Nicolet Live! Performing Arts Series features wide range of events for 2019-20 season

A tasty menu of music, plays, comedy, and film makes up the Nicolet Live! Performing Arts calendar for the upcoming season, with 20 events tailored to a variety of tastes. The always popular series begins in September 2019 and runs through June 2020.

All events will be held in the Nicolet College Theater.

"We have a truly exciting lineup this year," said Nicolet College Theatre Director Jim Nuttall. "There's comedy improv from Second City, the acappella vocal group Tonic Sol Fa, a children's musical, a holiday concert with violinist Randy Sabien, and a host of other events with excellent performers, some of them nationally known. I think almost everyone in the area, including kids, will find something they want to attend."

The award-winning Lebanese film, The Insult, begins the series on Tuesday, Sept. 17. It tells the story of how an emotional exchange between a Lebanese Christian and a Palestinian refugee escalates into a court case that rivets the nation. The film provides a window into Mideast politics and culture that can leave audiences rethinking how they view this part of the world - and ours. The Insult was shown at the 74th Venice International Film Festival, where lead Kamel El Basha won the Volpi Cup for Best Actor. It was also an Oscar nominee for Best Foreign Language Film at the 90th Academy Awards.

The film, which is subtitled, will be shown at both 1 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Admission is free. Following The Insult, host Elaine Strite will lead a discussion about it and answer questions. Strite lived and worked in the Middle East for 27 years and has a master's degree in Near Eastern Studies from the University of Michigan.

"The film is set in Lebanon and focuses on difficulties between different segments of its population, but in a larger sense the film is about reconciliation," said Strite. "It's about dealing with people as individuals, not caricatures of the group they hail from. It's about the universal values of civility and tolerance, which makes it very relevant to what's going on in the political life of our country right now."

Strite has shown films about the Middle East throughout our region to further understanding of the people and their lives in those countries. "This film and others I've chosen capture aspects of the Middle East that we're rarely exposed to here - that people there are much like us and just want to raise their families successfully and have good lives. Sure, there are cultural differences that may be unfamiliar to us but in the end, the citizens of Middle Eastern countries want what all human beings want."

Other notable performances and events in the Nicolet Live! Performing Arts series include:

The Art of Dining, a comedy presented by the Nicolet Players November 8 to 10 and November 14 to 17. (Sunday performances are at 2 p.m.) The quirky fun begins when Ellen, an accomplished gourmet cook, and her husband Cal, who's mad about Ellen's culinary creations, open a chic new restaurant in their home. The audience is treated to an evening of mayhem as Ellen and the jittery headwaiter Cal struggle to satisfy a group of eccentric diners. You don't need to be a gourmet to enjoy what many critics feel is author Tina Howe's funniest play. Howe's Pride's Crossing won the New York Drama Critics Circle Award for Best Play in 1998. $10 general public and $8 for students and seniors.

Meet Me Under the Mistletoe: A Holiday Concert with Randy Sabien, Tuesday, December 10. Join us under the mistletoe for a feast of holiday songs and good cheer with violinist Sabien. Treasured throughout the region for his spirited, inventive style and his mastery of rock, jazz, blues, swing, and funk, Sabien will play both seasonal favorites and his own holiday compositions. $15.

Magnolia North concert, Wednesday, January 8. Rhinelander native Steve Foltz, of the award-winning bluegrass band Trout Steak Revival, created Magnolia North with his wife, Jennifer Middleton, as a platform for their love of good songwriting and each other. The result is a warm Americana mix of country, folk and bluegrass that evokes the landscapes from which this music sprang. $15.

Tonic Sol Fa concert, Saturday, February 1. This Emmy and Grammy Award-winning acappella group, using only their voices and a tambourine, has become a leading force in the world of vocal music. Based in Minnesota, Tonic Sol Fa is known for its outstanding arrangements and compositions as well as its thrilling vocal performances. The group has been featured in three PBS specials and has sold more than 2 million albums. $20.

