Lakes Country Public Library Gets $25,000 Grant from WPS

Lana VanderVest, WPS Foundation Administrator, and Leah VanZile, WPS Corporate Communications/Local Affairs liaison, brought a "Big Check" to Lakewood on July 20, 2022. Their visit was to formally award a $25,000 grant for renovation and expansion of Lakes Country Public Library.

At the presentation that afternoon, Building Expansion Committee fundraising chair Kathleen Marsh affectionately called Lakewood Library the "beating heart" in Northern Oconto County. "Everyone who visits is immediately smitten by the place," she says. "In fact, we have named it 'The Little Library We Love.' That's comes from offering essential services, of course, but our library is known as such a welcoming place because our staff is knowledgeable, warm and friendly."

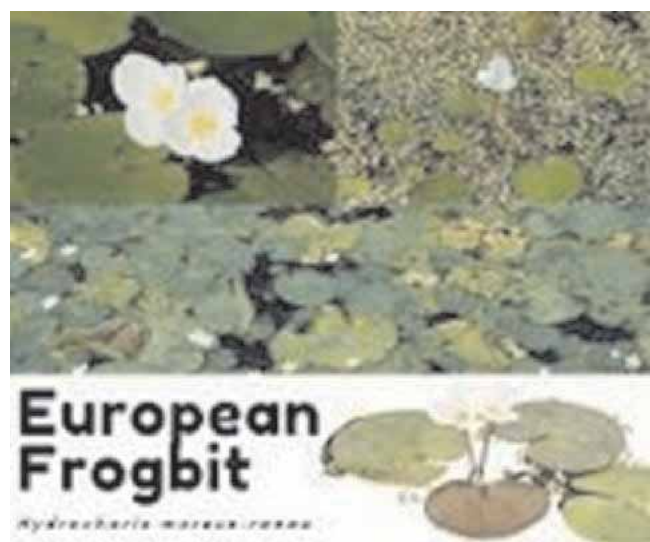

Library Board and BEC member Linda McKenna says the renovation and expansion project will go a long way in assisting an underserved Northwoods area. "Every other community that has a public library also has two or more schools, while, as the only CLIC (Community Learning and Information Center) we must deliver far more than free and convenient borrowing of materials such as books/periodicals/DVDs. Other essential services found here range from making copies to job training to high speed internet to signing up for health care, and so much more."

"We deeply appreciate the WPS Foundation's financial support of what we fondly call "Lakewood Library", says Marsh. "We gratefully accept and acknowledge their generous gift to our capital campaign. The WPS contribution will be added to the library's building fund which includes ARPA funds, private donations, and grants."

"Large donor support is critical because now that we have over 50% of our budget in committed funding," said Marsh. "It has meant that other donors who require that we meet that threshold are stepping forward to ask how they can help."

If you want to be part of this amazing journey, please call (715-276-9020) or visit the library for more information. Donations of any size are greatly appreciated."

Another new Invasive Species is slowly making its way into Forest County. European frogbit is an aquatic invasive species. This means that it is a non-native plant that has evolved to live primarily in water. European frogbit is originally from Europe, hence the name, but has

Lakes Country Public Library Gets $50,000 Grant from Bond Foundation

Project Architect Jeff Musson's Rendering of New Library

The Leon H. & Clymene M. Bond Foundation Board, Oconto, has announced a $50,000 grant award to the Lakes Country Public Library Renovation and Expansion. Board representatives visited the Library in April. "We were so impressed. Lakewood Library is a very special place, with such a knowledgeable, warm and friendly staff," they said. "We could see that the Building Committee is totally devoted to this project, which is why we encouraged them to apply for one of our grants. We are delighted to help them with this funding."

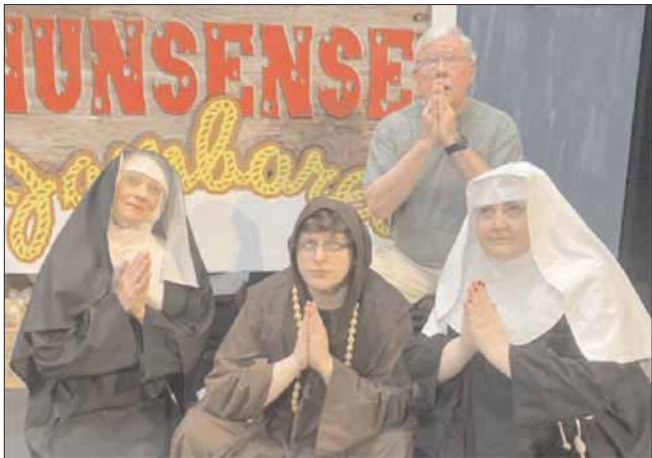

The Bond Foundation is a family endowment committed to the growth and improvement of Oconto County and its surrounding areas. To date, the Foundation has given over $4 million to support local communities with the majority of grants awarded in the areas of health, education, social services, arts and culture, conservation/historic preservation, and community and recreational development.

