Death Notices

Eugene (Gene) Earl Evrard rode his Harley off into the sunset on August 29, 2017 at age 71. He was born August 9, 1946 in Oconto County to Edward E. Evrard and Evelyn A. (Fenn) Evrard.

Gene grew up in Townsend, Wisconsin and graduated from Wabeno High School. After high school he attended University of WI Stevens Point, UW Platteville, UW Green Bay and Northern Michigan University Graduate School of Business in Marquette, MI, where he obtained his degree in Master of Business Administration. He worked for Dickinson County Hospital System in Iron Mountain, MI as the Vice President of Human Resources and Planning.

He also served in the United States Army and served a combined 6 years of active and reserve duty, with honorable discharge, achieving rank of SP5 E5. In the Army, he served as a Personal Psychology Specialist and was the recipient of the National Defense Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal (OLC), Good Conduct Medal and Expert Badge (M-16).

Gene loved his children and grandchildren unconditionally. He was a lover of knowledge, endless researcher, history buff, tech guru, and wildlife photographer, an avid outdoorsmen, black bear whisperer, Harley rider, gun collector, knife hoarder, and excellent marksman. Always practical, Gene lived a simple life surrounded by note card reminders, trees, and wildlife. One of his greatest pleasures was riding his Harley with cherished friends.

Gene was preceded in death by his grandparents; his father, Edward; mother, Evelyn; brothers, Jim and Joe; and other aunts and uncles.

He is survived by his daughters, Stacy (Greg) Evrard of Appleton, WI and Jen (Neil) Larson of Appleton, WI; son, Nathan (Sara) Evrard of West Bend, WI; his children's mother, Victoria Baker; sister, Jerrie (Russ) Jacobus; grandchildren, Tyler Oien, Ciara Ellis, Ivy Evrard, and Noah Larson; great-grandchildren, Zach Ellis, Riley Oien, and Arkham Marvin and many nieces and a nephew. Gene also had several close friends and relatives that added great meaning to his life here on earth: Butch Soderbeck, Jeff and Vicky Radish, David Jacobus, Todd Estreen, and Billie Scharver.

Visitation was held at Weber-Hill Funeral Home, 1768 Oconto Ave Wabeno, WI, on Saturday, Sept 2, 2017 from 10-11 a.m. with a small funeral to follow, officiated by Bishop Russell Jacobus. Condolences may be left on Eugene Evrard's guest book at www.weberhillfuneralhome.com.

Johann Irene (Wickham) Gobert, age 84, passed away at her home on Saturday, September 2, 2017. She was born on June 28, 1933 to the late Archie and Dorothy (Gretzinger) Wickham.

Most people will remember Johann for her delicious food at the Crandon Arcade, especially her coleslaw. Johann enjoyed camping with her family and playing cards with her friends.

Johann is survived by her daughter, Irene (Robert) Keller; sons, Gary Gobert, Dean (Eileen) Gobert and Jay (Michelle) Gobert; grandchildren, Joe, Melissa, Danni, Michelle, Kristen, Jessica, Jenna, Sam and Jeremy; great-grandchildren, Stephanie, Rob, Zack, Marissa, Haylee, Reese and Kennedy Jo; and brothers, Harold (Lois), Jim and John (Gayle) Wickham.

She was preceded in death by her sisters, Jane and Marie; sister-in-law, Betty; and special friend, Sam Plummer.

Per her request graveside service will be held on Friday, September 8, 2017 at 11 a.m. at Crandon Lakeside Cemetery.

Weber-Hill Funeral Home is assisting the family with the arrangements. Online condolences for the family may be directed to www.weberhillfuneralhome.com.

fans were treated to a battle for the bridesmaid position as Pointon held the spot for much of the race, but with pressure from Lunderby. Finally, Pointon went high-side bicycle, relinquishing second to Jake. Then in the closing lap, Zach Martin made one final charge in a bid to return to the podium, and snuck around Pointon for third. "It's muddy out there," Greaves said after the race. "But it's not as bad as it looks...the main line was dry and had some good bite."