Boat Patrol and Friends to perform Sept. 19 at Nicolet

The homegrown sounds of Boat Patrol will fill the Nicolet College Theatre when the Northwoods-based band performs Thursday, Sept. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

The trio creates improvisatory, exploratory music somewhat in the manner of the Grateful Dead, which was a major influence on the band's members. Boat Patrol also draws from genres such as jazz, funk, and electronic music.

The members of Boat Patrol are brothers Daleth and Cai Mountjoy, on keyboards and bass, respectively, and Evan Verploegh on drums. All three players live in Newbold, near Rhinelander.

Several other local musicians will join Boat Patrol during the performance. The roster includes Scott Kirby, Traci Stinebrink, Nate Sheppard, Jaron Childs, and Brett Schwartz.

Boat Patrol is dedicated to the ethos of making it up as they go along.

"We never know what will happen until we start playing," said Verploegh "Anyone in the group can start something and the rest of us will fall in line."

As long as we're listening to each other and our ears are wide open, it all works. I trust that the others will have my back and they trust me to have theirs."

Boat Patrol was born from a collaboration between Verploegh and Daleth Mountjoy, who began playing as a duo about three years ago. The two musicians, who had overlapping tastes and influences, began improvising together to create a musical dialog.

Ten months into their project, Cai Mountjoy, who plays several stringed instruments and has a strong interest in bluegrass, moved to the area from Missouri and was asked to join in as a bassist.

"He added something unique to what Daleth and I had," said Verploegh. "He doesn't play bass in the traditional way. He's more melodically oriented. The intuitiveness that Daleth and Cai have with each other as brothers also adds something special to the mix."

For the Nicolet date, Boat Patrol invited a number of other musicians to join them on stage to draw attention to the vibrant musical community in the Northwoods. Stinebrink and Schwartz are singer/songwriters. Childs plays lap steel guitar and Sheppard plays keyboards and Vocorder, a device that can mix voice-created signals with the sounds of an instrument connected to it. Kirby is a popular songwriter and guitarist who performs throughout the Northwoods.

Boat Patrol brings a wide range of influences to bear on their music. Verploegh was inspired by jazz icons like Miles Davis, Wayne Shorter, John Coltrane and the remarkable drummer Elvin Jones, and younger drummers like Brian Blade and Dave King (the Bad Plus). Daleth listens to a lot of hip hop and electronic music and is a big Randy Newman fan. Cai is drawn to both newer Americana/bluegrass acts like Nickel Creek and the Punch Brothers as well as the father of bluegrass, Bill Monroe.

Of course, threaded into the mix for every Boat Patrol member is the Grateful Dead. "The way they mixed music from so many genres and always explored beyond the written music—that's exactly what we're up to, as well," said Verploegh.

An Evening with Boat Patrol is part of the Nicolet Live! 2019-2020 Performing Art Series. Tickets are $10 and can be ordered online at nicolelive.com or by calling (715) 365-4646.

Senior Chatter

Many Seniors Will be Unable to Afford Housing and Health Care by 2029

More than half of U.S. seniors considered "middle income" will be unable to afford needed assisted living and other forms of senior housing a decade from now. This is according to new research published in the May issue of the Health Affairs journal. The authors define middle-income seniors as people unlikely to qualify for Medicaid long-term care without first spending down their assets, but unable to afford the current housing product offerings for seniors. The study shows a critical void in future U.S. housing needs for seniors at a time when more than 10,000 baby boomers are turning 65 each day.

Over the past four decades the market for senior housing and care has greatly expanded. This was done to accommodate people with more complex health needs. Unfortunately, the cost of these housing options is often out of reach for this country's 8 million middle-income seniors. The private senior housing industry generally focused on higher-income people instead.

This problem will likely only increase as the number of middle-income seniors is projected to nearly double to 14.4 million by 2029. Sixty percent of this group is projected to have mobility limitations and 20 percent will have high health care and functional needs. As a result, many of these seniors will likely need the level of care provided in senior housing, such as assisted living and independent living communities, but the study projects about 54 percent of middle-class seniors will be unable to afford the type of senior housing they may need.

