step further and has a display of the soldiers that lost their life after they returned from Vietnam. These people are not on the memorial in Washington, but are on the Highground Vietnam Veteran's Memorial in Neillsville, Wisconsin.

The exhibit will be on display in Crandon at the American Legion Hall on July 29. The American Legion Hall is located at 110 West Madison street. For a complete list of towns that the exhibit will be go to www.wpr.org/veterans.

The veterans of Forest County on the Vietnam Memorial, James Bradle of Laona, Dennis Harder of Wabeno, Danny Houle of Hiles, Francis Samz of Argonne and James Wozniak of Armstrong Creek.

Randy Peterson, storyteller, will be at the Wabeno Library

Randy Peterson, a musician and storyteller from Green Bay will be at the Wabeno Library on Tuesday, August 1, at 1:30 p.m.

Dave Ziolkowski story continues Forestry Committee says keep him Personnel Committee says no Still, one more meeting

By Mike Monte

The story continues on as to whether or not Dave Ziolkowski will remain on as the Forest County Forest Administrator.

On Tuesday, July 11, 2017, the Forest County Forestry Committee met at 4:00 p.m. to discuss the issue. As it is a personnel issue, the meeting was closed to the citizenry.

Members of the Forestry Committee voted 4 to 3 to retain Ziolkowski. Voting no to reinstatement were Connors, Dehart, and Otto. Voting yes to retain Ziolkowski in his job was Bunda, Karl, Campbell, and Chaney.

The issue was then brought to the Personnel Committee with the Forestry Committee's vote to keep Ziolkowski on the job. Personnel, however, voted to remove him from his job. The vote was 3 to 2 to remove him, with Chaney, and Schaffer voting to keep him and Lukas, Collins and Dailey voting to fire him.

This is still not over. A special meeting of the full county board will be held Monday, July 17, at 7:00 p.m. to decide Ziolkowski's job status with Forest County.

Laona's Fourth of July Celebration

Laona Ladies Auxilliary Post 6823

The best part of having the 4th of July fall in the middle of the week is the fact that you can celebrate on two weekends. Laona held their annual 4th of July Celebration and Picnic on July 8. The parade started at noon and then the fun filtered down to the Silver Lake Beach. Raffles, great food, refreshments and soaking up the sun's rays made for a perfect afternoon. Here are some photos of the parade for all to enjoy.

The Cowboys return to the Lumberjack Steam Train

The Lumberjack Steam Train approaches. Will the Cowboys be waiting to stop the train? It's a good bet!

Twice a year the Cowboys come to Laona, Wisconsin and rob the Lumberjack Steam Train. In spite of holding up the train several times a day, they are a good bunch of guys! It is always a special time when the Cowboys visit. The period dress, the beautiful horses, vintage guns and all of the other members of the cast of characters that dress in the clothing appropriate to that time in history, when the Old West was truly a frontier. This includes the ladies! Don't worry, the sheriff will be there to try to keep these guys in line, and if he fails, the preacher will be there to offer solace.

Sure enough! The Cowboys are robbing the train again!

The Cowboys will be stopping the Lumberjack Special all day on Saturday, July 15th. If you miss this visit of the Cowboys, you will have to wait until September 30 when Fall Festival is in full swing and the Cowboys liven up the train ride again.

After a hard day of robbin' trains, the cowboys need a little relaxation. You can join them at the Big Barn Dance at the Camp 5 Complex. The big barn will be decorated and Country Thunder Band will provide some good ol' foot-stompin' dancin' music. The public is welcome. There is a $5 entry fee. The dance is from 7:00 until 11:00 p.m. Take Connor Farm Road to the big white barn. You can't miss it!

Even without the cowboys there, a ride on the Lumberjack Steam Train will take you back to a time when all travel was by railroad with trains pulled by a steam engine. The Lumberjack Steam Train has been pulling people and freight for 101 years. The old Vulcan steam engine still does the job admirably, and you can ride in a vintage railcar, a caboose or an open boxcar.

When you arrive at the Camp 5 Museum Complex, you can tour the logging museum and see the photos of the old logging and sawmill days, as well as look at the vintage tool collections. The exhibits outside are also authentic equipment used during the logging days of earlier times.

The Petting Zoo is a favorite with the kids and adults, as is the Nature Center. Have a sweet tooth? Don't miss the Cracker Barrel store, with its great selection of ice cream, mouth-watering fudge and other delicious candies. And, you can eat lunch at the Choo Choo Hut Restaurant. The Green Treasure Forest Tour is a ride through a managed forest with an explanation of how timber is managed sustainably. Later in the season, you can explore the corn maze or photograph from above with your drone.

To experience the Lumberjack Steam Train, the Camp 5 Museum Complex and the cowboys, stop at the depot on Hwy 8 just west of Laona. The train leaves the depot at 11:00 a.m. and every hour with the final run at 2:00 p.m. To learn more, visit the website at lumberjacksteamtrain.com.

