Guest editorial from Sheriff John Dennee

As you may have heard, you will be asked to vote on a referendum on November 5, 2019. This referendum involves adding 6 more employees to our staff to separate our Jail and Dispatchers to give the citizens and visitors of Forest County dedicated 911 and Emergency Services dispatch. We currently have dual role jailers/dispatchers performing the duties and it has been found that in "today's world" that no longer is the best way to provide these very important services. Inmate behavior and demand is at an all-time high and the ability to service the needs of the inmates and the needs of you, the citizen, calling for help should no longer be juggled. The ability to focus on said demands are of importance to all.

It has been asked already if we are busier and if our call volume is more than this separation is needed. As of today's date, 10-22-19, our total call volume is at 22,308 calls for service for 2019. In 2018, the call volume on 10-22-18 was 13,993. So yes, our call volume is up. It has also been asked about the number of deputies added in recent years and the cost of those deputies. It is true; we have added more deputies to our office due to the changes in society and life here in Forest County. But those recent added Patrol/Investigative/Youth Prevention Deputies are paid fully through a Forest County Potawatomi grant and a Federal Grant.

I am very proud of the trust you have given me and shown me in the past, and I value that. With that said, please trust me when I say that this is a referendum of importance and a need here in Forest County. Please vote on November 5, 2019 and please don't hesitate to ask your law enforcement, rescues squads, and fire department officials if this is needed.

Sincerely,
Sheriff John Dennee

Candidate Spotlight

Anyone seeking political office is invited and encouraged to announce their candidacy in the Candidate Spotlight. It is an opportunity to tell the voters why you are running, goals if elected, etc. It is not a forum for bashing an opponent, and there is no charge.

Tricia Zunker Candidate for Congress in the 7th Dist.

I'm Tricia Zunker, and on Indigenous Peoples' Day, I announced my campaign to represent Wisconsin's seventh district in Congress.

I am a first-generation college graduate, a single parent to a beautiful boy, and an Associate Justice on the Ho-Chunk Supreme Court. I was born and raised in a strong union household in Wausau and come from a family of hard workers.

My dad worked as a laborer with special carpentry skills, and my mom still works at Graphic Packaging in Wausau. My mom has been a union member of USW-Local 2-244 for over thirty years and served as union secretary for over ten years. My grandpa was a farmer who worked on his farm until his body could no longer do farm work -- and that kind of persistence is exactly what defines us Northern Wisconsinites.

Like many Wisconsinites across our district, I'm fed up with the division and inaction that has resulted from a tradition of broken politics. I'm fed up with being ignored by our representation in Congress.

And I've made the decision to do something about it.

I'm running to represent WI-7 in the House of Representatives to challenge a broken system that ignores everyday, working people. And I will work hard every day to bring a strong Northern Wisconsin voice to Washington.

After graduating from college, I went to law school and became a practicing attorney and law professor. In 2013, I was elected to serve my people, the Ho-Chunk Nation, as an Associate Justice of the Ho-Chunk Supreme Court.

In 2018, I was elected to the Wausau School

Meeting set for all Forest Co. Supervisors and voters at the Hotel Crandon

A meeting is being held at the Hotel Crandon that is called by District 21 Forest County Supervisor Randy Burl. All Forest County voters are welcome to attend as are all Forest County Supervisors.

The meeting is on Wednesday, October 30, and will begin at 6 p.m. The object of the meeting is to gather feedback from the public on how the board is doing on current issues and to discuss the upcoming referendum on the hiring of new employees and the expense at the Law Enforcement Center. Questions will be answered about this referendum and the attendant costs to the taxpayers.

Forest County Chamber Open House - Meet the Director

All are invited to the Forest County Chamber of Commerce Open house on October 29 from 4-6 p.m., at the Chamber office on Lake Avenue in Crandon.

Please join us for an open-house reception! Stop by and learn about the new Chamber initiatives that will be rolling out within the next year.

Veterans wanted at the Wabeno American Legion

The Legion Act has now changed the requirements to join the American Legion. Any veteran who was honorably discharged and served at least one day of active duty since 1941 to present day is now eligible to join the American Legion. This includes the National Guard, medically discharged, and those presently on active duty.