To date, resources have been focused on groups other than middle-class seniors. Private senior housing developers have built ritzy complexes aimed at high-income people with high rents to match said lead researcher Caroline Pearson. Meanwhile, for lower-income people, government provides housing and care services but solely via means-tested programs such as Medicaid. Neither the private sector nor government programs have addressed the needs of those seniors who lack enough saved for a deluxe retirement home but have saved enough that they do not qualify for Medicaid, the experts explained. "Many of these folks are stuck in that gap in the middle, and right now the only answer for many of them will be to spend down as fast as you can to qualify for Medicaid," said Robert Kramer. He is the founder and strategic advisor of the National Investment Center for Seniors Housing and Care, the group that helped fund the study.

At the same time, if all middle-income seniors qualified for Medicaid, it would severely strain the resources of the program. If future middle-income seniors avail themselves of the Medicaid program, it would blow a financial hole in the Medicaid program, Pearson said. "You could explode the cost of Medicaid by having lots more people enroll" she added.

The report recommends that alternative solutions are needed to serve the millions of middle-income seniors. The report highlights that innovations from policy makers and private-sector housing operators and their investors will be required to serve middle-income seniors. The report provides a whole list of possible innovations, such as expanding subsidies or voucher programs to allow more seniors to access senior housing or new incentives to encourage long-term care financial planning.

Three Lakes Lions Club to Host a presentation on Leader Dogs for the Blind

The Three Lakes Lions club to host a presentation about Leader Dogs for the blind with Guest Speakers, BJ Blahnik, a leader dog recipient, at the Three Lakes Center for the arts 1760 Superior St, Three Lakes, WI at 6 pm Wednesday September 11th.

BJ Blahnik and his dog Goober presented at the Three Lakes and Sugar Camp Schools April 12, 2019 his is coming back to present to the community. BJ is originally from Seymour, Wisconsin. He is the youngest of five children and was raised around farming. BJ was diagnosed with Retinitis Pigmentosa (RP) at about the age of 10.

After graduating from Seymour Community High School in 1998, BJ moved to Green Bay, Wisconsin. He worked for Schneider National Inc. until 2010. Due to his diminishing vision, BJ retired which ended his career in management. By attempting many different career opportunities in different corporations, he discovered the challenge of his vision was not allowing him to reach his potential. BJ, along with his wife, Victoria, now own their own business, "Reach Forward," which works with special needs individuals through day services and a residential program.

In 2006 BJ's life was changed forever when he received his first Leader Dog. In January of 2014 BJ returned for his current Leader Dog, Goober, a male Black Lab. Goober was raised at the Fort Dodge Correctional Facility in Iowa.

"Listen to BJ's life journey of walking into the dim with the power of vision" said Collette Sorgel of the Three Lakes Lions Club. "You will hear stories of how a mutated gene changed his life forever yet allowed BJ to recognize that the struggle of vision can truly change what we actually see in life. You'll learn about the Leader Dog for the Blind and how grateful Leader Dog recipients are."

Did you know that a Leader Dog Puppy can have certain things to play with? Deer Antlers are welcome for the Leaders Dogs. Puppy Trainer, Lion Deb Delie, requests you bring any Deer Antlers you are willing to part with, so the Leader Dogs have something to play with. She shares antlers she is given with other puppy trainers. Antler Donations will be accepted at the Three Lakes Center for the Arts.

The workshops are open to adults and students as well. Anyone interested or involved in theatre is welcome to attend. These workshops would include: acting, directing, stage management, improvisation, sound & lights, volunteerism, AACTFest, and state community theater networking. This is also a great opportunity to get to know other theatre people from around the state, share ideas, possibly exchange costumes or props, and have a great time.

The Wabeno Area Players production of Play On will be the featured performance at the conference. Play On will be performed Thursday-Saturday, March 26th-28th 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, March 29th 2:00 p.m. Every performance will be open to the public. Play On is the hilarious story of a theatre group trying desperately to put on a play in spite of maddening interference from a haughty author who keeps revising the script. Act I is a rehearsal of the dreadful show, Act II is the near disastrous dress rehearsal, and the final act is the actual performance, in which anything that can go wrong, does. When the author decides to give a speech on the state of the modern theatre during the curtain calls, the audience is treated to a madcap climax and a thoroughly hilarious romp. Even the sound effects reap their share of laughter.