Townsend Flowage Protection District Boating Safety Class Graduates 20

Twenty students attended the boater safety training class held June 16-17 at the Lakewood Townsend Ambulance Garage. The class, sponsored by the Townsend Flowage Protection District, is required for anyone born after January 1, 1989 to legally operate any motorized watercraft in Wisconsin. Every student passed and earned the necessary certification.

"What an especially nice group of young people we had this year," said class facilitator Dan Coopman. "I'd like to thank Sherm Landrie, Bruce Beno, and Carl

Christensen who helped make this a success and DNR warden Paul Hartrick who came from Oconto Falls to help start this group off in the right direction.

TFPD has six certified Boater Safety instructors, all of whom volunteer their time for this activity. This is the group's seventh year of offering training sessions.

Wisconsin Dual Sports Riders visit Wabeno

In early June, our friends from Wisconsin Dual Sport Riders brought well over 200 of their closest friends to invade Wabeno to embark on their 2017 Ride for Research.

The Ride for Research is a two-day American Motorcycle Association National Event.

This event is a fund raiser for UW Carbone Cancer Center in Madison, WI. All raffle and auction proceeds are donated to UW-CCC. Donations are collected by club members and event participants. In the past, representatives from the UW Cancer Research Center usually come to the event to thank the club and participants for their support and to inform them of the research they have been able to perform because of the fund raising the club has made over the years. This is truly exciting and rewarding for the Wisconsin Dual Sport Riders to support research at UW-CCC to cure breast and colon cancer.

Dual sport is a type of motorcycle riding which is a mix of off road trails connected with the use of roads. Participants of our events are from WI but we also draw participants from throughout the United States. Trails are used with permission and/or permits through the USFS, County forests, and private landowners. Trails range from 2 track, gravel, minimal pavement (as little as we can), and single track sections that are optional

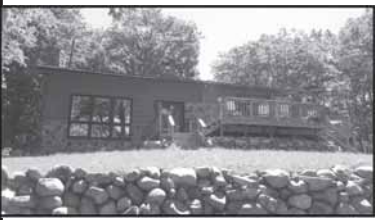

One of the riders sent up a drone to take pics of the Fire Fighters Park over the weekend that the riders were in town.

Check fish consumption advisories online

With fishing season underway in Wisconsin, you may be enjoying some freshly caught fish. Eating fish is part of a healthy diet, as fish are generally low in calories and fat and high in protein. However, some fish contain chemicals that can hurt a person's health. For this reason, it is important to check fish advisories online and choose which fish to eat based on these advisories.

The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) updates fish advisories periodically. These advisories contain information specific to women of childbearing age, children under the age of 15, men, and older women. You can search your specific county and water body location at the DNR website: <http://dnr.wi.gov/FCSEExternalAdvQry/FishAdvisorySrch.aspx>

Children and women who are pregnant, or who may become pregnant, are most impacted by these chemicals in fish. Following the Wisconsin Department of Health Services' (DHS) and the DNR's information for choosing safe fish to eat reduces the chances of eating fish with harmful chemicals.

Eating the right fish provides us with many nutritional benefits. Fish are high in omega-3 fatty acids, which support crucial brain development in babies and heart health for all. Fish are also a source of high-quality protein. Since fish are naturally low in calories, they can also help you maintain a healthy weight.

For more information about safe fish consumption, visit the DHS website <https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/environmental/fish.htm> or contact Emmy Wollenburg at 608-267-3242 or the Forest County Health Department at 715-478-3371.

New Rules Proposed with Respect to Arbitration Provisions for Nursing Home Residents

Submitted by Kathy O'Melia

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) reversed its course on arbitration provisions. The Trump administration proposed rescinding an Obama-era regulation that prohibits nursing homes from forcing patients and their families to sign binding arbitration agreements as a condition of admission. Under the Obama administration, CMS proposed to prevent facilities from entering into arbitration provisions with their residents and also banned facilities from requiring arbitration agreements to be admitted.

Now CMS's newly proposed rule will allow facilities to enter into arbitration provisions with residents and allow facilities to require arbitration agreements for new resident admissions. Instead of a complete ban on arbitration provisions, CMS's new proposed rule requires that an agreement for binding arbitration be explained to the resident and his/her representative in a manner that he/she understands, and that the resident must acknowledge that he/she understands the agreement. The agreement may not prohibit or discourage the resident or anyone else from contacting federal, state or local officials.

Many advocates for nursing home residents oppose the use of arbitration provision for the following reasons:

- First, many residents simply do not consider or understand the ramifications of signing these agreements when they are entering a nursing home; particularly because they have to sign so many other forms for the nursing home to admit them. When entering a facility, the resident and family are not thinking of litigating poor care; they cannot envision they may be involved in disputes about pressure sores, choking, dangerous bedrails, dehydration, sexual assault, or even death. Yet the arbitration agreement most likely covers every aspect of the resident's care and life in the facility.

- Second, prospective residents may be frail, have chronic health conditions, and frequently come directly from a hospital. The resident and their family is usually under extreme pressure to have the facility admit their loved one. No other beds may be available for the same level of care or at the same cost in the geographic area.

- Arbitration agreements prevent residents and families from being able to utilize the court system to pursue legal remedies and enforce rights obtained in court.