Building Expansion Committee member Linda Denz says Lakewood Library hits on every one of the Bond Foundation areas listed. "Northern Oconto County may be property-rich, but we are community-resource-poor. As the only CLIC (Learning and Information Center from Suring to Wabeno), we must provide for the needs of a diverse and very underserved population, not to mention the thousands of visitors who take advantage of our trails, lakes and forests each year. We absolutely need more space and critical upgrades to our existing facility to meet the growing demand for 21st Century services."

"We deeply appreciate the Bond Foundation's generous financial support of Lakewood Library," says BEC Co-chair Tom Thielke. "Their grant was the first major contribution we received and gave us the impetus to step up our efforts to secure the rest of the funding. Large donor support for this kind of project is critical. With over 50% of the budget in committed funding, doors are now opening to other donors who require that a project meets that threshold before applications are considered."

Lakes Country Public Library is owned and operated by the Towns of Doty, Lakewood, Riverview and Townsend under a 2020 Joint Library Agreement. Donations of any size are welcome and appreciated. Contact Library Director Katie Essermann (715-276-9020/lak@lakescountylibrary.org).

Sister Amnesia's Country Western Nonsense Jamboree Presented by Wabeno Area Players

On August 26, 27, 28, a lively group of nuns and their side-kick priest will two-step their rescheduled show onto the Wabeno Area Players' stage in the Nancy Volk Auditorium at Wabeno High School. The show was cancelled in early July, due to cast illnesses, but they are back to 100% excellent health. The cast is anxious to serve up a constant stream of knee-slapping comedy, and zesty tunes in "Sister Amnesia's Country Western Nonsense Jamboree", "Nonsense Jamboree" for short.

The Little Sisters of Hoboken are finally back in Wabeno with their musical revue, with a country-western twang. Sister Mary Paul, AKA Sister Amnesia, has recovered from her amnesia, suffered when a crucifix fell

Local disagreement to DOT plans for Hwy 8 east of Crandon

By Mike Monte

A recent meeting held by the Wisconsin Dept. of Transportation at the Forest County Potawatomi Museum a plan was presented for a change in Hwy U.S. 8 in Crandon.

What was laid out for those attending was a plan to change the current four-lane highway along Pioneer Plaza on the south side and Parsons and Flannery on the north, to a two-lane road with a passing lane in the center. The extra east bound lane extending up the hill to the east would be removed, making this a two-lane highway. There would also be renovations made to the highway where the Potawatomi tribal hall and businesses are located.

What is concerning some folks is the changing of the highway by Pioneer Plaza. There are currently four lanes, and reducing that to two lanes with a turn lane in the center seems to be fixing a problem that doesn't exist. Traffic going either direction flows nicely, with cars that are turning into the plaza able to use the outside lane and be passed easily by those driving by in the center two lanes.

been found in the United States as well as Canada after it was first introduced to North America in 1932. Frogbit can be detrimental to native species and habitats when it is somewhere it should not be.

Specifically, the plant can reduce the concentration of dissolved oxygen within the water which fish and other aquatic animals depend on to live. Unfortunately, this invasive species has been found in Marinette County, as well as other locations in Wisconsin. European frogbit was first found in the State of Wisconsin in July of 2021. It is important that the average person is able to identify European frogbit so they can report the occurrence and limit the spread.

- European frogbit can be identified by the following characteristics.
- Free floating, meaning that there are no roots attached to anything other than the plant
 - Small (0.5-2.5"), round to heart shaped leaves, with a purple underside
 - Leaves that form a rosette, or circular arrangement
 - Small flowers with three white petals and a yellow center, typically visible from June to August

European frogbit can be confused with other common aquatic plant species such as:
 • Yellow floating heart - another invasive species - and Common water hyacinth. To distinguish them, look at leaf size as Common water hyacinth is 5-15cm larger, and Yellow floating heart is typically 2-5cm larger. Additionally, European frogbit has smooth heart-shaped leaves, and Yellow floating heart also has scalloped heart-shaped leaves. Common water hyacinth leaves are much larger and non-heart shaped.