Joining the American Legion is very rewarding and does not obligate you to participate in any of the activities the Legion does. Your membership helps other veterans, community needs, and educational programs. The American Legion also has many discount programs available to help save you money. In addition, your son, grandson, or stepson would be eligible to join the Sons of the American Legion and your spouse would be able to join the American Legion Auxiliary.

Please join us for a new membership get together on November 7, 2019 at 6 p.m. at the American Legion Hall at 4494 N Branch St. Wabeno.

Bring your DD-214 and identification. Refreshments will be served.

If you have any questions or cannot attend, please contact George Richards (Commander) at 920-660-4902 or richardsgeorge691@gmail.com. Hope to see you there!

Conservation Corner

Conservation Corner is a weekly article produced by the Forest County Land & Water Conservation Department. For more information, contact Steve Kircher, County Conservationist-Land Information/GIS Director, at 715-478-1387 or by e-mail at lcc@co.forest.wi.us.

Welcome Back to Conservation Corner. First, let introduce myself, Steve Kircher, as the new County Conservationist-Land Information/GIS Director. As I settle in to an office that's been vacant since this summer, I want to give appreciation to the Forest County Land Conservation and Personnel Committees and their confidence in my ability to serve the landowners, farmers, loggers and communities in the protection and enhancement of our wonderful natural resources.

As I begin this new adventure I would also like to give credit to my predecessor and continue the programs and initiatives that he started/established. The people of Forest County can look forward to new and exciting programming from the Land & Water Conservation Department.

Please watch this paper for weekly installments for projects and updates of what is happening in the Land & Water Conservation Department.

GAC Gives Back community service event

To show appreciation and gratitude for the citizens of Goodman and Armstrong Creek, a group of more than 45 community members came together on October 19th for the first ever GAC Gives Back community service event. The group, consisting of 15 family teams, went out into the community to assist the elderly and disabled with raking, yard work, house cleaning, and tree trimming to express thanks for the community's support of the school referendum this past April. Collectively, the event served 13 elderly households. GAC Gives Back was well-received in the community and, thus, will become a bi-annual event, with the next coming sometime in the spring. Be on the lookout then for additional information, including sign-up and volunteer opportunities.

Nicolet Players' The Art of Dining spoofs the restaurant biz

Everyone's heard how tough it is to keep a new restaurant afloat. But "The Art of Dining," the comic play that opens at the Nicolet College Theatre on November 8, gives audiences a bunch of added, hilarious reasons as to why that's true.

"The Art of Dining uses sketch comedy much like Saturday Night Live," said Jim Nuttall, Nicolet College Theatre director. "It's about a night at a chic new restaurant where the couple that own and operate it just can't get it right. Cal, the husband and headwaiter, undermines his wife Ellen, who's the chef, by eating up her creations before they can be served. The patrons add their own problems. And so it goes, with one funny bit after another."

"This is not an easy play to pull off," Nuttall added. "You've got actors who have to deliver their lines, keep the laughs coming, and cook (or eat) live on stage all at once."

"Food director" Marcia Sattelberg, whose job is to make the food prep on stage look real, came to the Art of Dining with a background in theatrical technical direction. She has helped with Nicolet College productions for years, after starting out with high school plays in the 1980s and then professional summerstock in Hazelhurst.

"My biggest challenge is coming up with cooking moves that can be done by someone who doesn't necessarily know how to do that thing in real life," said Sattelberg. "But those actions have to make sense in the show. They have to fit with the dialog, the tempo of the play, and the limited space on stage. There have been lots of re-does until we get something that works."

The food being prepared in each scene isn't always edible. Other times, the action involves real ingredients but the food consumed by the actor is something different. In one hilarious bit, Ellen whips up a supposed Hollandaise sauce using cream, eggs, and so forth but the "sauce" slurped down by Cal is actually pudding.

Unseen by the audience, crews will work backstage to prepare real food, brought onstage by Cal, for the actors to eat when the fake food made onstage just won't do.

Keso-Mode is having a wonderful time rehearsing for the play, and that promises good things for the audiences in November. "With every rehearsal we do, the funnier it gets," she said. "Jim is a fantastic director. He's really bringing out the best in us. I told my family, you're going to want to see this twice because there's so much good stuff going on at once."

Performances in the Nicolet College Theatre take place the weekends of Nov. 8 to 10 and 14 to 17. Sunday shows start at 2 p.m. and all others at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $10 general admission and $8 for students and seniors and can be ordered at nicoletlive.com or by calling (715) 365-4646.