The mission of the Wisconsin Association of Community Theatre is to foster and encourage the development of the highest standards of community theaters in Wisconsin, including standards of excellence for production, management, governance, community relations, and service to the community and state. We strive to increase communication among theaters, provide educational forums, and performance opportunities for Wisconsin's community theaters. WACT sponsors a festival competition connected with the American Association of Community Theatre's national festival. Over the past years we have sent shows to the regional and national competition. The organization is also a 501c3 organization as well as the Wabeno Area Players.

For more information about the conference, Wabeno Area Players or the Wisconsin Association of Community Theatre please call (715) 889-1606 or email wabenoareaplayers@gmail.com. More performance and event information can be found at www.wabenoareaplayers.org.

Death Notices

Ruth Marie (Lange) Lemke, age 89, of Crandon, passed away on Friday August 30, 2019 at the Bay at Nu-Roc Nursing Home. Ruth was born January 14, 1930, the daughter of Otto and Susanna (Rode) Lange of Laona, the eighth child in a family of nine. She grew up on a farm in Laona, graduating from Laona High School, class of 1947. On October 11, 1947 she was united in marriage to Frank Edmond Lemke Sr. at St John's Lutheran Church in Laona. Following their marriage they moved to a farm south of Crandon.

During her early years of marriage Ruth held numerous jobs in the community including 10 years as a switchboard operator for the Crandon Telephone Company, and three years for the Connor Lumber Company in Laona. In 1968 at the age of 38 Ruth went to college obtaining her Bachelor of Education Degree in 1973. Ruth taught in Townsend and Lakewood before becoming the Kindergarten teacher for the White Lake School District which was the position she held until she retired in 1994.

Ruth and Frank managed the farm along with raising seven children. In 1954 they went into a business partnership with Charles and Winnie Robison producing maple syrup. For many years this was an enterprise that involved both families along with many friends and relatives, and left lasting memories for everyone. Ruth was happiest when family was around and was always delighted when around children. She never refused to babysit a grandchild.

Ruth is survived by her son, Frank Lemke Jr. of Crandon; daughters, Kathryn (Dale) Elliott of Oshkosh, Debby (Mike) Kennedy of Wausau, Lori (Chuck) Sekel, Karen (Jeff) Lehman, and Sandy (Gene) Plummer all of Crandon; and sister, Emma Hoffman of Laona. She is further survived by 13 grandchildren: John Lemke Jr., Judy (Kyle) Fuller, Casey (Debbie) Plummer, Corey (Jessi) Plummer, Kyle (Aleta) Plummer, Carri (Jason) Harris, Nick (Yasuko) Kennedy, Tyler Sekel, Willie Sekel, Kendra Lehman, Ashley Lehman, Andy Lehman, and Ryan Lehman; and 17 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank; son, John Lemke Sr.; grandson, Steve Sekel; brothers, Herman Lange, Daniel Lange and Leonard Lange; and sisters, Frieda (Sig) Milanowski, Martha (Maurice) Attig, Hedy (Edward) Tamin and Esther (Ben) Wilson.

The family would like to thank the staff at the Bay at Nu-Roc Nursing Home for the compassionate care they gave to Ruth.

Visitation was held on Tuesday, September 3, 2019 from 4-7 p.m. at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Crandon and again on Wednesday, September 4 from 9 a.m. until the time of funeral service at 11 a.m. with Pastor Samuel Pappenfuss officiating. Interment will be at Crandon Lakeside Cemetery. Online condolences may be left for the family at www.weberhillfuneralhome.com.

Marilyn L. Collins, 71, of Laona, WI passed away Wednesday, August 28, 2019 at St. Mary's Hospital in Rhinelander. Marilyn was born October 5, 1947 in Laona, the daughter of Michael and Harriet (Hansen) Belland. She was united in marriage to Marvin Collins on May 2, 1970 in Laona. Marilyn was a Mail Carrier in Laona for 36 years. She was a member of St. Leonard's Catholic Church.