The free-floating form of this plant can lead to densely-tangled floating mats, which can crowd and shade out native aquatic vegetation. It can dominate wetlands where it occurs, and the dense mats may affect wildlife as well as native plants.

European frog-bit grows rapidly and can be found in slow-moving waters such as sheltered inlets, ponds, slow-running rivers, and ditches. Large areas of frog-bit that die in the fall and decompose may lead to reduced oxygen levels in the water that can affect aquatic life. New plants can grow from stem fragments, seeds and winter buds (known as turions) that can be spread to new waters by boats and wildlife.

Learn how to identify European frog-bit and prevent accidentally spreading this plant with your watercraft.

Avoid infested areas or reduce your speed when travelling near European frog-bit. Boat wake can dislodge plants and allow them to spread to new areas. Inspect your boat, trailer, and equipment after each use. Remove all plants, animals, and mud before moving to a new waterbody. Avoid planting European frog-bit in your aquarium or water garden. Aquarium hobbyists and water gardeners should only use native or non-invasive plants. Ask your retailer for advice on plants that are not invasive. Never release unwanted aquarium plants or pets. Return or donate unwanted plants to a garden center or pet store, or put them in the garbage.

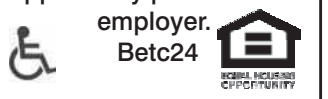

If you've seen European frog-bit or another invasive species in the wild, please contact Forest County Land & Water at 1-715-478-1387 or lcc@co.forest.wi.us.

Nicolet College Foundation encourages future and current students to apply for scholarships

Anyone planning on attending Nicolet College during the Spring and Summer Terms of 2023 is encouraged to apply for a scholarship from the Nicolet College Foundation to help cover college costs.

"Even with Nicolet being one of the most affordable colleges in the state, paying for tuition and books can still be a challenge for many," said Heather Schallock, Foundation executive director.

"And that's where scholarships come in. They've made college possible for countless individuals over the years and have opened the door to the education they need to get ahead in life."

The application period will run from Sept. 1 to Sept. 30 to cover costs for Spring Term 2023 and Summer Term 2023.

The online application is available at nicoletcollege.academicworks.com.

Scholarships range from $500 to $2,500. The funds are available for both new and returning Nicolet students to help pay for tuition and books.

Both part-time and full-time students with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher are eligible to receive scholarships.

Scholarship recipient and Nursing student Sarah Alberg said she was grateful for the funds and happy with her decision to enroll at Nicolet.

"When I think of being awarded a scholarship, there is a sense of duty to apply myself even more due to the fact that others are choosing to donate their hard-earned money to help me succeed as a student. It says someone believes in me and I don't want to let them down."

Schallock noted that the scholarships are available only because of the generosity of Foundation donors.

"They truly believe in the value of a Nicolet College education," she said. "They see how it can improve the lives of individuals and also benefit the communities in which graduates live and work."

For more information about scholarships, like and follow the Nicolet College Foundation on Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn, or contact the Nicolet College Foundation office at (715) 365-4518, 1-800-544-3039, ext. 4518; TTY 1-800-947-3529 or 711 relay; or by email at hschallock@nicoletcollege.edu.

Nicolet College Learning in Retirement set to launch new season of offerings

The Learning in Retirement program at Nicolet College is returning this fall and winter with more in-person options as well as virtual offerings with its upcoming season of classes that feature many new courses as well as the return of a few long-time favorites.

“We’re moving ahead with cautious optimism in this era of Covid and have decided to offer our membership more opportunities to meet in person,” said Cate Hallisy, LIR president.

“It’s been a challenging couple years, and more and more we were hearing that people really wanted to be around other people. They missed the social aspect of LIR and with vaccines being readily available we’ve elected to offer that option.”

Classes start Sept. 9 and run through December with more than two dozen offerings that cover a gamut of topics. Some classes will meet only once for a couple of hours while others will be part of a series that meet once a week over several weeks.