Special desserts prepared just for the play, beer and wine will be available before the performance and during the intermission.

The Nicolet College Theatre is located in the Lakeside Center on the Rhinelander Campus, one mile south of the city just off of Hwy. G.

SPECIAL EDUCATION AIDE POSITION

The Laona School District is looking for a Special Education Aide for the 2019-2020 school year. This position is approximately 29 hours per week and will start immediately. The position requires working with students district wide in both the elementary and high school buildings, which covers grades 4K-12. Because we are a Title I Schoolwide district the candidate must have either an Associate's Degree, have 48 credits post-secondary education or successfully complete a proficiency test to qualify. The deadline to apply is Friday, November 1, 2019.

If interested, please send a resume and letter of interest to:

Jim Bradley
District Administrator

St. John Lutheran Church-Townsend hosting annual Community Thanksgiving meal November 28

St. John Lutheran Church in Townsend will be having its 10th annual Community Thanksgiving meal on November 28 at noon.

St. John thought it would be wonderful to share this day of giving thanks with others are having a Thanksgiving Day Meal and devotional. They will be serving turkey, dressing, potatoes, vegetables, cole slaws, rolls, pies and a beverage.

Please sign up if you are planning to attend the meal so they know how much food to prepare. St. John doesn't want anyone to be alone for holiday. If anyone needs a ride, they will be glad to bring you to church. Free will offering will be accepted.

Please RSVP to Donna 715-304-7244 by Sunday
November 24, 2019 if you wish to join us, volunteer or need a ride to church.

To the Editor:

Last week I attended a meeting hosted by the US Forest Service in Rhinelander. The meeting provided an overview of how “program revenues” generated via Good Neighbor Authority (GNA) could be utilized to the benefit of northern Wisconsin. If you're not aware, GNA is legislation that provides for a partnership between the state and the U.S. Forest Service to harvest timber sales on the National Forest that the US Forest Service doesn't have the capacity to process for sale.

How does Good Neighbor Authority work? The Wisconsin DNR manages and processes timber sales that have already cleared the National Environmental Protection Act (NEPA). The Wisconsin DNR sets up each individual timber sale, sells the sale and collects payment for the sales. All revenues are collected by the DNR and are used to pay for the sale establishment and administration. The remaining revenue is designated as “program revenue” held by the state.

So, what comes of these “program revenues” managed by the state? The dollars must be reinvested in projects that benefit and enhance the National Forests within Wisconsin. As these funds are designated to the state, and not accounted for by the Fed's, the revenues are not calculated in what is known as the “25% Funds.” In short, the “25% Fund” is a formula that determines allocation of dollars to public schools with National Forest properties - the greater the sales, the greater the payment to school districts.

How does, or I should ask “how could,” GNA help Florence County residents and taxpayers? Florence County is comprised of 85,053 acres of National Forest, and during fiscal year 2018-2109, the school district received a total of $127,294.91 from National Forest Income and Impact Aid. This equates to the federal government providing us about $1.50 per acre of the federal property within Florence County. Since 2014, inflation has increased at a rate of 7.6%, yet all total federal revenues coming to our school district have increased a mere .9%. GNA could provide an opportunity to more adequately fund our school district, versus what has come to be a greater reliance on Florence County taxpayers due to decreasing federal, and state, support.

When initial discussions pertaining to GNA were taken up with stakeholders, particularly those representing the forest products industry and local units of government, GNA was seen as a great opportunity to create new revenue streams for towns and the 27 school districts with tracts of National Forest properties. Upon the release of the 2018 Farm Bill, the bill explicitly shared that “program revenues” could only be utilized for projects solely intended to meet the National Forest Management Plan. Somewhere along the line, a change was made in the 2018 Farm Bill that upset what would have otherwise been great outcomes for our towns and northern Wisconsin school districts.

Our local producers and forest product managers are the “boots on the ground” bringing these sales to market. The state of Wisconsin is managing the funds, but there is no direct opportunity for county agencies to utilize the dollars for local benefit unless it directly addresses the management plans of the National Forests. Is this right? Those in the forest products industry are doing the work, the state is managing the dollars, yet the federal government reaps the benefits of the hard work of those within the boundaries of Wisconsin, Florence County and other counties throughout northern Wisconsin.

