Christmas Elves hard at work with the 2019 Christmas on Mainstreet-Crandon

Christmas is a time of strong family traditions and celebrations that honor the meaning of the season. It causes us to think of special people who have touched our lives and our desire to express heartfelt thoughts and feelings through giving. This year we invite the community to share the spirit by sponsoring a memorial tree in memory of a loved one. The cost of sponsoring a tree is $50. There are only eight trees available on a first come, first serve basis. These Memorial Trees will be wrapped in white lights and displayed in the Forest County Courthouse Square.

Please bring your own ornaments to hang on the trees in memory of a loved one if you wish.

Join us for our Christmas on Mainstreet event, Friday, December 6 at 5 p.m. in the Courthouse Square for all the festivities and tree lightening to follow.

Festivities include a live Nativity, Santa passports at our businesses, decorating cookies, chili cookoff, free hot chocolate, and Selfies with a Elfie!

If you are interested in being one of our passport stops or sponsoring a Memorial Tree, please email fcttbu@gmail.com or call Erin at 715-902-0168.

Micro Loans available through FCEDP

Small businesses throughout Forest County looking to make improvements may wish to consider a micro loan available through the Forest County Economic Development Partnership. FCEDP offers this loan program as a very streamlined approach to access funds for capital improvements and expanding one's business. The process is less restrictive than traditional lending offering a low interest rate; making funds available in a relatively brief time period once application is made.

With the micro loan program, up to $10,000 is available with a repayment period of up to 36 months. Several area small businesses have taken advantage of the program over the past three years. An application is available through Forest County Economic Development Partnership at 116 S. Lake Ave. in Crandon. The office is located in the Forest County Chamber office. Contact Mark Ferris, Executive Director, with any questions and to fill out an application.

Ferris can be reached at 920-858-3193 or by email at: director@forestcountywibusiness.com. The office is open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 11-5. Scheduling arrangements are very flexible for other appointment times.

Candidate Spotlight

Anyone seeking political office is invited and encouraged to announce their candidacy in the Candidate Spotlight. It is an opportunity to tell the voters why you are running, goals if elected, etc. It is not a forum for bashing an opponent, and there is no charge.

Wendy Klawitter, Candidate for 12 District State Senate Seat

The campaign of Wendy Klawitter announces that Wendy is running for Wisconsin's 12th District State Senate seat in the 2020 election as a Democrat.

Wendy seeks to represent everyone in the 12th District, not just those with the most money or those in a small geographic region of the district. Wendy believes all voices should be heard, including the young, elderly and poor. Furthermore, Wendy believes the voice of northern Wisconsin isn't adequately represented in Madison, taking a backseat to more urban interests. As a result, education, infrastructure, industry as well as our environment suffers.

Wendy also believes in Medicaid expansion to ensure that the healthcare needs of all Wisconsinites are assured and that legalized marijuana is long overdue as she recognizes the medical benefits for many in our state.

Wendy is a recently divorced mother of 4 adult children and grandmother of 2, having left a 32 year abusive marriage. As such, she is a proponent of increased domestic abuse protections, believing that our current system makes it difficult for abused individuals to break free of their situation.

Please contact Wendy with any questions at (715) 291-8529. She lives in Wausaukee.

Crandon Drama presents "The Elves and the Shoemaker"

Crandon Drama fall production of "The Elves and the Shoemaker," presented by the Middle School students, will take place Friday, November 8 and Saturday, November 9, with both performances beginning at 7 p.m.

The Elves and the Shoemaker is a bit different than the original tale told by Jacob and William Grimm. As an audience member, you will learn how many elves there really were and why they were in the shoemaker's shop in the first place.

If you want to have an entire evening of theater, come Friday night on November 8 to see the Crandon High School Competitive Varsity Team also perform. That's right! There will be a double feature that night with middle school performing first, a quick staging change, followed by the High School Team making the pages of the newspaper come to life in their interpretation of "Between the Lines" by Dennis Bush. All seats are $3 for adults and $2 for students, and FREE for preschoolers.

Come out and enjoy a fun and entertaining evening in the Crandon Auditorium.

The History on Tap presentation will be offered by members of Maple Place, Inc. and will include photos and stories of this iconic building. The program will be held at JARS Bar and Grill, which is located at 4863 Elm Street in Laona. The program is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

Crandon's Jamey Flannery mixes racing with charity

The Lakeland Star Academy and The Howard Young Foundation/Autism Fund received donations of $35,000 and a classic arcade game from Jamey Flannery, right, of Flannery Racing in Crandon. Accepting the donation on behalf of the HYF is HYF chairman Trig Solberg, left.

Staying true to a family history of giving back to charitable causes, Jamey Flannery managed to take time out of an incredibly busy schedule at the recent 50th Anniversary Polaris RZR Crandon World Championship Off-Road Races® over Labor Day Weekend to help others in need. Along with two other off-road race team owners, the local entrepreneur and racer recently donated $35,000 to the Howard Young Autism Foundation.