FARR NOTCHES SECOND WIN IN PRO MOD UTV

While Rodney Van Eperen has been the driver with the most wins in PRO Mod UTV, it has been the consistency of Kyle Chaney, who has notched seven runner-up finishes and two wins on the season, and sits first in the championship chase. The pressure of being atop the standings may have attributed to Chaney's early aggression, determined driving style, and extra contact. It was enough to put Kyle in the lead early, but in what appeared to be a tire going down, Chaney saw his podium chances flicker and fade. Instead, it was Tim Farr taking the win followed by a hard-charging Van Eperen in second, and Thomas Reihner in third. "I've been racing a long time and I know Rodney has too," said an enthusiastic Farr after the race. "I really had to slow down to go faster on those last couple of laps to hold him off."

Letters to the Editor

We welcome letter to the Editor; however the letters should be legible, in good taste, not libelous and pertinent to current issues. Names will not be withheld upon request, except for very special circumstances. NAME AND PHONE NUMBER SHOULD BE INCLUDED FOR VERIFICATION PURPOSES. We reserve the right to reject any and all letters.

Dear Editor,

I want to recognize the Crandon Public Library, and specifically Michelle Gobert, for the library services I have enjoyed for years, but especially during this summer. Our town is so lucky to have the helpful, motivated staff of our library.

The latest travel series speakers Warren and Linea Dorau put on an excellent, humorous presentation on Northern Europe and their genealogy-inspired trip. And then, just two weeks later, my husband and I, along with a packed room, attended the library sponsored History on Tap evening at the Hotel Crandon, featuring the history of Lake Lucerne. It was truly one of the most entertaining and informative hours we have ever spent.

The library's dedication to these educational and enjoyable programs and also their continuous research of our local history is something our town can be really proud of.

So, bravo to Michelle and the entire library organization, including the Library Board and Friends of the Library, which I encourage every resident of the Crandon area to join. We are so fortunate to have such an active and vital library in our community.

Thank you, Jodi Resch Brownell

Did You Know AARP Ranks Wisconsin 6th in the Nation in Serving Older Adults?

Submitted by Kathy O'Melia

With all of the uncertainty surrounding health care coverage and the funding of public benefits lately, it's nice to be able to celebrate something good happening in our state right now.

AARP (American Association of Retired Persons) comes out with a scorecard each year that ranks each state on its long-term services and supports. The scorecards is meant to show how well each state is serving older adults and people with disabilities.

Of course, there are always improvements to be made and we do have to continue to monitor how potential Medicaid cuts could effect the services Wisconsin already offers. However, for the time being, let's celebrate the fact that Wisconsin continues to be a national leader for aging problems.

The states receiving the highest scorecard rankings this year are as follow: 1) Washington, 2) Minnesota, 3) Vermont, 4) Oregon, 5) Alaska, 6) Wisconsin, 7) Hawaii, 8) Colorado, 9) California, 10) Connecticut racers battled for the "Keys to the Big House". With heavy early morning rain, the track served up a tricky combination of mud, fluff, and slick racing groove. Yet, that didn't deter the record-setting crowds from filling the stands and blanketing the hillsides adjacent to Crandon's legendary Turn One.

Payback Time – CJ Greaves Edges Johnny Out For The Win

The path to this year's PRO 4 championship has been a father-son dog fight since the first race. Coming into the weekend, only 10-points separated CJ Greaves and his father Johnny atop the year-end points standings. While both Chad Hord and Ross Hoek looked to shake up the pecking order early in the PRO 4 final, it eventually turned into another Greaves duel that went down to the final turn.

From the green, it was Johnny getting the early jump and plenty of open track to do what he does best...lay down some wicked fast lap times. In fact, Johnny led every lap, except the one that mattered most. CJ Greaves didn't have the best of starts, collecting plenty of roost within the cab as he watched Hoek and Hord battle for position ahead of him. But it was their back and forth intensity that eventually opened the door for CJ to pass both and set his sights on his father.

As the laps wound down, CJ closed the gap to within a truck length. It was a flashback moment for both drivers to this past spring's Crandon race where CJ was leading until Johnny tagged and spun his son out for the win. This time, the tables were turned and CJ brought the heat into the second to last turn, shoved the nose of his truck under Johnny's, and made an inside pass for the win.