New offerings include a fascinating and detailed look at the Mystery of the Edmund Fitzgerald as told by a Great Lakes shipping history buff, an Antarctica Travelogue which includes a first-hand account of an expedition across the Drake Passage and another Travelogue to Panama, Understanding Cryptocurrency which makes heads and tails out of the new monetary system, and Managing Wildfires, which delves into the world of how the USDA Forest Service mitigates and suppresses these growing natural disasters.

Other topics include Houseplants 101, Women in American History, Let’s Go YouTubing, Reflections on Rhinelander History, and the presentation Do You Have a Healthy Heart? by a cardiovascular internist.

Returning long-time favorites include the four-part Ced Vig Nature Series, Ernie’s Matinee Movies, Current Events, and What We’re Reading Now.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, classes include Bikes for Seniors and “Sole” Mates, a special interest group that will set off on a half dozen nature hikes on area trails each about two- to three-mile long in September and October.

Currently about 200 members from throughout the Northwoods belong to LIR. Annual membership is $45 and runs from July 1 to June 30 of the following year. Members can join at anytime during the year and take as many or as few classes as they desire. For a full list of classes and to view all of the details, visit nicoletcollege.edu/lir.

Crandon Masonic Lodge donates Fire
TKO unit to Laona - Wabeno Rescue Squad

Jay Wilson, Louie Spaude and DJ Huddleston present the Fire TKO to Rick Enders and Abby Cassidy

The Crandon Masonic Lodge donated a portable fire suppression unit to the Laona/Wabeno Area Rescue Squad. Masonic lodges across the state of Wisconsin are donating these devices to local fire, emergency and police agencies. It takes on average, 5 minutes from the call to the fire station to the scene, all while the fire is gaining energy. These devices called Fire TKO, helps the emergency services save lives and structures. The Fire TKO is a condensed aerosol based fire suppression system that extinguishes and suppresses fires in seconds. This unit does not remove the oxygen from the air so it is not harmful to people, animals or the atmosphere. The aerosol is also non-corrosive and it lessens the amount of water needed to finish fighting the fire. A portable fire suppression unit could cost up to $1,300 per unit.

The other change the DOT brought up was removing the outside lane past the motel. There again, this doesn't seem workable or practical. Anyone turning off into the various driveways will back traffic up if there is traffic coming at them in the other lane. The way it is now, a car with turn signals on doesn't back up traffic while waiting to cross in the incoming lane. Another factor is loaded trucks leaving Crandon and heading east. Trucks don't get up to speed like an automobile or pickup. The lane that the DOT wants to remove is used by truckers trying to get up to speed, allowing faster vehicles to pass.

A more workable solution in the minds of some of the people following the project is to increase the double lane on the south side of the highway all the way to County W. Even better would be to extend that double lane up to the area near the Potawatomi installations, where changes are already planned on the highway.

There is a petition being circulated at this time that will be presented to the DOT. All are urged to sign if in agreement with the local citizenry.

If you would like to talk directly to the DOT, the man to talk to is Craig Thompson. His phone number is 1-608-266-1114. To talk to Congressman Tiffany, you can call his Wausau number, which is 715-298-9344. His website is: tiffany.house.gov.

Caring Paws makes donation to Forest County Humane Society

The Forest County Humane Society recently took in 6 puppies found on the side of the highway by a good samaritan who rescued them. The puppies were dehydrated and extremely warm from the sun. The crew at the Forest County Humane Society jumped into action and got the puppies cooled down, administering subcutaneous fluids, testing for parvo and feeding them puppy formula. The all of the tests conducted were negative.

Julianna Bauknecht, founder of Caring Paws, heard of the dilemma and wanted to make one more generous donation before concentrating on school. Julianna donated $7,114.22. Caring Paws was started 8 years ago when Julianna was just nine years old. In the last 8 years donations of close to $50,000 has been given out by Caring Paws. The money is to go to the care of the banana box puppies and any other animal in the Forest County Humane Society.

The banana box puppies will be cared for at the humane society for about 3 months before they can be adopted out. The shelter is however taking applications for possible adoption of the puppies. The shelter is also taking donations, such as puppy formula and volunteers to care for the animals.

Sister Mary Wilhelm, the convent nurse, played by Linda Boatright, will amaze audiences with her divine voice. Father Virgil, played by RJ Chickey, tries to keep the sisters down-to-earth. The cast is rounded out by Bob Brown and Kim Wille.

The responsibilities of director, pianist, set designer and musical director are all performed by Mary