Forest County Board Update

By Mike Monte

This is a brief update on what the Forest County Board is doing to handle the people's business.

As reported in a previous issue, there has been a flap over replacing the emergency generator at the Law Enforcement Center (LEC). Supervisor Bunda didn't get the votes at the joint meeting of the Finance and Building Committees, but the full county board agreed that there should be more bidders for whatever is done to update the generator at the LEC. There were two bids. One bid was for $299,000 and the other for $219,000.

Since the full board meeting, there have been other ideas presented on the generator issue. A stress test on the existing generator was done last Tuesday. The generator and engine have a little less than 200 hours operating time over the last twenty-some years. The generator passed the stress test with flying colors. It is in very good operating condition, but is still too small to run the entire LEC during an emergency power outage.

Other ideas have come forward, one of which is to leave the current generator where it is and to add another generator that is smaller. The current generator is rated at 150 kilowatts, and it is thought that 200 kilowatts is needed. The idea that an additional generator of 50 or 75 kilowatts would solve the problem is being discussed. The cost savings to the taxpayer would obviously be significant. An electrical engineer has been hired to review the options so sealed bids can be used as per state statute to fix the generator problem.

Where the board will go on this hasn't been decided, but at the Building Committee meeting last Monday evening, a citizen stepped up and offered a free 50 kilowatt generator to the county that was removed from a building project. This generator has little time on it and runs on natural gas, but could easily be switched to propane fuel. During the discussion, the thought was brought forward to accept the gift generator and to think about mounting it on a trailer so it could be used on county structures wherever needed.

The nephew of Crandon International Raceway president Cliff Flannery, Jamey and his wife Pam not only hosted the massive Crandon Gold Ticket VIP Party at his Lake Metonga home prior to the race weekend, but was also instrumental in helping organize and produce the inaugural "Crandon Rocks" concert featuring Kid Rock that kicked off the World Championships. As son of Off-Road Motorsports Hall of Fame (ORMHOF) racer Jack Flannery, Jamey also managed to return to the driver's seat after a long absence, piloting the Flannery Pro 4 truck - backed by Truck Country, McCoy Construction/Forestry, and Cleereman Veneer, in three races prepared by local offroad champion Jeff Kincaid. As part of a long-held tradition of tapping into local volunteers to help keep the track operational at all of its events, Crandon International Raceway donates more than $100,000 annually back to the community via donations and scholarships. Cliff Flannery was also inducted into ORMHOF in 2017.

As hundreds of Gold Ticket guests watched (including Sarah and Todd Palin and NASCAR legend Rusty Wallace), Flannery took the opportunity to continue his family legacy. With uncle Cliff Flannery acting as auctioneer, a vintage arcade video game was revealed and placed on the auction block, but before the auction took place, a big thank you was given to Randy and Jamie of the Fun Company out of Mauston. Team owners Steve Menzies (of Las Vegas) and San Diego's Mark McMillin each bid higher and higher, eventually both offering $10,000 each for the game which they promptly donated back to the autism school.

To top things off, after the weekend was over Flannery donated an additional $15,000 from sales of specially created Crandon racing merchandise to the cause. It has often been said the secret to Crandon's amazing ability to stay vibrant and active is its long heritage of giving back to those in need. In the case of Jamey Flannery, these local roots and the Flannery family legacy are never too far away.

Authorization to establish a different time and date for the 2020-21 annual meeting and budget hearing was given, as well as the authorization to dispose of textbooks and equipment that is no longer needed.

The people of the district also set the annual salary of the school board to $267 a month and not to exceed $3,150 a year. The board holds two meetings a month and spend time at conferences. The board also spends time at home preparing for the meetings and conferences. If a board member is absent, they will not receive payment for that meeting.

The people also authorized the board to borrow short term up to $1,000,000 for current operational expenses or emergencies. The district will have to short term borrow because aid that the district used to receive in October, now does not get received until January or February. A payment plan will be in place to repay the loan.

The final decisions haven't been made, but this should be brought to a conclusion soon.

Architect Jeff Munson did a report on the old sheriff's residence as well as a possible addition to the LEC, which would house a new courtroom and all of the attendant offices and spaces, including judge's chamber and space for the District Attorney. He also discussed the possible remodeling of the old sheriff's residence/jail or the possibility of removing the structure and replacing with a new building. He said that a new building would be less expensive than a remodel, but board members spoke up and said that the public had made it clear that they like the old structure and didn't want it removed. He quoted the cost of a complete remodel as $2,384,200 with the mention that the project could cost more if unforeseen problems are found.

In some respects this presentation was a disappointment, as Munson used the drawings and plans the county paid for from the Wendell architectural firm and rejected along with signing another contract with that firm. It was thought by some attending, that there would be some new ideas that would be cost effective.