"I guess I had that one coming," said Johnny, referring to the contact and subsequent spin that gave CJ the win. "He ran me down and passed me...and that's the way I raised him."

ANDREW CARLSON GRABS HOLESOT AND WIN IN PRO 2

Labor Day weekend at Crandon not only brings out the best in a racer, it brings out the best racers too. Both PRO 2 and PRO Light saw the biggest fields of the 2017 season, and in the mix were past champions, top racers from the West Coast, and even an NHRA Top Fuel drag racer. But full starting grids and a mud-laden track didn't slow Andrew Carlson, who burst from the land rush start, held it on through a slick turn one, and never looked back.

Throughout the 9-lap final, only Brad Lovell had anything for Carlson. Lovell attempted to keep Carlson honest and show him a fender early after the competition caution, but that was as close as he ever got. Lovell looked to have second place well in hand, but a last-lap mechanical issue turned over the position to PRO 2 points leader Luke Johnson, who worked his way up from fifth and passed eventual third place finisher Eric Ruppel in the closing laps.

The win was Carlson's third in PRO 2, who made his debut in the class just a few races prior. "I've struggled at Crandon in the past," said Carlson after the race. "I've never had the holeshot here, but coming through turn one and not seeing anybody...I was ecstatic."

CREAM RISES TO THE TOP AS KYLE KLEIMEN WINS AGAIN

With racers coming from literally all over North America for the biggest weekend in short-course racing, the final PRO Light field was stacked with talent as 18 trucks came to the line for the legendary land rush start. But as the old adage goes, the cream rises to the top, it most certainly did in PRO Light as current points leader and winner of the six races this season Kyle Kleiman grabbed the lead in turn one and never looked back.

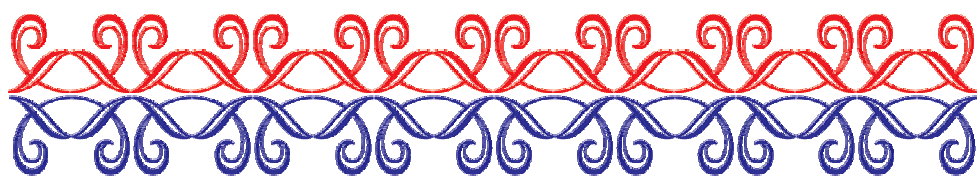

With several new or returning faces in the mix, the running order behind Kyle was up for grabs, but as the laps wore down and the competition caution reset the field, the familiar podium runners of Travis Dinsmore, Cam Reimers, and Cody Kleiman battled for the final two spots on the box. At the line, it was Reimers coming across in front of Cody, who held second place for much of the race, losing it only momentarily in the closing laps, but regained the spot in the final lap.

The win was Kyle Kleimen's seventh of the season, and further tightened his near certain grip on the year-end championship. "After the Red Bud race, we completely rebuilt this truck," said Kyle upon exiting the truck victoriously. "Everyone worked their butts off, but this is what you get from all your hard work and it's paying off."

GREAVES CAN'T BE STOPPED IN PRO STOCK UTV

Apparently, nothing can stop CJ Greaves and his absolute dominance in PRO Stock UTV. Despite executing his worst start of the season on a very muddy track, Greaves once again worked quickly to dispose of the likes of Dillon Pointon, Jake Lunderby, and Robert Loire to find the front and stay there. With Greaves in the lead, Crandon

Vendors wanted for Oktoberfest

The Crooked Lake/Mountain Lions Club is sponsoring the eighth annual Oktoberfest at the Crooked Lake Community Center on Saturday, October 14th. For only $10 a space, crafters can sell their goods in an 8 X 10 outside space. Vendors will need to supply their own tables, etc. There are only twelve spaces available so people attending the Oktoberfest will have time to check out all the displays.

On a nice sunny fall day as many as 250 people will walk through the beer garden and browse at the crafts that are for sale. The event includes a meat raffle, hay rides through the area, pumpkins for kids to decorate, and music, all topped off with a delicious meal of roasted pig and German side dishes.

For more information and to reserve your craft space, please contact Cassie at (715) 276-6196.