Surviving are her husband of 49 years, Marvin Collins; daughter, Amy Chastek of Milwaukee and Becky (Darren) Walentowski of Argonne; son, Christopher (Kimberly) Collins of Elkhorn; 9 grandchildren; sister, Cindy (William) Sharko of Laona; and sister-in-law, Peggy (Belland) Rummel.

She was preceded in death by her parents and brother, James Belland.

Mass of Christian Burial was held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, September 3, 2019 at St Leonard Catholic Church in Laona with Fr. Felix Penetrante officiating. Burial followed at Laona Cemetery. Visitation was held from 9 a.m. to time of service.

Weber-Hill Funeral Home is assisting the family with the arrangements. Online condolences for the family may be directed to www.weberhillfuneralhome.com.

Baldwin announces nearly $5.2 Million in federal funding to reduce opioid overdoses in Wisconsin

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin today announced that $5,195,302 in federal funding was awarded to provide more resources for Wisconsin to address the opioid epidemic through enhanced prevention efforts.

"I have worked in a bipartisan way to make sure local communities in Wisconsin have the federal resources they need to support local prevention, treatment and recovery efforts," said Senator Baldwin. "Washington needs to do more to address the opioid epidemic and a strong partnership with state and local officials is essential to an effective response. I'm confident that Governor Evers will act immediately to put these federal investments to work in Wisconsin to support our continued fight against this deadly crisis."

The federal funding is being awarded to the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (WI DHS) from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Overdose to Action (OD2A) effort that focuses primarily on opioid surveillance and prevention.

OD2A is a three-year cooperative agreement that focuses on the changing nature of the opioid overdose epidemic and highlights the need for a comprehensive public health approach. These funds will support the collection of high-quality data on overdose morbidity and mortality to inform local prevention and response efforts.

As a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Senator Baldwin has been a leader in working to provide more federal funding to fight the opioid epidemic in Wisconsin. She worked to secure $475,579,000 for the CDC's efforts to improve opioid overdose prevention and surveillance that will combat this deadly epidemic and save lives.

An unlucky gull accidently caught by a Metonga fisherman

Dick Abney brought in this unlucky ring billed gull that he found on his property on the hill east of Lake Metonga. Unfortunately, this immature bird went after the bait on a fisherman's hook. It is likely that a perch fisherman on the lake lost his line and bobber and the gull found it.

Everything in this world passes on, but this must have been a prolonged and miserable way to go. The hook was still in the bird's mouth and the line was wrapped repeatedly around his leg which pulled the head down.

The gull managed to fly to Abney's field before it expired.

Ascension expands online care platform to offer consumers 24/7 access

Ascension Wisconsin has expanded its Online Care platform, giving consumers 24/7 access to the compassionate, personalized care they need anytime, anywhere.

Ascension Online Care is an online urgent care that allows a patient to have a one-on-one video visit with a healthcare provider using the device of their choice: a smartphone, tablet or laptop. The cost of a visit is $49 at the time of visit, can be paid using a credit card or HSA/FSA and does not require insurance.

"Ascension Wisconsin is pleased to offer a comprehensive virtual care option for urgent, episodic and nonemergency needs," said Stewart Watson, MD, North Region Vice President of Clinical Services, Ascension Medical Group Wisconsin.

Ascension launched its initial online care program in central and northern Wisconsin in 2015 and Watson adds that this newest version of Ascension Online Care expands services to 24-hours-a-day with video capabilities. It can be used to treat a wide variety of symptoms and conditions, including sinus or upper respiratory infections, non-life-threatening allergic reactions, sore throat/cough, cold/flu, fever, seasonal allergies, and more.

"Ascension Online Care is another way to deliver access to comprehensive care within our trusted network of services, which includes primary, specialty, urgent, emergency and now online care," said Watson. "We are excited to provide this service as an option, so consumers can get the right care, at a time and in a setting that is convenient for them."

Ascension Wisconsin joins all other Ascension markets across the country to offer this comprehensive online care service.