The discussion did move to an addition to the LEC. Wendell's plan called for attaching that addition to the east side of the old courthouse, but back then and now, this was considered too expensive and not necessary.

There are some decisions to be made by this board that will be difficult. Certainly, if the old sheriff's residence is to be saved, it will take some remodeling. What wasn't clear at the meeting is what county agency would be placed in the remodeled old structure, or if stabilizing it will provide a space for future use. This brings up the question of how much space is needed if an addition is made to the LEC and the old courtroom and attendant offices are available for other uses.

The county board does have some decisions to make. Overlaying all of this is the cost to the taxpayers and whether or not these proposals are urgently needed at this time, or if planning for the future is necessary.

Forest County Area Artists to Participate in ArtStart Holiday Market

(Rhineland, WI)-ArtStart is hosting its annual Holiday Market Friday November 8 from 4 to 7 pm and Saturday November 9 from 10 am to 2 pm. Artists Colleen Ansbaugh (Wabeno) and Joan White (Lakewood) join Toni Bergeon, Jeanne Debbink, Kathy Furda, Amy Higgason, Robin Harrison, Bill Kingsbury, Lemon Dog Art, Karen Lenhart, Arnie Plaumann, and Nancy Pierce at the two-day market.

Mirroring the traditional open-air markets of northern Europe, shoppers can enjoy grilled award-winning brats donated by Trigs along with sides donated by Rhineland Café and Pub, German pretzels from CT's Deli, live music by the Hymns and Hers on Friday and Nate Sheppard on Saturday, delectable baked goods to savor on site or to take home donated by the GFWC Rhineland Woman's Club, premium coffee, spiced cider, and mulled wine.

"As we enter the holiday, gift-giving season we wanted area artists to have a venue to showcase their work," says Rene Iannarelli, fiber artist and chair of the event. "ArtStart is a great site to host this market. We are between exhibitions, which allows us space for local artists to show their art and provide folks an opportunity to buy one-of-a-kind pieces for themselves or as gifts." Available for purchase are unique, hand crafted works including jewelry, pottery, fiber arts, watercolor art, and more.

Everyone is welcome and there is no admission fee. ArtStart is located at 68 S Stevens Street, Rhineland. Parking is available in the city lot behind McDonalds. For more information visit artstartrhineland.org or call 715-362-4328.

Winter Exhibitions and Reception at ArtStart

Wisconsin painter Craig Blietz and sculptor Meghan Sullivan are featured at ArtStart galleries November 14, 2019 through January 18, 2020. An opening reception for the artists will be held Saturday, November 16 from 5:00 to 7:00 pm. Both artists will give a brief gallery talk about their work.

Agraria reflects the setting in which Craig Blietz lives and works. "My work exhibited here explores the visual narrative of what I consider a humble, hardworking, and well-designed American agrarian scene," says Blietz. His work often evokes feelings of nostalgia for viewers, reminiscent of times gone by.

Blietz has had numerous one-person and group exhibitions throughout the country. He lives and works from his 20-acre home/studio in northeast Wisconsin.

Sculptor Meghan Sullivan, originally from Boston, is currently the Uihlein Fellow of Studio Art at Lawrence University in Appleton and exhibits nationally and internationally.

Revisionist Histories is a series of figurative ceramic sculptures inspired by classical Greek and Roman sculpture. Sullivan reflects, "this body of work is particularly influenced by the experience of observing the alterations to personality that come with advanced aging and memory loss. What of our personality remains and what of ourselves is lost is a question that has been forefront in my mind."

Gallery hours are Thursday through Saturday, 11:00 am to 5:00 pm or by appointment. ArtStart is located at 68 South Stevens Street, Rhineland. There is no admission fee however donations are appreciated.

ArtStart is a nonprofit 501 (c) (3) organization located in the historic Federal Building in downtown Rhineland with a mission to strengthen the community through arts education and cultural engagement.

For more information, contact ArtStart by phone 715-362-4328, email info@artstartrhineland.org, or visit ArtStart's Facebook or website www.artstartrhineland.org.

in opening the first official meeting of the Retirement Security Task Force. Members of the task force were announced this week. Godlewski looks forward to working with this diverse and knowledgeable group of people.

"After years of hard work, Wisconsinites deserve the opportunity to have financial security when it comes time to retire," Treasurer Godlewski said. "Our work will be informed by the stories I've heard traveling around the state on the barriers people face when saving for retirement. I look forward to leading this task force in developing pragmatic solutions that will not only help hardworking Wisconsinites, but also our economy."

"Hardworking Wisconsinites deserve to have peace of mind and feel secure when they retire," said Treasurer Godlewski. "We know the current retirement system is not working and leaving our state and our citizens financially vulnerable. When a majority of folks across our state are feeling anxious about their retirement or that they won't have enough saved to handle retirement expenses, the time is now to tackle this important economic issue."