Our rural townships run on very limited budgets, budgets often devoted to road upkeep. Our taxpayers bear the brunt of funding our schools due to decreasing general state aids, due solely to increasing property wealth. Coincidentally, public properties are a double edged sword for taxpayers in that they do not generate equal revenue per acre for municipalities and schools, and it can be argued they drive the remaining taxable property up in value (economics of supply and demand), hence further decreasing general aids to our schools and local units of governments. These funding formulas see Florence County and northern Wisconsin as “...you're property rich, therefore fund yourselves.” Yet, as we all know, much like nearly all of Highway 64 north, the reality is we're income poor.

I will continue fighting for our children, community and taxpayers, but your help is both needed and appreciated. Please contact the offices of our federally elected officials and encourage them to speak up for the taxpayers of Florence County so that the funds are at minimum calculated into the 25% funds for our schools, and a share of these revenues is distributed to local units of government. The management of our greatest natural resource, the forests, is done via our local logging crews and others in the forest products industry, yet the Fed's want to dictate what's in their best interests, with little consideration for what is in our best interests.

Sincerely,
 Ben Niehaus

(Editor's Note: This is the same situation in Forest, Oneida and Oconto Counties.)

Board where I currently serve as the Board President. On the school board, I work hard to ensure that all children receive a good education, regardless of background, economic status, or family circumstances.

For the communities I currently serve and for the people of Wisconsin's seventh district, I want the same thing: that everyone who is willing to work hard should get a fair shake at a good life with opportunities, stable income, and a community fit to raise a family in.

Like many Wisconsinites, I've watched the systems and the people that were supposed to lift us up actually hold us down. I've watched as communities get ignored and families get left behind.

But like many Wisconsinites, I've also seen what happens when we come together. And I've seen what we can accomplish when we have a government that works for us, not against us.

I know what Wisconsin Strong looks like, and I'm ready to bring that to Washington.

I'm ready to fight to protect coverage for people with pre-existing conditions. I'm ready to fight to revitalize our farming community that has been hit hard by tariffs. And I'm ready to fight to preserve the natural beauty of our district for our children and our grandchildren.

I've always been a hard worker, and I'm ready to work for our families, our communities, our farmers, our small businesses, our unions and our environment. Together I know we can flip this seat and put our government back to work for the people of Wisconsin.

I hope you'll join me today as we launch this effort to give the people of Northern Wisconsin a voice in Washington. If you're ready to roll up your sleeves and get to work with me, join my campaign today by making a contribution.

Coupons for Medicare Beneficiaries and the Federal Anti-Kick Back Statute

Drug companies provide coupons that can reduce or eliminate the cost of patients' out-of-pocket co-payments is to encourage patients to buy the drug. Although coupons reduce individual patients' costs, coupons may increase the cost of prescription drugs for health insurers.

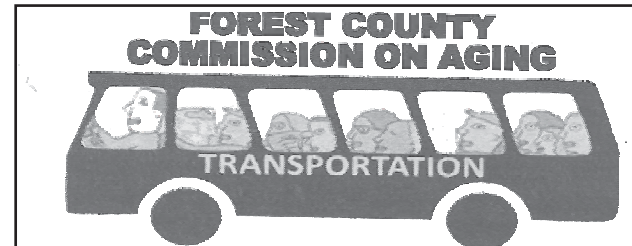

A 2013 study from The New England Journal of Medicine found that 58 percent of coupons were for brand-name drugs for which a lower cost generic alternative was available. Manufacturer coupons oftentimes encourage patients to obtain more expensive brand-name drugs when lower cost alternatives are available. These coupons may reduce beneficiaries' immediate out-of-pocket costs, but if the individuals are enrolled in a Part D plan, the Part D program's cost may increase, ultimately increasing costs to Part D enrollees.

To address this and other issues, Congress enacted a federal law commonly referred to as the anti-kickback statute. The anti-kickback statute prohibits giving anything of value to people covered by a federal healthcare program to gain their business. Manufacturers may be liable under the anti-kickback statute if they offer coupons to induce the purchase of drugs paid for by federal health care programs including Medicare Part D.

Despite the anti-kickback statute, surveys have found that approximately 6 to 7 percent of surveyed seniors reported using manufacturer coupons toward their co-payment for Medicare paid prescription drugs. Applying these results to the population of 36 million Part D beneficiaries means more than 2 million Part D beneficiaries could use coupons to cover prescription drugs.