The National Consumer Voice for Quality Long-Term Care is the leading national voice representing consumers in issues related to long-term care and it called CMS's new position to move to "rescind resident protections." Yet, the nursing home industry prefers arbitration since it offers a less costly alternative to lawsuits.

Comments on this proposed rule are due on August 7, 2017. You may submit electronic comments on the new proposed regulation to <http://www.regulations.gov> (enter "Arbitration Nursing Home" in the search field and then click on the "comment now" button on the right of the screen), or by regular mail to Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Department of Health and Human Services, Attention CMS-3342-P, PO Box 8010, Baltimore, MD 21244-1850.

3rd AmeriCorps Team arrives in Wabeno on July 29th

An AmeriCorps-National Civilian Conservation Corps (NCCC) team will spend 4 1/2 weeks in Wabeno working on the final 323 ft of elevated barrier-free boardwalk and trail and a gravel trail to Fairview Street which is part of the Wabeno Parks Improvement. Their priority will be to complete the elevated boardwalk along the N Branch of the Oconto River to Range Line Creek and meet the gravel trail along the creek. This will complete a mile and a quarter nature walk through downtown Wabeno. As time and weather dictate, the Maple 7 Team will work on other park projects, community events and volunteer activities. The team will be in Wabeno July 29-August 31, 2017. Our previous teams rated Wabeno as having the most generous, friendly residents with the best housing accommodations they had experienced. Thanks to all who threw potluck dinners, arranged tours of Lambeau Field, provided pontoon rides, offered a day at the lake and grill outs and took the time to get to know them. Perhaps that is why they are coming back this year. Please say hi to the team members. You will recognize them by their team t-shirts and slacks!

AmeriCorps NCCC is a full-time, team-based residential program for men and women age 18-24 whose mission is to strengthen communities and develop leaders through direct, team-based community service in partnerships with non-profits, schools, local, state, federal and tribal governments, and national and state parks. The 24-year-old program is drawn from the successful models of the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) of the 1930s and the U.S. military. AmeriCorps NCCC is built on the belief that civic responsibility is an inherent duty of all citizens. Wabeno is very appreciative of again being selected to sponsor a team to work on the parks improvement project.

Statewide campaign underway to stop aquatic hitchhikers

Clean Boats Clean Waters (CBCW) is an aquatic invasive species control program where trained staff and volunteers increase public awareness about the growing problem of aquatic invasive species (AIS). Crews also assist boaters in taking preventative steps to avoid spreading AIS through understanding local laws and regulations. Recreational boating is a major contributor for the spread of aquatic invasive species which can have significant impact on natural resources, human health, and the economy. Non-native species introduced into an ecosystem can sometimes explode in numbers due to the lack of natural predators, disease, or competitors. This unnatural increase of population can have severe impacts. Michigan has more than 900,000 registered boats that can spread AIS from one body of water to another, including 11,000 inland lakes or the Great Lakes, bays, and connecting channels.

Michigan's 4th annual Landing Blitz campaign runs from July 1st-9th 2017 and Wisconsin runs this campaign over the 4th of July weekend as well. This campaign is an outreach event meant to allow local partners to communicate prevention methods to the public to prevent the spread of AIS from watercraft carriers and equipment to bodies of water. Staff and volunteers will demonstrate how to visually check and decontaminate boats and equipment for AIS, raise awareness of Michigan's laws and regulations, distribute FREE merchandise and handouts with prevention messages, and record data from the event.

The law requires boaters to remove aquatic plants from boats and boating equipment before launching, drain live wells and bilges of all water before leaving the access site, not dispose of unused bait in the water, and to not transfer fish to other bodies of water than where originally caught. It is also recommended to wash your boat or let your boat and equipment dry for 5 days before moving to a different waterbody to prevent the transfer of AIS.

The Wild Rivers Invasive Species Coalition, a cooperative invasive species partnership operating in northeast Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, owns and operates several portable boatwash units in the area and frequent local landings every Friday-Sunday during the summer. Keep an eye out for our crews and swing by to get your boat washed for FREE!

Only through public involvement can aquatic invasive species be minimized or controlled. For more information or to volunteer for the CBCW program, contact Lindsay Peterson at (906) 774-1150x102 or willdriverscwma@gmail.com.

Recipe for a blast at Summerfest in Crandon

Recipe for a blast at the Crandon Lions Summerfest includes watermelon, rubber bands, a kayak, paddle board, the beach, a bunch of fun-loving kids of any age (9 years to 90) and cash (all gamblers are welcome). If you missed the fun last year, you won't want to miss this year's challenge.

The event has one member of your two person team kayak or paddle board to an anchored pontoon boat. BYOB or they have some to use. The contestant will pick up a package of rubber bands from the pontoon and return to shore where they join their partner and proceed to place as many rubber bands around the watermelon as they can in 30 seconds.

The winning team is chosen when the melon explodes during their time period. The winning team will split a portion of the pot with the person in the audience who buys the square with the final rubber band before the blast. The judges' ruling is final. No whining.

See you Saturday, July 15 at the Crandon City Beach. The first heat begins at 1 p.m.