The consequences for violating the anti-kickback statute are steep. Criminal penalties can include fines up to $25,000 and a five-year prison term per kickback violation. Civil penalties can be as much as $50,000 per kickback violation in addition to three times the amount of damages sustained by the government. In addition, a violation can result in exclusion from federal health care programs including Medicare and Medicaid, and parallel loss of state licensure, hospital privileges, and participation in managed care contracts. The penalty may apply to both the party receiving the kickback and the party making the kickback – upon a showing that the violation was "knowing and willful."

As one example, Walgreens recently agreed to pay $50 million to the federal government and states to settle allegation that it illegally gave discounts to federal healthcare program beneficiaries to encourage them to fill their prescriptions at Walgreens. Walgreens enrolled hundreds of thousands of Medicare, Medicaid, and TRICARE beneficiaries into its Prescription Savings Club, which gave members discounts on drugs and rebates on other Walgreens-branded products such as household, baby care, and grocery items.

LAONA AMBULANCE SERVICE INCREASES LEVEL OF CARE

There is no higher honor than to be given the responsibility to care for another human being, and emergency medical service providers answer the call on the darkest of days. The Laona Ambulance services both the Laona and Wabeno areas including Blackwell, Carter, Freedom, and Caswell currently operating as an Advanced EMT rescue squad serving our community. The ambulance is staffed full time in both locations, offering 24/7 coverage to our chunk of Forest County. Presently, at the AEMT level the ambulance can perform assessments, start IV's and provide IV fluids, give basic medications inside their protocol, perform cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), and emergency birthing assistance. Laona Ambulance Director, Annie Krawze is attempting to increase this level of care by providing an Advanced EMT class to increase the skill level of our local providers. There are 5 EMT's currently in the class set to graduate in February.

Laona Ambulance service will be increasing its level of care through the Wisconsin Flexible Staffing Act 97, which allows for flexible staffing. For the EMS services that are taking advantage of the opportunity it is possible to remain a designated Advanced EMT service, but transition to paramedic level when staffed with higher level of care providers. This service will be able to provide medications previously not available in our community, such as pain medications, advanced cardiac support medications, and antiarrhythmic medications when staffed by a provider licensed to give these medicines. For example, a patient may suffer from Supraventricular tachycardia, also known as SVT, which is an abnormally fast heart beat upwards of 200 beats per minute. In the past, the patient would need to wait until intercept had been made with a paramedic ambulance coming from Rhinelander or Crandon, but the reversal (adenosine) can now be given immediately resulting in less damage to the patient's heart.

Prior to Act 97, Laona and many other rural services were unable to offer more than EMT services. Through the new law, first responders can perform emergency procedures at their highest licensed level. Approval to equip the ambulance service requires the approval of the local medical director, which has been graciously approved by Dr. Banas, Laona's medical director from Ascension St. Mary's of Rhinelander.

Currently, Laona ambulance staffs a paramedic, and three nurses. To become a Paramedic an individual must complete a one year program, log a certain amount of face to face hours, and complete a national certification to obtain a license. A nursing degree entails at least an associate's degree, which includes clinical rotations and a state licensing exam.

With the closest hospitals being an hour or more away from our municipality we are thrilled to have the opportunity for a higher level of care to our residents. Without a doubt EMS workers provide an invaluable service and very literally carry lives in their hands. Thank you to Annie Krawze, and all of the Laona Ambulance Service for your continued dedication and hard work to improve emergency care in the Laona and Wabeno areas.

WEEDS 'n' WALLEYES 2019 THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU

We would like to extend our most sincere THANK YOU to ALL those responsible for making this event another Fun Filled evening of Fund raising.

In a small community, just the thought of another Fund raiser would seem overwhelming.

On the contrary! The outpouring of support provided by this community and our surrounding neighbors was outstanding.

The donated Baskets, Raffle and Auction items were well received. The enthusiasm of the crowd was matched by their generosity.

The success of this event shows how invested the Crandon area Community, Tribal Neighbors, Businesses, Property Owners and everyone who appreciates this exceptional resource.

Funds generated from the event go towards our 10 year Lake Management Plan and Projects outlined in the plan.

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR SUPPORT, LAKE METONGA ASSOCIATION
